Many of you have seen a cloud gradually dissolved and blotted out .-- | Where does it go? It goes from sight the light of the Son of God. They are cast into the depths of the sea. Who ever fathomed and searched the depths? That's a pretty safe place to have our sins, I imagine. If any of you really want a joyful Christmas, just let me ask you to put your sins out of the way by accepting Jesus Christ.

To the true believer the judgment is going to do with that passage which says "every man will be judged according to mend it to everybody. Yours truly, his works." I answer that there will be a judgment of sin and a judgment of rewards. Is there to be a judgment for a man who is already in Jesus Christ? answer ten thousand times "No!" My Jesus Christ. He has been with me since, and do you think it possible that God is going to rake up all the sins that have been put by and hold me responsible for them? I answer "Never!"
