DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS:
JOHN WALTER SMITH,
OF WORCESTER COUNTY.

DEMOCRATS, BE NOT MISLED.

Statesmen who are hunting for an excuse for opposing the Democratic nominee in this congressional district, profess to see no difference between the platform adopted by the Democrats and that adopted by the Republicans, so far as financial policy is concerned. The difference is so palpable that he who runs may read it. The Democrats declare for the coinage of gold and silver into dollars that do not need to be redeemed—dollars of the weight and and fineness prescribed by the laws of the country now in existence, and which have been little changed in the century and a-quarter of our national life. They are making no innovation in declaring for the dollars of our fathers and forefathers, back to the adoption of the national constitution. They are, on the contrary, fighting an innovation which defeats the clear intention of the law, and has more than once menaced our supply of redemption money, as money was regarded by constructionists of the single standard pattern. The instability and unsoundness of our monetary system under that construction is most clearly set forth in an appeal, by a sound money paper, for "a good currency measure." It implores the congress to assemble in December to pass a law that is "safe and reliable all the time," whatever else must be neglected, as "an unstable and fluctuating currency system is a source of peril to the credit and prosperity of the country all the time." It points its strongest argument with a reminiscence in the shape of a warning: "While in point of fact our whole system of currency is upon a gold basis, and will remain so as long as existing conditions last, there is no guarantee that the greenbacks and silver certificates may not in the near future play the endless chain process to deplete the treasury of gold reserve, and destroy public confidence in the soundness of our financial system." That paper should have gone a step or two further and called attention to instances in the not distant past where that game was played.

The Democrats demand money no part of which need be kept in the treasury to redeem other money. They demand that standard silver dollars shall be coined upon equal terms with the gold dollars, pay debts in the same number of dollars, and require no dollar back of them, any more than the gold dollar has. In this they differ radically from the gold standard men in theory and in practice, for they boast nearly a quarter billion dollars in gold locked in the treasury, for redemption purposes, and kept out of the channels of trade.

The financial plank of the congressional platform is neither weaker nor stronger than have been the money platforms of the Democrats in State and nation for many years. It was made by men who were and are as ardent and uncomprising bimetallists as can be found in the district, not excepting the coterie who put on the cloak of consistency to hide the support to be given indirectly to monometallism, and are infinitely more consistent. The platform declares unequivocally for bimetallism, and upon that platform will stand squarely and unequivocally the unanimously-chosen candidate—Hon. John Walter Smith—than whom no stauncher party man or more loyal Democrat can be found in the district. It is pure tomfoolery to ask reasonable, intelligent and consistent men to throw away the chance to place a representative of their property interests in the district, and party interests as well, in the lower house of Congress on the fourth of next March, for no better reason than that the political standing of a very small number of men be bolstered up for future use. No Democrat will abandon his party and its cherished tenet of majority rule on such trifling pretext, or his party's candidate, who has stood fast and firm by its nominees and its declarations, and contributed personal efforts and means in their support, without skip or break. And no real bi-metallist, whatever may have been his party affiliation, can afford to withhold support from a candidate who assures adherance to that financial policy, and give a half-way support to a candidate who adheres to the single gold standard, high protective tariffs, subsidies to the rich, annexation of territory with debt, and innumerable things that go hand in hand with Republicanism.

Why is it that the Union blows hot and cold on the county auditors in almost the same breath? It cannot be that the Republican organ is a trifle miffed now because the auditors said in their last report, "The indebtedness of the county is constantly increasing, and is at this time about $10,000 more than it was one year ago,"(eight or nine months of which the Republicans have had control in the commissioners' room,) and has ceased to love them as it did a few weeks ago! Taxes going up and debt piling up under Republican administration is not a sweet morsel to the Republican palate.

HE STRUCK A WIND-MILL.

The appointment of an overseer of the almshouse and the favorable report of the county auditors on Mr. Allaband's management last year, each in its time gave the editor of Union a fit of frenzy. He knew at the time of Mr. Allaband's re-appointment, last summer, at whose instance the appointment was made, why it was made, and that it was manipulated exclusively by Republicans, too high in party position to be openly opposed by the mighty Union Publishing Company. But it was necessary to lash the Republicans up to the Union editor's state of frenzy about the matter, and that ardent individual, with much more zeal than honesty, charged the Democrats with hoodooing the Republican trustees of the poor into making the appointment, and reiterated the charge. We pointed out at the time the falsity of the statement, although it was transparent enough for a half-blind man to see through. Last week we quoted the county auditors' report upon the subject of the almshouse management last year, word for word, with full credit for the same, and then ensued a fuddling fit of frenzy in the sanctum of the Republican whipper-in. The proposition to prove that the county auditors were wrong so soon ended in dismal failure, and a profound ignorance of common arithmetical rules was so painfully disclosed, that a tacit admission was given by a hasty retreat to the never-failing refuge—the "revenue-getter, farmers' friend Dingley bill." It is barely possible that the Dingley law, so potential in raising the price of everything the farmer has to buy, had some influence, not to common mortals discernible, by which Mr. Allaband was helped to raise corn, wheat, beef cattle, hogs, turkeys, chickens, etc., that swelled the receipts to the handsome sum of $884.75. The proposition of the auditors is clear and convincing, and any attempt to controvert it, or to detract from the credit due the trustees and overseer for last year's work, will be futile. For the benefit of the Union's editor, to ease his conscience about the food supplied our county's unfortunates, we give the plain manner of computing the amount expended in their support. To the $2400.00 county levy add the $884.75 for farm products, making $3284.75. Deduct the $1500.00 indebtedness paid, and there is left $1784.75, in addition to what was raised on the farm, to feed and clothe them. The balance of $185.48 from 1897 was also disbursed last year. Don't you see, Mr. Editor, that $1970.23 instead of $228.75, as you stated in your last issue, was the sum available for the expenses of the almshouse last year, and that the almshouse inmates and overseer and family could afford to have, on that sum, a much more substantial diet than wind? The Union editor measures all things by his little three-pecks-to-the-bushel political measure, and is cocked and primed for a fight against anything, anywhere, or by anybody that militates in any way against the greatness, goodness and immaculateness of Republicans or Republicanism. In this particular instance he has struck a windmill, with direful results to himself.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Hon. Thomas Francis Bayard, former ambassador to England, died at Dedham, Mass., Wednesday afternoon, in his 70th year. The Bayards have been prominent in American politics for three or four generations. Four United States Senators from Delaware have been of that name, and Thomas F. Bayard and his father, James A. Bayard, were elected United States Senators the same day. Mr. Bayard was appointed Secretary of State by President Cleveland in 1885. He was a man of broad learning and had many honorary degrees conferred on him by the leading colleges of the counsry. He was also prominently mentioned in the nominating convention of 1884 for president.

The Republican organ of the county is advertising, free, meetings in opposition to the Democratic ticket, and "in the interest of true Jeffersonian Democracy." The Republican organ seems just now to be a very earnest friend of the "true Jeffersonian Democracy." We needn't be surprised to hear at any time of His Satanic Majesty writing a hymn book!

Peace negotiations are proceeding with deliberation and moderation enough to please the most conservative. It is estimated that it will cost our country a quarter of a million dollars to tell Spain, through a peace commission, what terms will be satisfactory to us. It would seem to the average citizen that a little less expensive way would be as well.

Don't overlook the days of registration—Tuesday, October 4, and Tuesday, October 11. At no other time can names be placed on the registration books, and it is necessary to apply in person to get a transfer from one county or election district to another. Democrats, see that every voter is registered.

Chairman Babcock, of the Republican Congressional Committee, said on the 7th of September: "We are already defeated for the next Congress. If something does not happen in the meantime, I can not see how we can expect a Republican Congress."

So, Col. Jackson is a converted Democrat? Yes, he has been converted by a tariff which enabled him to place a barrel of money into a campain, instead of the money having been made to follow its legitimate channels of commerce into the pockets of the people. Certainly he is converted to Republicanism. The same law has converted a vast percentage of factory owners who are protected at the people's expense.—Chestertown Transcript.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican nominee for Governor of New York, will unquestionably be under a handicap throughout the campaign, no matter what the decision of the Court of Appeals may be concerning his eligibility. He cannot escape the charge of being a tax dodger, and the tax dodger is not any more popular in New York than in Maryland. The courageous Colonel may win, but there'll be a hot time in New York before he does.

Ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison was nominated for Congress by Sixth (Pa.,) district Democrats last Saturday.

New York Republicans at Saratoga on Tuesday last nominated Col. Theodore Roosevelt for Governor.

The Late Thomas F. Bayard.

Three Doctors in Consultation.
From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. FALL
Wearable Wants.

Every department is ready, overflowing with the newest and best. Prices are modest, almost shy for the splendid qualities they represent.

In Men's Underwear.

Months ago we started to buy, and today we're able to supply your wants from the largest, most complete, stock in Baltimore. Such enormous buying gives us and you the added advantage of exceedingly low prices—a big attraction, indeed. Here are a few from the many.

144 dozen 16-thread Ribbed Balbriggan, Jersey fitting, weighs 3 pounds more to the dozen than any other like garments in the city, made with double-stitched elastic seams, reinforced; choice of Pink and Blue; regular 75c. Our Special Opening Price.....50c

72 dozen Men's Natural Wool and Camel's Hair Heavy Winter-Weight Glastonbury Underwear. Special Opening Price.....$1

Royal Silk Plush Underwear—our special importation-silk outside, blush inside; don't irritate, but keeps the skin in a warm glow. Opening Price.....$1.50

A WHITE SHIRT SALE.

Unequaled by anything we've ever before offered in Shirts, and that's saying not a little. Details of this purchase are unnecessary. The meat of our story is this:

We're giving 100 dozen Men's White Unlaundered Shirts, of fine Wamsutta cotton 4-ply pure Linen bosom, neck and wristbands, cut extra full, splendidly made and unmatchable under 50c. Our Special Opening Price.....29c

500 dozen Laundered Shirts, were made especially for us during their dull season by the Wachusett Shirt Co., the largest shirt concern in the world; and, on account of the great quantity, we're able to give you:

200 dozen of them, that usually sell for 50c., at a Special Opening Price of 39c
200 dozen of them, that regularly sell for 75c., at the Special Price of 55c
100 dozen in fine Utica Nonpareil Cotton, 4-ply Pure Linen bosom, superior to most $1 Shirts, at Special Price of 69c

OUR FALL CLOTHING LEADER

Is a Full Silk Lined, covert

Top Coat for $10.00.

And it's one of the handsomest garments that ever bore the name of Oehm, and all the goodness that name means.

Plenty here for $6.50 and $8.50 but not full silk lined; finer ones as high as $25.

Fall Suits at $10.00.

The choicest Oehm-made Fall styles are going at $10. Better at $12 to $20, if you want them, but those at $10 are exceptionally good for the price.

Derby's at $2.00.

We buy direct from the maker the exact Derby others are selling for $3, and, thus saving the middleman's profit, and selling on a closer margin can afford to make them.....$2

A large manufacturer's $3 and $4 Fall Sample Alpines were sent us and they go today at.....$2

Order of Publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree divorcing Sarah Jane Trice from Alfred Wesley Trice, her husband, a vinculo matrimonii.

The bill states that on the 20th day of August, 1879, she was married to her husband, Alfred Wesley Trice, near Federalsburg, Caroline county, Maryland, where they lived together for five years, then removed to Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, where they resided for about four months, after which time, to wit, on the 30th day of May, 1888, the said Alfred Wesley Trice left your orator, from whom nothing was heard until the 12th day of September, 1889, when your orator received a letter from the said Trice stating that he had gone west, since which time nothing whatever has been heard from the said Alfred Wesley Trice.

That though the conduct of your orator towards her husband, the said Alfred Wesley Trice, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Trice has without any reason or just cause abandoned and deserted her and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years to wit, ten years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; and the respondent is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and does not reside therein.

It is thereupon this 29th day of August, 1898, ordered by the Circuit Court for Caroline county, in Equity, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Caroline county once in each of four successive weeks before the 8th day of October next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 24th day of October next to show cause if any he has why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
