THE ELECTIONS IN VIRGINIA, which took place Thursday week in all of the counties and several of the cities, indicate that the Mahone tidal wave reached its height in November last, and is now receding. A number of counties heretofore strongly readjuster have once more wheeled into the democratic column, whilst in but one or two of his strongholds has Mahone been able to maintain his former majorities. In one of the former readjuster strongholds, Rockbridge county, the readjusters have received a death-blow in the defeat of the readjuster State Treasurer Reveley who was a candidate for county treasurer. the indications point to a democratic triumph Virginia at the coming November election, should wise counsels prevail in the democratic State convention, which meets at Lynchburg on the 25th July next.

THE CRUMPTON POSTOFFICE ROBBERY .- Arre of the Suspected Thief .- On the night of the 16th inst. the postoffice at Crumpton, Queen Anne's county, was broken into and about ninety dollars' worth of stamps, stamped envelopes, &c. were stolen. DARING BURGLARY .- The warehouse of Mr. T W. Wickes, in the rear of his drug store in this town, was broken into last Sunday night and a considerable quantity of whiskey taken from a barrel. An entrance was effected by forcing open the back door, and the liquor was extracted by boring an augur hole in the barrel, which had not been broached. On Monday afternoon Mr. Wickes saw Alfred Palmer in an intoxicated condition, and on questioning him Palmer admitted that he had been drinking the stolen whiskey and that Chas. Hudgins and Chas. Phillips told him they had taken it. The guilty parties learned that Palmer had informed on them, and meeting bim later in the evening, Hudgins made an attack upon Palmer with a hatchet, cutting an ugly gash over his right eye an inch and a-half long. The blow was warded off by Palmer, otherwise it might have proved quite serious. The whiskey had been put in tinpans, bottles, &c., and secreted in various places. The accused were taken before Esquire Wheatley, who held Hudgins in $250 for the larceny and $250 for assault on Palmer, and Phillips in $250 for larceny. In default of bail both of them
