"BRYAN AND VICTORY."

"Bryan and Victory" is the caption of an interesting article in the Washington correspondence of the Baltimore Sun of Monday last. It was written by Mr. Frank A. Richardson, one of the most reliable correspondents at the national capital. "Quiet and unobtrusive but alert and constant is the activity in Democratic councils in preparation for the approaching Presidential campaign. The knowledge that there will be no independent Democratic candidate this year has not been without its influence in shaping the thoughts of those controlling the national and State organizations. Not so much importance, however, is attached to it as might be imagined, for, as in 1896, it is generally held the bulk of those who will not vote for Bryan will vote for McKinley, and whether or not an independent Democrat should be put in the field it would make no appreciable difference in determining the result. At the same time there is an undoubted disposition to make an effort to get the party together. In informal conferences which have been held here, and at which prominent gold Democrats were present, the latter indicated that if the platform did not crowd them too hard they would come back. Indeed, one gold Democrat of high position said he was so much outraged by the McKinley imperialist policy he had made up his mind to vote for Bryan, no matter what kind of a platform he stood upon. The confident impression in Democratic circles is that hundreds of thousands of Democrats throughout the country who voted for McKinley in 1896, like the one referred to above, are so disgusted with his course that they will turn their backs on him this year.

Republicans all realize the situation, and while they bluster and brag in public, in private they take on a most serious tone. On the parts of Democrats not heretofore affiliated with Mr. Bryan, but who want to support the ticket if they can do it conscientiously, it is asked that certain modifications in the declaration of principles be made to suit their views. This was very well stated by Mr. Richard Croker in a private conversation with a United States Senator, a devoted friend of Bryan, only a short time before Croker went to Europe. As related by the Senator, the Tammany chieftain said he and his organization had determined to send a delegation to the National Convention for Bryan and to support him at the polls with all their might. But, he ended, we want you to make it as easy as possible for us in the platform. There has been in the last month or two much talk about the prospective abandonment of the silver plank in the Chicago platform and loose assertions that Mr. Bryan and other leaders were in favor of it. These statements have been denied vehemently and indignantly. Undoubtedly the pressure will be terrific to swallow the Chicago platform as a whole, and it is the opinion of some that this demand will be too strong to be resisted. There is an element not so numerous perhaps as able, which is decidedly in favor of conceding something to their 'erring brothers.' This element is advocating this policy now, will advocate it up to the date of the convention, and will go to the convention to make the fight on the ground. Much stress continues to be laid upon the argument that as the gold standard has been fixed by law and cannot possibly be changed during the next Administration, the silver plank would be a dead issue. This argument, while it appears naturally enough to be sound, has not as yet had much effect upon those to whom it is addressed. Possibly it may become stronger as time rolls on. Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, who has always been a rearing, tearing silver man, is one of the leaders who has already expressed the belief that it would be expedient to so frame the silver plank as to leave out the ratio. He says, which is true, of course, that it is in the power of Congress to fix and change the ratio at any time. What should be done is to open the mints to the coinage of silver, declare for the party of the metals, and leave the ratio to be fixed from time to time, according to circumstances, and keeping the silver dollar always intrinsically worth as much as the gold dollar."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

H. D. Bates, of St. Thomas, Ontario, Canada, won the Grand American Handicap on Thursday, J. R. Malone, of Baltimore, was his sharpest competitor, and killed straight up to the 39th round, when he missed, and Bates killed. A. H. Fox, of Baltimore, made high average for the entire shoot, scoring 88 out of 90 shot at, and lost two dead out of bounds.

The conclusion that Dover Bridge repairs will cost perhaps only a little over one thousand dollars is quite a relief to the burdened taxpayer who thought another bonded debt of eight thousand dollars was about to be laid upon him.

Rev. J. M. Holmes, pastor of Alnutt Memorial M. P. Church, Baltimore, will establish a Christian daily newspaper in Baltimore along the lines of the Topeka Capital as conducted by Rev. Charles M. Sheldon for a week recently.

Director Merriam has caused a great flutter in Congress by notifying the members that he wants 1,500 women to operate punching machines this summer. He says they do far better work than men. This, however, does not content Congressmen, who retort that women have no votes and that this is a campaign year.

The public building bill passed on Monday. It provides a fund of $290,000 with which to erect a building for the Court of Appeals and library. This building will be a handsome acquisition to the State capital.

State Senator Olin Bryan has been appointed first assistant city solicitor by Ex-Governor William Pinkney Whyte, city solicitor of Baltimore. Until a few years ago Mr. Bryan resided in Queen Anne's.

Admiral Dewey has announced his candidacy for the presidency. He says he has reason to believe there is a popular demand for his nomination.

Both the Republican and Populist parties in Texas have spirit. If they don't watch out the Democrats will carry Texas!

The bill creating the office of Superintendent of Public Education finally passed both houses.

A Washington correspondent designates President McKinley as "William the Weak."

Col. John W. Avirett, of Cumberland, has been appointed State Game Warden.

IMPORTANT BILLS PASSED.

Among the more important bills enacted are the following:

Reorganizing the Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore city by taking the election of commissioners out of the Legislature, legislating the present board out of office and giving the Governor the appointment of the board. The term of office is two years and one of the three members is to belong to the minority party.

Creating a Board of Police Examiners consisting of three members, to be appointed by the Governor, with salary of $800 each and with authority to appoint a clerk at $1,200. This board is to examine applicants for places on the force, and all appointments to the force except marshal and chief of detectives are to be made from lists furnished by the Board of Examiners.

The bill to increase the present force by 80 policeman, 10 detectives and 1 lieutenant of mounted police. This bill will increase the cost of the Police Department over $75,000 a year.

The bill authorizing an increase in the number of directors of the United Railways Company of Baltimore. It has a clause protecting the rights of the city and requiring the principal office to be in Baltimore city.

The bill repealing the clause of the new charter which authorizes the street companies to charge 3 cents for transfers and re-enacting it so as to require free transfers to be given under certain restrictions.

The bill appropriating $3,000 annually and empowering the Governor to employ an expert to examine the books of officials who have to account with the State Treasury and also those of institutions receiving State aid. This is the so-called State Auditor bill.

The bill reducing the price of gas in Baltimore city from $1.25 to $1.10 per $1,000 feet.

The bill reorganizing the Boards of County School Commissioners and requiring new boards to be appointed by the Governor. This bill has been signed by the Governor.

The bill creating a board of charities to hear all applications for State aid by charitable and educational institutions.

To require employers to give employes time to vote.

To amend the charter of Baltimore, authorizing the Mayor and Council to abolish the Water Registrar's office, and in other particulars.

To give to the city three-fourths of the money received for liquor licenses paid by clubs in the city.

To require counsel before the Legislature and lobbyists to register in a docket kept by the Secretary of State and to declare by whom they are employed.

To tax spirits in bond. This is to meet the decision of the Court of Appeals declaring a former law invalid.

Two constitutional amendments which, if approved by the people, will give the city of Baltimore another legislative district, one additional Senator and six Delagetes.

To create the office of State Superintendent of Education, with a salary of $3,000 and expenses.

Le Roy, the great painter, has painted nothing better than his celebrated "Cluster of Poppies," which the Philadelphia Times has had lithographed in twelve colors, and will present to its readers free with its great Easter number, Sunday April 8. The Times will present to its readers on the same Sunday with An Easter Carol, printed in regular sheet music form.

The story of Easter will be told in handsome half-tones, printed in color on heavy paper, reproducing the best works of the masters in Sacred History. The Great Easter number of The Times will be the handsomest Easter Edition of a Sunday paper ever published in Philadelphia. None of the regular features will be dropped. Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles at W. E. Brown's, Denton, Md., or Rickards & Co's., Marydel, Md.

The Best In the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhœa by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

And now is the time to plant—the gorgeous clusters of flowers will be ready to admire in your yard by June and July.

Fresh lot from cold-storage every morning at nine o'clock. Can't tell you the varieties, for people are so anxious to get them that before noon some of the kinds are gone.

Cold-storage keeps alive the hardy life that Holland soil, and no other soil, gives. American sunshine develops that life into the most gorgeous blooms.

With the roses are other beautiful plants—rhododendrons, 50c; azaleas, 35c; conifers, 50c; magnolias, 85c.

Here are some domestic plants—finest varieties, 5c each.

Men's Spring Overcoats

Time to get your spring overcoat—$8.50 to $30; silk-lined $10 to $30; Raglan, $12 to $30.

The curse of ready-made clothing is its commonness. Many a man goes to a tailor just because he wants his suit different from other folks.

On your way to your tailor's, stop in here. You'll find a greater variety and more dash than you thought existed in ready-made.

Perhaps better fit; perhaps more style; perhaps more satisfaction of every sort.

Perhaps a few dollars more left in your pocket—though we'll try to tempt you to buy our very best.

Do you know what we are doing? What, do you suppose, built up our business, if not selling better clothing than anybody else?

Suits $8.50 to $30.

Women's Suits

From $10 to $100.

The entire energy of the maker seems to be thrown into the style and making. The cloth in these $10 suits is plain, but fair—quite as good as you would pay for a dress that you wished to cost only $10—not fine, nor wonderful but fair.

But of style and work there is enough in any of these to justify the price.

$10. Navy, black or mix cheviot serge; well cut, single-breasted, tight-fitting coat; lined with taffeta. Skirt with box-pleated back; lined with percaline.

$10. Navy-blue or black cheviot serge; fly front coat, lined with taffeta. Skirt with box-pleated back; lined with percaline.

$15. Navy-blue or black cheviot serge; double-breasted coat; velvet collar; lined with taffeta. Skirt percaline lined. Entire suit beautifully trimmed with bands of taffeta.

$15. Navy-blue or black cheviot serge; fly front coat; lined throughout with taffeta.

$20. Castor Venetian cloth; double-breasted, tight-fitting coat; skirt has box-pleated back; percaline lined; circular flounce around bottom; collar, cuffs and top of flounce with an applique of silk.

$20. Fine black cheviot serge; three button Eton coat without collar; lined with taffeta. Skirt with a new style of pleated back; lined with percaline.

The HAMILTON Corn Planter.

When you want a corn planter call on Jonathan Evitts, agent for the "Hamilton." IT IS THE BEST for the following reasons:

It is the only successful planter equipped with Adjustable Wheels that can be set to run on or off the seed row. This one point may save you many dollars for if the soil is wet and you do not have this splendid attachment the soil may bake and form a crust which will prevent a great deal of the corn from coming through.

It is the only planter with Covering Hoes that are absolutely certain to cover to a uniform depth. They can be depended upon with confidence, no matter what condition the soil may be in. These covering hoes also cultivate the seed rows, and thus give the farmer an opportunity to keep ahead of the weeds.

It is the only planter with Clod Fenders that push all stalks stones and clods aside and allow only fine soil to cover the seed. The advantage and saving of this is obvious.

In addition to these points of exclusive and special superiority the Hamilton is equal to others in excellence of its materials and the strength and durability of its construction.

PUBLIC SALE
—OF—
Valuable Grist Mill Property,

The undersigned will offer at public sale in front of the postoffice in Federalsburg, Caroline county, Md., between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock p. m., on

THURSDAY, APRIL 19th, 1900,
"THE IDLEWILD MILLS,"

located at Federalsburg, consisting of a valuable roller process flour mill of 7 pairs of 6x16 rolls, sustained by ample scalping, grading and dressing capacity. Also, of the best cocalico buhrs, and dresser for same, and a large HOMINY MILL of the best type.

CORN PLANT

The finished product of all these cannot be excelled, and has always enjoyed a merited reputation for excellence. This is evidenced by the fact that since the mill and machinery were put in, nine years ago, by Wolf & Co., Chambersburg, Pa., no operator has thought it wise to change the name of any of its original four grades of flour. The stream is one of the best on the peninsula, winding some fifty miles northward and heading in the vicinity of Willow Grove, Delaware, and during at least ten months of the year this stream which is in fact the Northwest Fork of the Nanticoke River, pours enough waste water through the gates to run another plant of equal power.

This property also includes a

Commodious Miller's Residence, of two stories, 24x30 feet, which is closely attached; also a stable and wagon house.

For an active, energetic man this is a chance seldom offered, a grist mill having been operated on this site for 200 years.

The property, which is in charge of Mr. E. E. Goslin, can be seen and examined by calling on him at Federalsburg, Md.

TERMS OF SALE.

One-third cash; balance in three equal payments of nine, twelve and eighteen months, to be secured as I shall determine at time of sale, by the bond of the purchaser, or notes of the purchaser with approved security, bearing interest at six per cent. from day of sale and payable to me at the First National Bank of Seaford, Del., or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

Immediate possession will be given.

Title papers and revenue stamps at expense of purchaser.

QUALITY AND STYLE
—IN—
Spring Dress Goods

Must be up to the mark, and in the new Spring stock at the store of James H. Nichols the requirements are now met more successfully than in any proceeding season. Special reference is made to the Gray "Homespuns" for Skirts. These goods are 52 inches wide. Ruffled and plain skirts. Black, Black with Orange stripe, Blue, Serese. They are tasteful; they are durable. Particular attention and comparison is invited to the Black Crepons, Fancy Plaids, Brilliantines, in Blue and Black, and the approved Dress Patterns—6 yards wide—in a number of weights and shades. There are Silks and Satins for Waists, in fancy, plain and open work, prices ranging from 30 cents to $1. Fancy Lining in Near-silk, 8 or 9 shades—Black, Serese (the new color), Pink, Blue, Purple, Red, Orange, Lead, etc. But you must see them for yourself. Then you will find what is desired. Look through the large invoice of Piques, Percales, India Linens, the latter 8 to 25 cents. Another example of Quality and Style, in a smaller way is a fine hemstitched handkerchief at 5 cents.

The gentlemen ought to come along, too, and examine the numerous boxes of Fine Linen and Soft Shirts.

The Linen Shirts are of Standard Grade, and are plain or plaited, as you may prefer. There are Piques, Madras, Percales, and Silk bosoms, the last named selling at 90c. There never has been a larger and more carefully chosen stock of Shirts hereabout.

Shoes

Represent more comfort (or more discomfort) than anything else in stores generally. For many years the Denton Bridge Store has been striving to excell in careful buying, in this department, and patrons have, as a consequence, become general. Too much care and study can hardly be given by the merchant in choosing the various makes from the manufacturer. What our people like best is pretty well known, now, and purchases were made at so close a margin that quality and style is here more nearly attained at lower prices than careless buying can ever accomplish. Ladies will find scores and scores of the fine Foot Wear, from the Allnutt & Moody factories. It would be a task to name them all. Thereis one style we will distinguish by mentioning specially. It combines grace and strength. It is called

"OUR VIOLET."

Let us "trek" to the Men's Shoe Department. Here the Rice & Hutchins goods predominate. The customers of the store have been testing them full many a season, and they have been coming for them again and again, and others come also. The good quality of shoes are often discussed among friends, and so the trade extends. In this department there are quite a number of new and natty lasts—Vici Kid in Tan and Black. One of the prime favorites is the "Imperial." There is no better looking, more serviceable dress shoe in any market in the city or out of it. Wear the "Imperial" shoes this Spring and you will say so too. It has the QUALITY and the STYLE.
