A well situated Farm and Wood land for sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Honorable the Justices of Talbot county Court, will be exposed to sale, and sold, that Farm and Plantation belonging to James Neall, situate, lying and being on the waters of Bolingbrook Creek, in Talbot county, consisting of a parcel of Land called Miller's Purchase, and of another parcel called Lowe's Rambles, and containing about two hundred and fifty acres of Land, partly occupied by Francis Price, and partly by Foster Price, & bounded by the lands of William Hughlett, Mark Delahay, and William Ross. The improvements upon this land are inconsiderable. The soil naturally kind, and by due cultivation, productive. The situation on the waters of the creek and near Choptank River, very favorable for fish, oysters and fowl, and for conveying the produce of the farm to market. The quantity of wood land attached to the Farm is considerable and much exceeds the proportion required for its support. These lands are decreed to be sold to satisfy a mortgage heretofore executed by James Neall, to Robert Moore and Nicholas Hammond, to secure the payment of money.—They will be sold on the premises on THURSDAY the 25th day of November next, to the highest bidder for ready money. The sale to commence at the hour of one o'clock. On the ratification of the sale and on the payment of the purchase money, a deed will be executed to the purchaser or his Heirs in fee as directed by the said decree. A plot of the premises will be shown to persons desirous of purchasing them.

N. B. The Editors of the Cambridge Chronicle and Elkton Press, will oblige the Society, by giving one or two insertions to the above resolution.

THE UNION TAVERN.

The subscriber having removed from Delaware and taken a permanent lease of this Establishment, situate in Easton, Maryland, at the Sign of the EAGLE, opposite the Farmers' Bank, and Post-Office. Is now prepared to give entertainment therein to all travellers and citizens, who may favour him with a call. From his long experience in the business of Inn-Keeper; and his own habits of personal attention, and those of his family, he can assure the public of the best accommodation in his House; his establishment has undergone a thorough repair; and if cleanliness, good living and moderate bills can attract the waried traveller and country gentleman, whose business call them often to Town, the subscriber flatters himself with the hope of very soon obtaining a full share of patronage. As a stranger he asks only a call, and a fair trial of his house.

TO BE RENTED

For one or more years, that large and commodious

BRICK TAVERN

and its appertenances, well known by the name of the

EASTON HOTEL,

Situate in the town of Easton, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, at present & for some years past occupied by Mr. Solomon Lowe: This establishment is universally admitted to be the largest and most convenient for a Public House of any on the Peninsula, and to a man well calculated to conduct it, an opportunity will be afforded for doing a very extensive and profitable business; more particularly if he has a sufficient capital to carry it on advantageously.

Easton is known as a town of considerable trade, and the beautiful Steam Boat Maryland which plies twice a week between Baltimore, Annapolis and this place, considerably increases the business, and of course adds very much to the value of this establishment, by the constant intercourse of travellers from the different counties on the Western and Eastern Shores to those places, and foreigners from other States.

Possession will be given on the first day of January next. Persons wishing to rent are invited to come and view the premises. The terms which will be moderate, will be made known by application to the subscriber.

Easton, july 13 SAMUEL GROOME.

CATTLE SHOW.

BY the Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, September 2d, 1824.

The Board, considering that the Election of Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States on Monday the 8th day of November next, and the session of some of the neighboring County Courts about the same period, may very much interfere with the arrangements of the Cattle Show proposed to be exhibited on the 4th and the two following days of the same month, and prevent the attendance of distant residents and members, have

Resolved, That the Cattle Show and Fair for the Eastern Shore be postponed to Thursday, Friday and Saturday the 18th, 19th and 20th of November next; and that notice be given in the public papers that the Cattle Show and Fair will be held at Easton on these days in the same manner and with the same arrangements in all other respects as have heretofore been published.
