SATURDAY MORNING, - AUG. 3, 1895.

N. Y. HERALD'S - - PITHY SERMON.

CHEERFUL RELIGION.

New York Herald July 7th.

Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi., 33.

What a difference between the religious outlook today and that of two or three generations ago! Is it because the world is degenerating or because it has a deeper love and reverence for the truth?

It used to be said that the best sermon was the one that made the hearer crouch in the pew as though Satan was after him. In these times no such sermons are preached, or, if they are, it is in some obscure corner where the lichen flourishes and the moss on the rocks is wet with everlasting and malarial humidity. Have we turned our back on holy things, or do we see with clearer eyes?

It is an age of optimism, for which we cannot be too thankful. We love forms and ceremonies less than formerly, but we love truth more. The standpoint from which we view religious subjects has changed, and we look upon creeds with an almost reckless indifference; but the fundamental facts of the religious life are more dominant than ever, and spiritual verities are more profoundly appreciated and more vigorously defended. We have a grander ideal for the present and a more encouraging prospect for the future. A wave of cheerfulness and hopefulness is sweeping over the world with a tidal flow that is irresistible, and the earth is a sweeter planet to live on, while heaven has come so near that we can hear the rustle of angel robes and catch the echo of our loved one's voices.

It is a great privilege to be alive today because we have a keener sense of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Fear as an element of the religious life has been eliminated, and love, which is to the soul what sunshine is to the field of wheat, has taken its place. The heart rejoices but does not dread; and even in the direst peril, when wind and wave seem cruelly omnipotent, we feel secure in the consciousness that the Pilot at the helm has never lost a ship. There are no lee rocks in the Providence of God, nor any currents can carry us out of our course. The Lord has charge of our safety, and He neither slumbers nor sleeps.

That is the religion of our age—bright, cheery, buoyant. No grim, capricious theological tyrant rules your destiny, and for His good pleasure dooms you to either temporary or eternal misery; no angry Deity tolerates your presence or visits you with the evidence of His wrath; you are not wondering hopelessly through a vale of tears, a child of iniquity, with the brand of Cain on your brow. You are a wayward and sometimes a wanton creature, self-willed and obstinate, whom the Father is trying to lead in paths of righteousness, and you need nothing except the Christ spirit to set everything right and make your life a corner of paradise.

Your fault is that you trust yourself too much and him too little. You are not enough child in the matter, for when it is dark and gruesome the child clings closer to the mother's side; but when you are smitten by misfortune you let slip your grasp on him and bitterly accuse Him of neglecting your interests. At the very moment when you need help most you separate yourself from the source of succor and become enfeebled by your distrust of His goodness. Such is the perversity of human nature.

You find the necessity for daily work very irksome, perhaps, onerous. Why, you ask, should you be doomed to constant toil for your daily bread? That question is not easily answered, and the hardship of the common lot, for it is the common lot, cannot be denied. It is, however, futile to wonder why—we shall have leisure to solve the problem by and by. In the meantime how shall we make the best of our environment and extract from it all the honey it conceals? By worriment and cynical criticism? By grumbling because the universe is not made as we would have made it?

Christ's life was one of toil and suffering, and yet he found a divine satisfaction in obeying the law contained in the statement, "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." Why should we be better off than He was?

Your aim should be to do what you can with what you have. When things go ill with you it is better to go to God than to go away from Him. He is not your enemy, but your friend; He is not indifferent, but solicitous, and as your faith increases so will your strength be enlarged. That is the law, and, although it is hard to understand it, a blessing always follows obedience.

Religion is well enough when the sky is cloudless, but it is absolutely necessary in time of trouble. It is not a broken reed, but a strong staff. The more you have of it the lighter your burden becomes. That fact belongs to the necromancy of life. The harder your trial, the deeper your faith—that is the rule to follow. Even when death despoils you of your treasure, say with trembling lips, "It is well," and the heart will glow and brighten like the blazing log on a winter hearthstone. And when you lie down to die yourself stretch out your hands to heaven and angels will come trooping down to bear you in their arms.

That is practical religion, and unless your religion is practical it is of no value.

That Tired Feeling

Means danger. It is a serious condition and will lead to disastrous results if it is not overcome at once. It is a sure sign that the blood is impoverished and impure. The best remedy is

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Which makes rich, healthy blood, and thus gives strength and elasticity to the muscles, vigor to the brain and health and vitality to every part of the body. Hood's Sarsaparilla positively

Makes the Weak Strong

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, that tired feeling and loss of appetite. I feel much better and stronger after taking it. I earnestly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I call it a great medicine."
MRS. C. E. BRANHURST, 1318 Cambria St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Hood's and Only Hood's

Hood's Pills easy to buy, easy to take, easy in effect. 25c.

ECZEMA From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of this disease. I visited Hot Springs, and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. FROM When all things had failed I determined to try S. S. S., and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible Eczema was gone, not a sign of it left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. CHILDHOOD I have since recommended S. S. S. to a number of friends for skin diseases, and have never yet known a failure to cure. GEO. W. IRWIN, Irwin, Pa.

S.S.S. Never fails to cure, even after all other remedies have. Our Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free to any address.
