MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

IN SELECTED POETRY

God broke the years to hours and days,
That hour by hour, and day by day,
Just going on a little way,
We might be able all along
To keep quite strong.
Should all the weights of life be laid
Across our shoulders and the future, rife
With woe and struggle, meet us face to face
At just one place,
We would not go.
Our feet would stop, and so
God lays a little on us every day.
And never, I believe, in all the way
Will burdens bear so deep
Or pathway lie so steep
But we can go if by God's power
We only bear the burden of the hour.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Berlin, Md., Jan. 1—Henry L. Harrison, of Berlin, was married this morning at Elkton to Miss Frances L. Tull, of Marion, Somerset county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison attended a reception in Philadelphia last night and early this morning, accompanied by Joseph T. Harrison and James Tawlins, went to the Maryland Gretna Green. After the ceremony they went to Atlantic City. They will reside in Berlin.

Mr. Harrison is a nursery-plant manager in Berlin and is a son of State Senator Orlando Harrison.

The bride is a niece of Gordon Tull, former State's Attorney of Somerset county.

Chestertown, Dec. 31—Mr. and Mrs. J. Bennett Grasley were injured at 6 o'clock tonight when their automobile skidded, overturned and was wrecked at Goose Hill, about two miles from Chestertown. Their 7-year-old daughter and a nephew, a Mr. Dunning, of New York, escaped injury. The party was bound for the Grasley home in Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs. Grasley and the child were brought by a passing motorist to the office of Dr. H. P. Copeland, at Chestertown. Dr. Copeland, assisted by Dr. L. H. Dodd, gave them medical attention. Mr. Grasley suffered a dislocated ankle and cuts on head and hands, and Mrs. Grasley had deep cuts on her head and arms and on her right leg.

Easton, Dec. 31—Former State Senator George Laws Bartlett, of Talbot county, announces that he will be a candidate for Congress from the First district.

"My idea in entering the contest," says Mr. Bartlett, "is that I want to strengthen the hands of the President and Congress in the next election. Being a successful farmer, and also engaged in the milling business in my native town, I feel sure my vote will be for the very best interests for good government. I shall stand on my record in the Maryland Legistlature, having served in three sessions. What we need is fewer lawyers, and more practical business men in Congress."

Mr. Bartlett declares he believes in law enforcement, decency, being dry and taking the moral side.

"I shall make an active campaign of the nine counties on the Eastern Shore," he concludes, "and believe, if nominated, I will be elected."

An unusually important business transaction took place in Centreville Friday, when the Wright & Lowe Company was dissolved and two new companies formed from the properties and holdings of the old company. The hardware store was formed into the Lowe Hardware Company, to be controlled by R. E. C. Lowe and F. Asbury Bartlett, while the interest in the Ford plant and sales agency was formed into the Wright Motor Company, to be controlled by Walter T. Wright and Philemon H. Thompson.

The dissolution of the Wright and Lowe Company was effective Thursday. Henceforward the holdings of the old company will be run under separate heads, viz: Wright Motor Company and Lowe Hardware Company.

Members of the old firm state that the only reason for the dissolution was that the business at both the hardware store and the Ford plant has reached such proportions that its management had become unwieldly.

For the second time in the last 12 months, Queen Anne's County's Public School System, under the leadership of Superintendent T. Gordon Bennett, has been officially designated by the State Board of Education, as leader of all the counties in Maryland in teaching efficiency.

When the annual report of the State Board of Education was published in 1924, Queen Anne's county was formally recognized as the only county with every teacher in service either a normal school graduate, or equipped with equivalent training and experience.

The new report, just given out this week, discloses that while other counties are striving to reach the same goal, Queen Anne's continues to hold highest honors.

Cambridge, Jan. 1—Work on the nurses' home at Cambridge hospital has been begun by the contractor and is being carried forward as rapidly as weather conditions permit.

The building, which will have three stories and basement, is being erected on a lot donated by the late William M. Fletcher during his lifetime.

It faces the DuPont Maternity hospital and stands near the Choptank river, of which many of its windows as well as its porches command a beautiful view.

The building will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity. The heating plant will be in the basement and there will be also a parlor and large recreation room suitable for dances.

On the first floor there will be a business office, reception room and rooms for the superintendent and assistant superintendent, with eight rooms for nurses.

There will be fifteen rooms for nurses on both the second and third floors, making a total of thirty-eight.

The building is of brick and will cost, complete, $80,000, the greater part of which has been subscribed. About half the money subscribed has been paid and efforts are now being made to collect the remainder.

Henry P. Hopkins, of Baltimore, is the architect.

Through the activity and interest of State Senator Dudley G. Roe, Centreville will soon receive one of the field guns captured from the Germans during the World War, to be placed on the Court House green.

Formal notice that one of the guns had been allocated to Centreville was given Senator Roe in a letter from General Milton A. Reckord. Senator Roe had previously written him, asking that one of the captured cannon be sent here to be placed in the court house park.

Salisbury, Dec. 31—Isaac Mills, a farmer of Green Hill, Md., was instantly killed, and his wife and child seriously injured, when a Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railroad train struck Mill's automobile at a grade crossing in Hebron, this county, at 4:50 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Mills and the 6-year-old daughter were rushed to the Peninsula General hospital here. The mother, suffering from internal injuries, is still unconscious, and is not expected to live. The child has a broken leg and minor injuries.

The family was returning from a visit to Mills' parents in Hebron and and had proceeded only a few hundred yards when the fatal crash occurred. The car was carried 50 feet and piled upon the station platform.

The fact that the crossing is not obscured and the train had come almost to a stop to discharge passengers, leaves the circumstances of the fatality unexplained.

The automobile was an open touring car type. Mills' foot was discovered crushed in the transmission and his body was not extricated until the accident was reviewed by a coroner's jury.

School Days!
Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.

Wellsworth Windsor spectacles are sturdy and good looking.
