EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

Numerous reports having been printed coupling the name of John M. Langston, the negro ex-Congressman with one of the new U. S. Circuit Court judgeships, I have been making a quiet investigation, with a view of ascertaining whether Mr. Harrison was really seriously considering such an insult to the white citizens of this country. From what I succeeded in learning it is pretty safe to say that Mr. Harrison is fully prepared, in certain contingencies, to elevate a negro to the bench; but whether Langston or one of the half a dozen other negroes whose applications have been filed is not apparent. One of the contingencies referred to is public opinion, and there is good reason for believing that some of these rumors about Langston's appointment emanated directly from the White House, and were started expressly for the purpose of feeling the pulse of the public on the subject, and that Mr. Harrison is very carefully studying what is said about it in the newspapers. Washington Correspondent.

Up to the present the State has recovered judgments for upwards of $72,000 of the money stolen by Archer. Attorney-General Whyte says he has no doubt but that he will recover the whole amount. Where is the example of a Republican administration sending one of its scoundrels to the penitentiary and then recovering back the stolen property? There is none. The Archer case conclusively proves the honesty of the Democratic party and its ability to punish its own rascals without any assistance from Republicans. Republican reform has proven itself a fraud all over the country.—Cambridge News.

The Republicans of Baltimore were sorely defeated in their fight for harmony last Tuesday. War to the very hilt of the knife has been declared by each faction against the other. The result of Tuesday's city conventions, which were said to be preliminary steps toward harmony in the ranks, shows that the adherents to the Henderson wing, who are designated as the "outs," are more than a match for the division under Postmaster Johnson. If appearances in this case are not deceitful President Harrison will get no votes from Maryland in the nominating convention of '92.

Caroline county Democrats who wish to show their approval of the proposed testimonial to Senator Gorman, whose untiring efforts to kill the force bill were crowned with such splendid success, will now have an opportunity to do so. A subscription list, for all those who wish to join in this tribute to a faithful official and good Democrat, has been placed in our hands and all amounts recieved will be acknowledged and forwarded to the secretary of the testimonial committee.

The editor of the Morning Herald on Tuesday printed a learned article on the coming of the shad. Choptank fishermen, who are more famaliar with the festive fish, will, however, discount his knowledge thereof when they read in the Herald: "And for a brief period the sportsman who knows how to "twirl a fly" can be certain of good fishing whenever the water is reasonably calm."

The Mahone and Langston factions of Virginia have, it is said, become united. Langston, representing the "black belt," and Mahone the federal patronage of the Old Dominion, is a powerful mongrel combination, the Republican papers say.

The Salisbury Advertiser endorses Robert F. Brattan for Comptroller, and says he does not belong to any of the political factions of the State.

An Easton Democrat correspondent advocates Col. Oswald Tilghman, of Talbot, for the State comptrollership.

The name of Hon. Daniel M. Henry, of Dorchester, has been added to the long list of Senatorial probabilities.

AN ABSURD RESOLUTION.

"Resolved, That it is the unanimous voice of this convention that all public institutions should exist for the advantage of all citizens, and should be provided and opened as freely to the colored people as to the whites; that equal opportunities for industrial and manual training should be as generally and liberally provided for one race as for another, and that the representatives of this convention will steadily demand equal patronage for both; and finally, enlightened society should demand as the only adequate expression of the highest civilization which is its object to establish and maintain, an identical standard of citizenship for all classes of men."

At a convention of colored people of Dorchester county, held in Cambridge a few weeks ago for the purpose of defining their position toward the political parties, the above resolution was proposed and adopted. It is not surprising that there are still among the colored people some who are so ignorant and audacious as to demand everything, but that in a convention composed, as is assumed, of representative men of the race throughout the county there should be formulated an opinion of this character and receive the approval of that body brings the colored people into ridicule and disgrace. We are satisfied that the better thinking negroes do not subscribe to and endorse this sentiment, but that such hot-headed and conceited characters should be allowed to place the colored people in such an awkward position is certainly unfortunate. If these self-constituted leaders would avail themselves of the privileges of becoming useful and industrious citizens, rather than lend themselves to a movement that is so ridiculous, it would be much better for colored people's interests; for instead of representing they actually misrepent their people, and the sooner they are driven into innocuous desuetude by those who are competent to speak the better it will be for their interests. Why are they not consistent in their absurd notions and demand churches in common? No, they don't want that, but whatever will taunt their white neighbor, whom they have been educated by a few narrow-minded politicians to despise, they advocate. We do not envy Dorset her colored statesmen and she would do well to import some of our colored citizens to show hers how small and silly they make themseves appear.

Gloriosa is another of the queenly ones. A few seasons back unknown; now it carries the banner of style and quality in the front rank. Wanamaker's and Clothing –Men's Clothing. The thoughts go together. You count on getting here—for Man or Boy—the very best in ready-made that the market affords. Better than that. There's no "market" limitations. Whatever the possibility is, is the Wanamaker mark.

That's the theory. The proof is all around.

Meet a natty Business Suit on the street—from Wanamaker's very likely. So was that nobby Top Coat or that dressy Evening Rig, just as certainly.

The newest shadings and weaving show in the light Overcoats and Suits. This Spring the young men's fancy lightly turns to "wood brown." It's the tint that takes. Just the daintiest Oversack in this daintiest shade, $15.

One of the newest things in Wall Papers is "Etched" Felt. Meant to do away with the plain look of simple Felt, and yet preserve the roughish, stippled effect that people of taste so prize in a wall covering just now. The "Etched" Felt is mostly in two tones—some patterns in two colors; any of it has a peculiar richness. 35 to $1.50 the piece.

Another Wall Paper feature is the way woven stuffs of almost every kind have been simulated.

Here are Tapestries that you might mistake for Gobelins; here are Linen effects equal to the finest Dresden—if you keep far enough away.

Wanamaker's.

Others (at 50c the piece) have the seeming of Moire Silk—marvelous mimicry. Cretonnes and Chintzes and all that, cool and comforting for walls of the summer rooms, come at 15 to 25c the price.

Wall Papers of all the going styles crowd the sample shelves.

Have you been troubled to get just the right Picture Rod Moulding? Almost everybody has. We've been looking to that. Here are sorts and sorts that harmonize with the different Papers. You needn't have another Picture Rod Moulding worry.

Philip W. Downes
vs.
Thomas Mervine, of T.; Thomas Mervine, of E.; Harry B. Mervine; Charlotte Whiting and Chas. S. Whiting, her husband; Eleanor Kyle and Solomon Kyle, her husband; Caroline Mervine, of T.; Mary Mervine.

In the Circuit Court for Caroline County, Sitting in Equity.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a sale of the real estate of Thomas Mervine, dec., situate in Caroline county, State of Maryland, and the investment of the net proceeds thereof in some profitable fund in accordance with the terms of said deceased's last will and testament.

The bill states that Thomas Mervine, the life tenant, is notoriously insolvent, and failed to execute the provisions of the last will and testament of the said deceased and has so neglected the farm that the soil is exhausted, unproductive and not cultivated; that the buildings are delapidated, decaying and rotting from the want of alteration, and are deserted, and that it is absolutely necessary for the preservation of the estate and greatly beneficial to the interest of every person connected therewith that the said real estate should be sold and the net proceeds invested in accordance with the terms of said last will and testament of said Thomas Mervine, dec.

That Thomas Mervine, son of the testator; Thomas Mervine, son of Edwin Mervine; Charlotte Mervine, who intermarried with Charles S. Whiting; Eleanor Mervine, who intermarried with Solomon Kyle; Caroline Mervine and Mary Mervine are adults and do not reside in the State of Maryland, and that Mary Mervine is non compos mentis.

It is, therefore, adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Caroline county, State of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 8th day of April, 1891, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 27th day of April, 1891, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

Joshua M. Anthony
vs.
Wm. F. Bell, James E. Bell, Joshua Bell, Sarah A. Sharp and Willoughby Sharp, Mary Gould and Alexander Gould, and a female child of Alexine Bell, whose name is unknown.

In the Orphans' Court of Caroline county.
In Equity.
MARCH 17TH, 1891.

The object of this suit is to procure a sale of one undivided fifth interest of Byard Bell, late of Caroline county, dec., intestate, of a farm, devised by the last will and testament of George Bell to the said Byard Bell and others, situate in Caroline county, for the payment of the debts of the said Byard Bell, &c.

The bill states that Byard Bell departed this life intestate leaving no personal estate, the aforesaid defendants are his heirs-at-law, and that the aforesaid real estate is not worth five hundred dollars, and that all the defendants are adults except the said Alexine Bell's child, and that the defendants reside in Maryland except Joshua Bell and Alexine Bell's child, whose name is unknown, are non residents of the State of Maryland, and that it is absolutely necessary for the said real estate should be sold for the payment of his debts, and that he is indebted to Joshua M. Anthony in the sum of one hundred and five dollars and eighty-seven cents.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Caroline county once in each of four successive weeks before the twentieth day of April, 1891, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill of complaint and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 6th day of May, 1891, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
