COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The action of the Ocean City convention in undoing the work of the official committee of Baltimore city, by repudiating the primaries which the committee had called; the unhorsing of Wellington, victorious in two contests and a member of the United State's Senate and a close friend of the Governor of the State, and the subsequent withdrawal of the mayoralty candidate who was regularly chosen are the remarkable features of the opening days of the campaign which are anything but encouraging to the Republicans. To make the certainty of their defeat doubly sure the Democrats have an unusually strong ticket supported by a reunited and harmonious party.

A genuine hearty laugh is an aid to digestion, a stimulus to the circulation of the blood, and a positive beautifier. The whole system is benefited by a cheerful, merry laugh, and one's friends are attracted by the bright, wholesome nature that ripples out in sunny music like a happy woodland stream.

Mr. Theodore Marburg has withdrawn from the mayoralty race in Baltimore, leaving the field to Mr. Malster, who bolted and beat the regular primaries, recently held. It is pretty safe to say that the Independents, who have several times helped the Republicans into power, will not do so this year.

Chairman Murray Vandiver and Secretary Lloyd Wilkinson of the Democratic State Committee opened the party headquarters at the Carrollton Hotel Thursday morning. The rooms will be the suite used in former campaigns, on the Light-street, front, second floor.

The Baltimore News is urging the nomination of Mr. James Bond for the mayorlty. Ex-Mayor Latrobe is also thought to be an available candidate. The next mayor of Baltimore will be a Democrat.

The Republicans in their State convention set a premium on irregularity among the party members, by giving a quasi endorsement or recognition to the claims of candidates who did not participate in the party primaries at all.

For political inconsistency, or to put it stronger and nearer the truth, for all-around treachery to his political associates, the Hon. Sydney E. Mudd takes the dilapidated linen off the rose bush.

At last the two-minute horse has arrived. Star Pointer, the pacing stallion from Chicago, raced a mile against time on Saturday and made it in one minute and 59 seconds.

The Talbot Democrats have named a first-class ticket and expect to elect it.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros.' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased and in a remakably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. E. Brown, Denton; R. J. Colston, Ridgely; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

BALTIMORE REPUBLICANS ANGRY.

Baltimore American.

Senator George L. Wellington, of Allegany county, is still determined that Mr. Theodore Marburg "must be the man." Senator Wellington was very active yesterday. Mr. Wm. F. Stone was also much employed with political work, having determined to recall his impulsive declaration at Ocean City, after the organization's defeat there, that he would take no part in the ward workers were in and out of the city Register's office at the City Hall all day yesterday.

Mr. Marburg, Mr. Wellington and several of the Business Men's Republican League held a conference at the Carrollton Hotel yesterday afternoon and, upon its termination, a friend of Wellington said: "It's all right; you can depend upon Marburg's nomination. It's a foregone conclusion."

Mr. Marburg made the first speech of his second campaign last night at the meeting of the Twelfth Ward Republican Association. There were about one hundred and twenty-five persons present. For the first time since he has been campaigning in Baltimore Mr. Marburg entered into personalities. "Gross injustice" is what he characterized the action of the Malsterites.

"It is this sense of gross injustice that has been done to the organization, which has had the purest motives, that makes me enter this fight again to stay to the last. It should arouse indignation in every breast in Baltimore. Our leaders made mistakes in that convention which nominated me and they made mistakes at Ocean City, and for these mistakes our great leader was overthrown, and in his place was put a little man who is not worthy to crawl between his legs—and his name is Mudd. And it is men of such calibre, a gang of this stripe, they want to put in the City Hall. They have selected this little man for the United States Senate—the grandest body in the world. They have said that Senator Gorman is black but Senator Gorman is an angel alongside of this man Mudd. I have thought it best to say this much. I think there are times when it is necessary that such things must be said. This is one of them. But it is not necessary to again say them. From this time on I shall be silent on the subject."

Obituary.

Edward S. Wooters departed this life July 17, 1897, at his home, near Burrsville, in the 59th year of his age. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, always ready to attend the means of grace. Although afflicted for sometime he bore his suffering with fortitude.

Gone from earth, yes, gone forever;
Tear-dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
I shall hear his voice, no never,
Nevermore on earth again.

Home is sad, O God! how dreary;
Lonesome, lonesome, every spot,
Watching for him 'til I'm weary,
Weary for I see him not.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Aug. 30, 1897.

School Clothes for Boys QUEEREST of queer trade doings. School days are so near at hand that the restless youngster may be forgiven for dreaming that the bell is ringing now. And the prices of woolens are upward bound. Naturally clothes will be higher, as conditions improve.

But in the face of all this one of the country's trio of best makers of boy's suits sells us

$5 AND $6 ALL-WOOL SUITS
TO SELL AT $2.75 AND $3.50.

The suits are double breasted, of fine and sightly fabrics—and every seam is sewed with silk.

With long foresight the makers furnish pieces for patching and some extra buttons. Any careful mother will appreciate these suits—if there is a boy of 6 to 16 to be togged out for school.

But there is a decided limit to the offering—only five hundred and fifty suits were to be had. Will you be one of the fortunate few to share the good fortune?

Fall Dress Goods HAVE you seen a tinged woods-leaf? There's first touch of warmer color among the dress goods today—stapler sorts of fabrics, little lots of them—often in odd lengths. We are thinking of September school dresses, for big folks and little.

Not a fabric in this list but will be higher in price when the new lots come—some of them higher by half.

Fancy Mixed Suitings, 45 inches, 37½c.
All-wool Jacquard Suitings, 37½c.
52-inch All-wool Flannel Suiting, 37½c. Six shades.
52-inch Bourette-check Suiting, 50c.
46-inch all-wool Suitings—in pretty color mixes, 50c.
44-inch all-wool check Homespun, 50c.
46-inch all-wool Frisse, 50c.
50-inch all-wool Natte Cheviot, 50c.

50-inch all-wool Bouretted Suiting, 60c.
42-inch Cheviot Suitings in mingled colors, 50c.
45-inch Two-toned Suitings, 75c.

Pretty Plaids for Children HUNDREDS of mothers will thank us for this collection of plaid dress goods for children's wear—worthy stuffs at wonderfully little prices—

36-inch cotton and wool plaid with cross bars of silk,
25c
You have paid 37½c for this same plaid.
36-inch all-wool bright-color bourette plaid, 37½c.
48-inch all-wool Scotch Cheviot Plaid, 75c.

Laces IT'S most like finding violets under the snow, to find lovely laces in usual profusion in the torn up lace store and near it. Builders are making us a new store in spots, while we keep right along supplying Our Public with merchandise. Fearful dirt—but not too near the goods; the music of saw and hammer does reach your ears. Discord? Well, we're building harmony—the harmony of beauty and convenience.

Valenciennes Laces cheaper than you have known them, or will again know them—45c, 55c and 60c a doz. yards. A full third saved.

The cheaper grade is 20c, 25c, 30c and 35c a doz. yards.

Guides to Klondike W. B. CONKEY & CO., Chicago and New York, have published "The Official Guide to the Klondike Country and Gold Fields of Alaska," a 296-page book with maps and pictures. It has been sold at 25c. Everybody wants to know about Klondike, so we sell the book
