THE CAROLINE CAMPAIGN.

Not in many years has the Democratic party entered the canvass with more satisfactory assurances of complete victory than is manifest all over the county at this time. Personal differences, and other things which might have perhaps done injury to the good cause, were weeks ago put out of sight. Every Democrat will do his duty from now until the close of the polls on the 7th of November.

The gains that the party has made in recent years, and the discipline which pervades the whole organization, render futile all attempts to divide or distract the Democracy. The vote last year was a fair test of party strength, and conclusively showed that a considerable majority of the voters are on the side of our party. On what grounds can the Republicans hope, in the face of the splendid organization already formed, to detract votes from our ticket, which all admit to be one of the best ever put forward in Caroline county? Their effort to make some combination or other by which to win must indeed, by this time, be discouraging. Besides, by such sacrifices on their part they in a great measure forfeit that self-respect as party men, which is so essential in securing public confidence and support. In vain does their party organ cry for aid from any Democrat. The threadbare, transparent, and hypocritical talk about "the ring" is the veriest chaff which can fool nobody now.

The active work of the Democratic committees is meeting with a cheerful and universal response which presages a very spirited campaign during the remaining days of October and until the hour when the voting begins. The special committee, which has direct supervision over this work, will next week announce a grand rally which will take place on Thursday preceding the day of election, and will be the triumphant climax of the campaign. In the mean time Democratic clubs are being formed at various points in the county, and at the meetings of these the importance of Democratic victory will be fully discussed and talked over among the voters.

Our opponents state that they will make a determined fight to continue to control the public affairs of the county, and to that end will put forth special efforts to elect their county commissioners again, knowing full well that if they succeed in this they will be able to dispose of the greater part of the patronage and thus aid their party for several years to come.

But the Democrats last July took the surest way to defeat them in this by choosing an excellent levy court ticket, Messrs. Lord, Day and Nichols. Like their colleagues these gentlemen have special fitness for the office to which they will be elected.

It affords us great pleasure to note these most favorable indications for the Democracy, and we bespeak the best efforts of every party man to continue zealously and follow up our present bright prospects to the fruition of victory.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Col. Thomas S. Hodson, who has been in Baltimore for the past two years, has been notified by the officer of registration for Crisfield district to show cause why his name should not be stricken off. The Republicans are very anxious that Col. Hodson shall still continue to hold his residence at Crisfield. They, perhaps, have some hope that the judicial contest, so long continued, may make it possible to elect him judge, although the first judicial circuit has a Democratic majority of over a thousand.

Mr. Charles Turner Perkins, of Prince George's county; has been selected as a candidate for comptroller by a special committee appointed for that purpose by Mr. Charles T. Wescott, of Kent county. But we haven't heard the Republicans say anything aqout this being a "ring" nomination, although it was made, practically, by one man—Mr. Wescott.

The judges of the court and the grand jury have again, as they have often done before, officially recognized the danger to which our public records are subject, and recommend the building of a secure court house. The sentiment of the property owners seems to be unanimously in favor of better protection and they are becoming impatient at the delay.

Dorchester's popular Democratic ticket, named on Tuesday last, is as follows: For Senate, Joseph H. Johnson; House of Delegates, Levi D. Travers, Wm. F. Applegarth, Dr. Francis P. Phelps; Sheriff Wm. C. Dean; Commissioners, J. Wilson Dail, Francis E. Loomis, John M. Colston; Surveyor, Wm. Hurlock.

The Republicans of the First judicial circuit met in convention at Salisbury, on Wednesday, and named Col. Thomsa S. Hodson for chief judge. The convention will meet again on October 12th and choose a candidate for associate judge.

Orphans' Court Proceedings.

A full bench in the Orphans' court on Tuesday, transacted the following business.

The renunciation of Elisha Wright of his right to administer the estate of his deceased wife, Margaret J. Wright, was ordered to be recorded, and letters of administration were granted Edward W. Liden on the estate of said deceased.

Letters of administration granted by the register of wills to Ann E. Douglass on the estate of Celia Mobray, were approved by the court.

An order was passed directing Geo. W. Betson, administrator of Marshall S. Mutchler, deceased, to convey certain real estate, purchased of said Mutchler in his lifetime, to Samuel F. Pearson.

Robert E. Coursey, administrator of James Hall, deceased, presented an inventory and appraisement of personal estate of said deceased and was granted an order to sell same.

How it is that fancy Dress Cheviots (Scotch effects) told of in other stores as cheap at $1.25 are 65 cents a yard here, don't signify. The fact is enough. But $1,25 really is a fair price for them. We never knew of a yard at less than that until now. A dozen styles, 52 inches. Think of it! $3.25 for an ample dress pattern instead of $6,25 or more.

Regular $1 Serge Cheviot at 50c is another surprise, Navy blue only, width 54 in.

All through the Dress Goods stock you can find just such unheard of values.

All-wool Henriettas. Every grace and goodness of seasons past, and quarter to the third more of quality at any of the prices.

At 50c, 46 in.; 50 shades
At 75c, 46 in., 75 shades
At $1, 46 in., 75 shades

If possible, finer wool, better weaving, stronger warp and weft than Henrietta ever before had.

Black reversible Henrietta that you'd think to pay $1 for is 75c the yard. The importer overdid it. No need to tell the rest—they all know where to turn.

Just as tempting are the 85c Whipcords at 65c—navy blue as well as black.

Suppose you want plain or self-figured Dress Stuffs—the kinds that any woman can wear and that almost every woman is glad to have.

Be seated, please. Notice this sort and that and that and so on until three hundred and sixteen pieces have been shown you and no two alike.

Just the plains and self figures—Whipcords, Bengalines, Serges, Armures and the like: Three Hundred and Sixteen choices!

And all sparkle with all the newness and novelty that can be crowded into plain and self figured Dress Stuffs 75c, 85c $1, $1.10, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50, $3.

Not counting the Camel's-Hair sorts either--more than two hundred of them. 75c to$2.50.

If the light were bad you might think that the reason why those wonderful Velveteens look so much like Silk Velvets. But it isn't bad. You might sense every variation of shades at a glance. And the seeming of likeness stays after you've handled the goods.

Eighty-three colorings and black.
24 inch, $1.00 the yard.
32 inch, $1.50 the yard.
Heavier, for Women's Cayes, 27 in., $1.50.

Nip enough in the air to set you thinking of the warm weaves—the fleecy Eiderdown Flannels, the mellow stuffs from France, from Saxony, from all around.

In this one segment 192 feet of shelving loaded with them.

Plain Saxonies, 30 styles, at 50c.
Striped Saxonies, 30 styles, at 60c.
Camel's-Hair Stripes, 10 styles at 75c.
French Printed Suitings, 50 styles, 70c.

For the first time in this country, imported Eiderdown at 25c. There'll be house gowns and wrappers, bath robes and snugly things for children's wear prettier than ever because of it.

Fifty cent Dress Goods at 25c—two styles printed Serge; Wide-Wale Cheviot. We told of them yesterday. You'll know them by the extra big crowd.

Just across the aisle are the pretty Scotch effects—65c instead of $1.25.

Never-tire steam, machines that "hum-m-m" from morning till night, and Yankee wit make possible these snowy mountains of Sheets and Piliow Cases at about the yard cost of the Muslin. Better than home work—smoother seams, straighter, evener stitching.

Bleached Pillow Cases.
42x36 in., 9c 50x36 in., 11½c
45x36 in., 10c 54x36 in., 12½c
45x36 in., 12½c, worth 15c.

Bleached Pillow Cases, best quality Muslin.

42x76½ in., 30, 38, 40c

Bleached Sheets, best Muslin.
63x90 in., 60c 72x93½ in., 68c
72x90 in., 65, 83, 85c

Unbleached Sheets.
81x90 in., 55c 90x90 in., 60c

Flit!—flit! Two Bicycles glance past. One cost $150 the other $70. Which was which? You can't teil. No one can tell without close looking. The $70 wheel is just as good as the other. No one else has them.
