SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 5, 1894.

AN APPEAL TO THE DISTRICT.

The long-continued and much-deplored illness of Hon. Robert F. Brattan seems to preclude his acceptance of a renomination for the office he now holds. Were his health sufficient he would without doubt be the unanimous choice of the district. As the situation now is, however, some other good Democrat will be nominated and elected to Congress. A number of prominent gentlemen, conspicuous alike for their party fealty and ability to worthily fill the exalted station, have been named by the press of the State. There is, no doubt, at least one candidate in each of the counties of the district, and in some there are more than one.

Caroline has more than one citizen whose availability and fitness are acknowledged throughout the Shore, and even far beyond the confines of the eight counties which form the First Congressional District. The local Democracy will, however, when the convention meets to name the successful nominee be a unit in one choice. Our candidate will have the heartiest support of every Democrat in Caroline and deserve in an eminent degree the zealous advocacy of every party man on this side of the bay. Not the slightest reasonable ground will be left for any objection to the gentleman whose candidacy our representatives will espouse when the nominating convention assembles. Our claims to the Congressional nomination have been time and again ignored simply, our friends above and below must all admit, because we had only three votes in convention, with which combinations could not be made. But we did not seek these combinations, depending with patience upon the fair-mindedness of our fellow-democrats.

Although our claims have been repeatedly laid aside "for some more convenient season" until in most other affairs we would have become utterly disheartened, we have no idea of giving up our right to recognition in respect to this Congressional nomination. Especially at this time should our sister counties avail themselves of a long-neglected opportunity to do Caroline a simple act of justice by endorsing and making our candidate this year the standard bearer. The Democratic vote here has been steadily increasing, and now our majorities are among the largest and most reliable.

Nearly every county in the district is indebted to Caroline for help and our own modest self-effacement in many conventions of the years that are gone. We have assisted with a good will in the elevation of the now noted and honored Democrats of the Shore—from Kent to Worcester. To recite the many instances would require columns, besides our work in these conventions is too well remembered to need rehearsal. United States Senators, judges, comptrollers, and their hosts of friends—those who have held office before, and those who are now faithfully serving the people—must recall little Caroline's unselfishness in convention halls and her faithful and effective work in the campaigns for the triumph of Democracy. Surely there is enough manly gratitude and gallantry in this district to seize this opportune time to grant unto us that which Democratic usage now makes so eminently our own. If such shall be accorded to us we will forget that for more than fifty years Caroline has been continually slighted.

The names of Ex-Senator John F. Dawson and Henry R. Lewis, member of the House of Delegates, have been mentioned for the Congressional nomination, whether with or without their consent we do not know. Should the county convention decide to present the name of either of these gentlemen to the Congressional convention, or should our county candidate be one of many well-qualified gentlemen whose name has not yet been brought forward, we can rest assured of an able standard-bearer, and we should determine beforehand to make a united and aggressive campaign for his nomination, as will be absolutely necessary to our success.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. George W. Abell, president of the A. S. Abell Company, publishers of the Sun, Baltimore, died at his home in that city on Tuesday last, aged about fifty-two years. Pneumonia was his fatal affliction, and his demise was sudden. The State loses in Mr. Abell one of its most prominent, wealthy and public-spirited citizens. Every public enterprise in the South, and especially in Maryland, had in Mr. Abell a strong and earnest friend, and the news of his death was received with general grief.

The Maryland appointments, with the exception of Messrs. Warfield and Marbury, have been confirmed. The appointments of these two gentlemen have not yet been reported from the committees to which they were referred, but it is understood that they will be favorably acted upon.

Some Southern and Western papers want the next Democratic National Convention to choose a Western candidate for the Presidency in 1896. Vice-President Stevenson ought to suit them, and his popularity is not confined to any section of the country.

It is now stated with some degree of assurance that Hon. Thomas J. Keating, of Centreville, will be selected to succeed Mr. Shaw as tax commissioner. The appointment of Mr. Keating would be a most acceptable one to the party and the people of the Eastern Shore.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed, sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and, to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by Wm. E. Brown, druggist. *

THE SUMMER COTTAGE.

In the Bargain Exchange is suggestive as to furnishings.

The whole outfit only $722.
The cost of each room separately is indicted.

COVERT CLOTHS.

Thanks to the cable and quick steamers there has been no lack of Covert Cloths at our counters. To-day a new shipment. Some the styles that have been so scarce in most stores; others brand new effects that are certain to be popular.

CREPE BRILLIANT.

It is the artlessly artful minglings of rich colorings in the Coverts that makes them so fascinating.

Ask for any quality or style that should be here—you'll not be disappointed.

These are of the newcomers:

45 in. Covert, 7 colorings, at $1.00
48 in. Covert, 5 colorings, at $1.50
48 in. Covert, 6 colorings, at $2.00
48 in. Covert, 9 colorings, at $2.25

The new mixtures of Silk-and-Wool that are dividing favor with the Covert Cloths, effects as if the bright tints had trembled together—and yet so elusively that the eye can scarcely trace combinations.

green, lavender and white green, pink and white garnet, olive and white navy, blue, gray and white cern, black and white brown, black an tan

New beauties with every angle the light takes. Medium weight, 42 in $1.35.

Pin Stripe Suitings.

Silk-and-Wool, navy blue and white. First cousins to the Crepe Brillants and Coverts What more need be said? 42 in., $1.25.

WOMEN'S CLOTHING

Study the case and you'll not wonder why we are selling three times as many Duck Dresses this season as last. Look at this:

Duck Dresses, full generous skirt, vest and Tudedo Coat.

The price $2.50. Same quality sold last year at double or more—$8 at one time.

Duck Dresses at $4.50, $5.50 and more. All the other sorts on as tempting a basis.

GIRL'S DRESSES.

Really good, presentable Dresses, Gingham or Percale, at 50c! And for girls of anywhere between 4 and 14 years.

Of course it's surprising, but all we are doing with Girls' Dresses and Wraps is a revelation to the canal-boat traders.

Better Percale Dresses at $1 and so the price tide rises to the highest water mark.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

We have now for sale excellent Suits, with Regent Cutaway Coat, at $12 a Suit. They are worth $15—other dealers are getting that price for the same goods.

Scrupulous care controls our Clothing trade. The salesmen's confidence rests on that fact, and so the business grows.

BOY'S CLOTHING.

Be careful in buying Sailor Suits that you get goods that are all wool and fast colors. Many salesmen don't know all wool from cotton warp, and many more don't want to know.

Wanamaker

We have more than one hundred sorts of Sailor Suits. The prices are:

$3.50 $4.50 $5.00 $6.50
$7.50 $8.50 $9.00

All, even the least-priced, are all wool. Sizes 3 to 10.

CONTINENTAL BICYCLES, $70.

"I haven't seen a $125 Bicycle yet that I'd trade my Continental for." A bright wheelman said it yesterday. Scores more are saying it all the time. Why shouldn't they? The Continental is highest grade, and the makers guarantee is behind every wheel.

Full Roadsters, M. & W. tire, $70; G. G. J. tire, $75.
Light Roadsters, M. & W. tire, $75; G. & J. tire, $80.
Ladies' Bicycles, M. & W. tire, $75; G. & J. tire, $80.
