TIRED OF THE COLORED BROTHER.

The more intelligent colored men of the country have recognized for some years the fact that it was not pure and unadulterated love of equal political rights for all men, or of love for the "colored brothers," that induced the bestowal of the suffrage upon them. Their political rights are and have been but sham and mockery. They have had no consideration at the hands of the party whose mandates have been law unto them, receiving not even the crumbs from the tables of their political masters in return for bearing the burden and yoke of serfdom uncomplainingly for more than a quarter of a century. Republicans have no use for the colored men in any capacity other than that of depositors of Republican ballots. They are displaying this more and more openly now, both in the North and in the South, as witness the recent decision of the Union League, the strongest Republican organization of its kind in the country, not to hire colored waiters in the future, and the formation of "lily-white" cliques in the Republican organization in some States. In a recent address on the political status and future of the colored man in this country, Prof. Jesse Lawson, vice-president of the Afro-American Baptist Council, said: "We are not regarded as being an item in national legislation. It is the truth that Congress has not adopted one single measure in the interest of the negro since President Grant left the White House. We have been betrayed by the white man. * * We are about 36 years removed from slavery and have had a hand in politics for about a quarter of a century. We were first made welcome by the Republican party and in our early power we had Senators and Representatives in Congress. The North and South have joined hands and bade the negro farewell. His valedictory has been written."

Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, of New York, who recently made a trip through the South, makes this sharp contrast of the white men of that section and the North in regard to their attitude toward colored men: "The Southern white man dislikes the negro and owns up to it. The white man in the North dislikes the negro and lies about it." This pretense of love for the colored man in the North, where he is educated but never given an office, is as bald as the generosity that would provide a large feed of husks for a hungry people.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Secretary Hay announced before he left Washington on the Presidential free excursion that he had secured a sufficiently definite statement of Senatorial views to inform him just what sort of a new Isthmian Canal treaty with England would be sure to receive the support of two-thirds of the Senators. Senators who ought to know something about the views of their colleagues on this subject think that this announcement was like many others made in the diplomatic world—misleading without being untrue. One of them said: "Any Senator could have told Mr. Hay offhand just what sort of a treaty would be sure of ratification by the Senate. The amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty was one sort, but that didn't suit England, and unless there is some crawfishing in England, it is very doubtful that any treaty that will suit two-thirds of the Senate will suit England." The radical point of difference is that two-thirds of the Senate believe in American control of the canal, while England dosen't.

The Reform League, professedly a non-partisan organization, gets decidedly in its proper position once in awhile, and the present week of the Baltimore municipal campaign has been one of those occasions. Admitting that the Democratic candidates for the City Council are reputable and respected men it, nevertheless, hurls anathemas at them over the shoulders of prominent Democrats, and virtually takes up the cause of the Republican candidates, including "Brother Hiram Watty." This little flock of goody-goodies serves the purpose of stirring up the Democrats whom they abuse, and point more sharply their own inconsistency and splenetic inclination, by their latest outburst.

Nothing but praise is heard of the action of Mr. McKinley, taken in response to a written request of Senator Daniel, of Virginia, in ordering that the Washington relics, which have for years been on exhibition in the National Museum, be restored to their proper owner, Gen. G. W. C. Lee, a son of Gen. R. E. Lee, from whose house, at Arlington, the relics were taken at the opening of the Civil War. While it was action that should have been taken voluntarily years ago by some president, Mr. McKinley is entitled to credit for the manly letter to Senator Daniel, in which he announced his intention to do so.

Mr. Alonzo L. Miles, formerly of Dorchester, now practising law in Baltimore, is urged by his friends to become a candidate for the Senate. Mr. Miles has frequently visited Caroline, and his able speeches in the cause of Democracy have been heard here.

And now we are to have a steamship trust! Not content with his achievements in this country, J. Pierpont Morgan, the New York financier, has invaded Edward VII's domain, and this week bought the Leyland Steamship Line, an English enterprise. The purpose is to effect a consolidation of the transport companies plying the Atlantic, and thus more surely control the trade of the country. It may be that Mr. Morgan, who was the promoter of the Steel Trust, fears a change in the tariff laws of the United States detrimental to his interests, and hastens to get in a position to make tariffs of his own.

A Manilla paper of recent date gives quotations of interest: Beef, according to cut, 20 to 50 cents a pound; mutton, from 20 to 40; fresh pork, 50 to 55; fresh sausage, 55; bacon, 50 to 55; cheese, 60 to 65; fresh butter and butter in tin, 90 cents a pound; eggs, 36 to 60 cents a dozen; partridges, $2.50 each; oranges, 20 cents a dozen; apples, 25 to 50 cents a dozen; fish, from 50 to 60 cents a pound.

It cost the federal government $951 last year to collect one dollar in customs at Annapolis. This is the most expensive port of entry in the United States, the second being Rock Island, Ill., where the aggregate receipts were fifty cents and the expenditures $362.

The Atlanta Constitution declares that Cuba must be annexed—and become a State of the Union. The paper sees no other help for the little country wrested from the Spaniards.

Col. James P. Shannon, the well-known proprietor of the Eutaw House, formerly of the Carrollton, Baltimore, died at Atlantic City on Sunday last of heart failure.

June 7th is the date fixed for the re-trial of Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, the once convicted prisoner of Mrs. J. P. Dunning and Mrs. J. D. Deane, of Dover.

Mr. Robert H. Hardesty and Mr. J. Springle Kelley, representing the Peninsula Democrat, are making a tour of the Peninsula.

Actually and appropriately, the present address of Mr. J. A. Turnipseed is at the Mississippi Agricultural College.

The Delaware Saulsburys.

A Burrsville correspondent, writing in the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday, says: The Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Thomas, of Philadelphia, delivered an address at the last meeting of the Delaware Historical Society on his personal recollections of the Saulsbury brothers—Willard, Gove and Eli. Dr. Thomas said they were dissimilar in tastes and ambitions, except in the desire for public office. Gove was an autocrat and aristocrat, inflexible and indomitable. He never apologized, compromised or surrendered, and in State politics he ruled with an ungloved hand. Gove was a physician by profession, Willard was a lawyer and Eli rejoiced in the plain title of farmer. Willard was full of the milk of human kindness, mirthful and congenial. Dr. Thomas said he always believed Willard should have been a preacher, being a man of deep religious instincts. Eli was a happy medium between his two brothers, quiet, keen, careful, calculating and practical. Modest in demeanor, his word was his bond. Gove rose to be Governor of Delaware and both the others represented the State in the United States Senate. The three were born in this part of Caroline county, near the Delaware line, their father being William Saulsbury, who died in 1834, leaving five sons and one daughter. Punch Hall, as Burrsville was then named, always enjoyed the distinction of being the original home of the Saulsburys. It lies on the line between Caroline, in Maryland, and Kent, in Delaware.

Bending Was Released.

The grand jury having under consideration the case of Daniel Bending, charged with the murder of George W. Hearn, at Harrington, on March 12th, refused to indict by an almost unanimous vote, and the accused was released from Dover jail Monday night. It is understood that only three of the twenty-four jurors voted for indictment, some of those in favor of ignoring the bill saying they did not care to jeopardize a human life on circumstantial evidence. Bending, it will be remembered, was arrested on suspicion the day following the murder, but was released by the coroner's jury. Three weeks later he was rearrested, the authorities claiming to have additional evidence of his guilt. The grand jury heard the testimony of about forty witnesses, and had the case under consideration for three days.

Taxing the B. C. & A.

Property of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company has been taxed $65,000 by the Dorchester County Commissioners. The company has not heretofore paid taxes on this property, the tax on which will be about $800. Since this company absorbed the Wheeler Line freight rates are said to have been advanced considerably. At any rate the merchants are complaining, says a Cambridge correspondent, and there is a growing sentiment in favor of a rival line of steamers.

HEADQUARTERS AT BUFFALO.

Caroline lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows have been notified that members of the Order in Buffalo have opened an Odd Fellows' Headquarters at 213 Ellicott square, Buffalo, where books of registry will be kept, and competent parties constantly in charge to give (free of cost) reliable information to the visiting Odd Fellow, his family and friends, sojourning in the city, and where one may be directed to clean and respectable hotels, boarding or private houses. Visitors are at liberty to have telegrams and mail addressed to them in care of the headquarters. A reliable guide, with maps of the city and Exposition grounds, will be on sale for the convenience of visiting brethren. Members visiting Buffalo during the Exposition are cordially invited to call at I. O. O. F. Headquarters, say the committee, that we may have the pleasure of meeting and greeting you, and aiding you as much as we are able along the lines indicated. It will be an advantage for each brother and sister to present an "official receipt" or other means of identification.

Mr. Purnell Johnson, president of the board of town commissioners, one day last week received a letter from the Secretary of the Information Bureau, Buffalo, stating that the sixteen business men's associations of that city organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the city generally, "have established a bureau of information and registration to serve those who visit Buffalo during the Pan-American Exposition season. These associations are all affiliated with a central organization and constitute a body of some 2,500 business men and professional people. The information bureau will be conducted on the broadest possible design. Rooms are being listed in residences, rooming houses and hotels and we are prepared to book visitors ahead for quarters as well as to receive them at the time of their arrival, and without cost to the visitor."

Weather Predictions for May.

For the present month Hicks predicts that a rapid rise of the barometer, with cool west winds and frost northward, will follow reactionary storms spreading eastward and southward before the appearance of the storm conditions due on the 6th to 9th. On and about Sunday, the 12th, to Tuesday, the 14th, will fall a marked reaction to storm conditions. Vicious thunder storms, with possible violence, are probable. The Vulcan or regular storm period, central on the 18th, brings with it moon's perigree on 17th and new moon at an eclipse node on the 18th, a total eclipse of the sun (invisible in this country) falling on the latter date. Great warmth for the season, very low barometer and heavy storms of rain, wind and thunder are more than probable from Friday, the 17th, to Monday, the 20th. Very cool nights will follow with higher barometer from about the 19th to the 22nd. Frost in the north very probable during these nights. A reactionary storm period runs from the 23rd to 25th, and the moon being on the celestial equator on the 26th, in all probability the storm conditions of this period will be so prolonged as to reach a crisis about that date. This is a time when we may reasonably look for a daily series of rain and thunder storms for several days in succession, beginning perhaps at the new moon in the Vulcan storm period, 17th to 20th. Very cool to cold nights, with frosts in many sections, often follow the breaking up of these daily May storms. The month goes out in the midst of a Vulcan storm period which is central on the 30th. A warm wave for the season, falling barometer and wide storm areas will be advancing from western extremes during the closing days of May.

The Decadence of Gossip.

"Carisabel," a brilliant writer on social matters, contributes the following, on the decadence of gossip, to the Baltimore Sun: "People have grown either so good or so prudent that it is considered bad form to say anything but what is in praise of the absent. If by any chance the remark is made that a neighbor economizes in housekeeping and uses lard where nature and art cry aloud for butter, a dozen voices are raised to declare that such saving is not for the love of gain, but to give to the poor. No one is homely in the good old sense, for though irregular features are admitted, somebody always adds, 'but what a fine, intelligent countenance.' 'Do I dare to complain of the stupidity of my partner at whist I am told,' comments my friend, 'that she plays beautifully on the zither, or paints in water colors.' This absence of criticism kills conversation; it is like an unvaried diet of sweets, and it is not wholesome. Criticism is the breath of progress, just as public opinion is the adjuster of morals. There is nothing as good for character or intellect or behavior as the knowledge that a severe, discriminating censor, or any number of censors, are pulling us to pieces, putting us under a microscope and requiring certain qualities, do we wish their good opinion. The conviction that whatever we do we shall escape censure is bad for society. And it makes society dull. The human element is what keeps it alive, and when we stifle the human element and confine our conversation to the discussion of the Boer war or the tax on molasses or even talk about books and nothing else, there is no real interchange of thought or opinion. Talk is perfunctory, and we may as well stay at home as meet together."

A GARDEN OF EDEN.

A writer in the Dover Delawarean speaks of "Tuckahoe Neck" as "Little Delaware," as for many years it has been largely owned by natives of the Diamond State. He says for location and soil, and the health of the inhabitants, it cannot be surpassed in the country. Continuing he describes the soil as "a rich loam and will produce the largest crops of wheat, corn, hay and trucks, and the finest berries go from Tuckahoe Neck. Twenty years ago you could see thousands of peach trees growing there, but today you will find very few, for the abundant crops and low prices have almost made the peach a thing of the past. On the farms where once you saw large orchards, you will not find a tree. Many of the old Delawareans have gone to their long homes, some have gone to the towns to spend their last days in peace and rest, while others still live at their old homesteads, and the places where they once owned and lived are now owned by a thrifty people called Dunkards, from Pennsylvania. They are a people a little like the Quakers. They never buy without the cash, never sue or go to court, and if we all lived and did as they do we would never need any court houses, nor jails, nor sheriffs, nor officers of any kind, for there would be no murders, no thefts, no law suits, no lawyers and no divorces, and would we not have a happier country if we would all take pattern from the Tuckahoe Dunkards? Why can't we do it? It will not be many years before the entire Neck will be owned by this people, and then it will be a Garden of Eden in reality."

Summer Excursions.

On April 30th, 1901, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company placed on sale Summer excursion tickets to Buffalo on account of the Pan-American Exposition, and to Niagara Falls.

On May 1st, 1901, the regular Summer excursion tickets to all the principal Summer resorts east of Pittsburg and Buffalo were placed on sale at ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

These tickets will bear the usual Summer excursion limit of October 31st, 1901, except that the Niagara Falls tickets will be good to return until November 30th, 1901.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Summer Excursion Route Book for 1901 will be issued, as heretofore, on June 1st.

Big Masonic Bazar.

The Masons of Queen Anne's county are to hold a big Masonic Bazar in Centreville on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, and have extended an invitation to the members of the Masonic order in Caroline county, together with their friends, to be present and help make the occasion a notable one. The Masons of our sister county have been greatly aided by those who desire to be Masons and by the ladies of Centreville in general. This is the first Masonic celebration that has been held in Queen Anne's for about thirty years.

Honey Balsam.

An excellent preparation for preventing and removing freckles and tan, and which will whiten and refine the skin, is prepared thus:

Pure Honey	4 ounces
Glycerine	1 ounce
Rectified spirits	1 ounce
Pure citric acid	3 drachms
Essence of ambergris	6 drops

Mix the first two by gentle heat. Dissolve the acid in the spirits and add the essence. When the first mixture is cold put the two together and agitate till mingled. This is also excellent to render the hands soft and white.—Stella Stuart, in May Ledger Monthly.

Mr. Wright's Enterprise.

The Seaford Shirt Company are building a large addition to their shirt factory in which they will put an ice plant with a capacity of 25 tons a week. They will be in working order by the first of June and will be able to supply the town with ice, as it is their intention to put on a delivery wagon. This is something which has long been needed here and will be a paying investment from the start. Mr. J. A. Wright, the manager, is a go-a-head business man and we wish him success in his new enterprise—Seaford News.

Beware of a Cough.

A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; T. W. Smith, Ridgely.

To the Deaf.

A rich lady, cured of her deafness and noises in the head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address No. 4874 The Nicholson Institute, 780 Eighth Avenue, New York.

The mild weather of this week has caused the strawberries to blossom out, and indications point to an enormous crop. Ridgely will be one of the heaviest shipping stations on the Delaware division, and already preparations are being made to harvest and market the crop, which is almost invariably a paying one.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Thomas R. Brown, alias Dr. Pearl Raymond, who has been plying the trade of fortune telling at 1114 North Gay street, Baltimore, for several months, a full account of which has been published, was arrested Saturday and taken before Justice Lewis, at the Northeastern Police Station, and as a result he was fined $25 and costs. Brown claimed that he did not tell fortunes, but was a spiritualist.

John Mahoney, track supervisor of the Delaware Railroad since 1865, was retired on Tuesday last, having reached the age limit of 70 years. He has been a railroader since 1848, and assisted in laying the first T rail between Harve de Grace and Baltimore.

Don't forget the date of the visit of Dr. Wilson, the dentist, to Ridgely—May 1st, for one week, and the first week of every month thereafter; no longer. Main office, Easton, Md.

Prof. William B. Tharp, of Farmington, has been elected principal of the Larkin Public School, at Chester, Pa., at a salary of $105 per month.

Dr. Thomas W. Greenley has gone to the South Dakota Hot Springs, where he will spend the summer.

The Seaford Shirt Company's factory will be enlarged. Mr. J. A. Wright is the manager.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; T. W. Smith, Ridgely.

Miss Florence Newman, who has been a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism, says Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only remedy that affords her relief. Miss Newman is a much respected resident of the village of Gray, N. Y., and makes this statement for the benefit of others similarly afflicted. This liniment is for sale by R. J. Colston, Denton; Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; T. W. Smith, Ridgely.

Notice.

In view of the presence of small-pox at several points on the peninsula, it is very important that truck farmers and small fruit growers should exercise the utmost care in engaging hands to see that a recent vaccination has been done in every instance.

Pickers coming from Sussex county, Delaware, particularly should not be employed unless, in addition to evidence of recent vaccination, they can show that they have not been in an infected locality.

All persons proposing to go to Sussex county for the berry picking should be warned that unless they are vaccinated before going, and unless they avoid infected localities in Sussex county, they may not be allowed to return to Maryland, or else may be deprived of their liberty for a period of 20 days after return.

Half the world has sung the praises of a good woman; ALL the world admires a beautiful woman.

Even Napoleon, the great conqueror, realized this. It was he who said:

"I conquer provinces,
but Josephine wins hearts."

Yet much of Josephine's beauty was due to her taste in dress. Now woman's chief beauty is in her figure. It has been the study of artists; the sculptor has idolized it.

Your figure is what you make it. Much depends on the corset. Health is the first consideration but not the only consideration. Health without beauty is embarrassing. Beauty without health is like salad without seasoning.

But you may have both. Corset Style and Corset Comfort are within your reach. It's a matter of wise selection. In order to show you that what we say is true, we have placed in our corset department a line of the celebrated F. P. 113 Corset.

Our new flour "High Life" and "White Rose" cannot fail to bring back her smiles as of old, and all hands be made happy. Come and try it. Our $4.00 flour can not be beat for whiteness in the State. We have a flour at $3.25 which makes good bread.

My Bran and Mill Feed is made from clean grain, and not sweepings from the floor with all the dirt around the Mill, it is strictly a high grade feed.

Remember, Two Johns is the place to buy your Summer Dress Goods. I have complete and pretty line as can be found outside the city, at prices sure to please. Having no rent to pay, no clerks to hire, can give you goods at smaller profits than the stores having these expenses. Come around and figure this up.

Our line of Boys' and Men's Clothing is complete, almost at cost price.

We are glad our farmers are realizing it is cheaper to get a barrel of flour at Two Johns for their wheat than get 36 pounds of flour to the bushel. You get 196 lbs. of flour and can get 20c for the empty barrel when returned. 36 lbs. of flour for 1 bushel of wheat means 180 lbs. to the barrel and no barrel to take back and get your 20c for. Figure this up, it will show you where you lose in not buying flour in barrels.

Chickens are wanted at Two Johns the coming week. Bring us all produce you can. Thanks for your patronage in the past.
