purposes of the farm. Previous to 1783 an inferior order as to prejudice farmers consequently there were no jacks, and no disposition to increase the stock, but introduction of mules generally among Southern planters would prove to them a blessing, as they are less liable to disease, longer lived, and work upon shorter feed, and are much less liable to be injured than are horses by careless farm hands. As soon as it became known that the illustrious Washington desired to stock his Mt. Vernon estate with mules, the King Highest Market Price, who some property of the control of the contr of Spain sent a jack and two jennets from Delivered at points convenient to Farm-the royal stables, and Lafayette sent him ers on the Bay, River, Creeks or Railroad, of Malta. The first was of a gray color, sixteen hands high, heavily made, and of a sluggish nature; he was named Royal Gift. The other was called Knight of but fiery even to ferocity. THE LOCAL PAPER. - Week after week sertion of a marriage notice, or a long obituary, or some other item of interest chiefly to themselves or their own immediate locality! Now, why should people support their local paper? Because it is their local paper that writes their local ests, that promotes their local industries, that educates the people in the politics of the country. What interest have the city papers in the interior towns that a man papers in the interior towns that a man papers.
