THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

The Maryland Legislature met at Annapolis on Wednesday, and both branches were organor even a synopsis of its contents.

THE LEGISLATIVE CAUCUS.

The members of the Maryland General Assembly, which met at Annapolis on Wednesday. held party caucuses in that city Tuesday night and nominated officers of the two houses. Dr. ted by the democratic caucus for Speaker of the of needful changes when such changes become of and logically one can readily understand that the organic law in process of time also ator Lane, of Washington county, was secretary. Senator Henry Lloyd, of Dorchester, for Presiing resolution, which was adopted

President of the Senate.

Resolved, That in compliance with the requirements of the act of 1882, chapter 459, the followompensation shall be that prescribed in said act: Secretary, John M. Miller, of Cecil; reading clerk, John W. Baughman, of Frederick county; keeper, Benj. F. Shafer, of Washington county; assistant doorkeeper, Dr. Robert Wright, of Queen Anne's: engrossing clerk, George W. Bell, they are elected. Wicomico; committee clerks, Charles A. Walshe of Carroll, James W. Diven of Baltimore city, Frank Gorman of Baltimore city, and Charles G. Keller of Garrett county; folder, John T. Toll, of Dorchester; janitor, Thomas Howard; messenger to the printer, James D. Powell, of Baltimore co.; chaplain, Rev. Wm.

The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes: Mr. John S. Gittings, of Baltimore county, is making an active contest for treasurer, and the office, he is compelled to step out and a raw speaks confidently of his success. On the other hand takes his place, thus depriving the State of skillful service. the 77 democrats in the Legislature he will get | But these that I have mentioned, and all other 45, and 39 would be sufficient. An effort is being made to call the caucus on the treasurer- be effected with less expense and the desired obput through the police commissionership at the ject be as effectively attained by legislative same time. For this latter office Mr. John Milroy, the present incumbent, is here in his own interest. Except Col. Joyce, no other name but Mr. Milroy's has been mentioned for this place. The voting for United States Senator begins by law on the 15th, and the programme seems to be to give that, the great event of the session, a clear to be finally determined in caucus, though cauhave been proceeded with for some time. Gov. McLane, who does not go into office until the 9th, will probably begin early on the county appointments which he has to make. His lowed fifty days in which to do this laborious bers of the Allegany bar on the subject of a con- convention from every voter of the State outside stitutional convention. Of 22 lawyers seen, 10 of the city.

The only approximation to a reason for were in favor of the next Legislature acting in a change that has come from the counthe matter, while 9 thought that 1887 would be | ties is the not entire satisfaction with the present peals. But our judicial system might be much law survive the nineteeth century. changed in the manner provided in the constitution, if the people want it changed, at much less expense than would attend the calling of a contrifling expense by submitting to them an amend. of the people of Rights. We see no great necessity at this for a convention, but without any good reason. this is to be attained, as is generally suggested, cate town with the old year. ject it on the ground of expense."

the heads of the municipal authorities of the city that the present judiciary system can be improvnence in judicial tenure, which I believe to be of a handsome silver waiter costing $450 as a testi- ed. The demand for a change in it comes prinhe declined the present. In his letter, he ex- greatly prefer the present system. There is a the term for which they were elected, and for have refused to accept any substantial and per- chief judge come among them, and he has thus is the inscription : "Presented to the Hon. Wm. faction to themselves. Pinkney Whyte, Mayor of Baltimore from No- fairness to be extended, and those persons residfellow-citizens unanimously called him to the and Baltimore secure justice. Mayoralty, where he executed his trust with fidelity and ability." In the four corners are the improvement. We have prospered under the present constitution and with very little tinkering there will be no need of a convention in '87.

I hold that every change is not necessarily an improvement. We have prospered under the present constitution and with very little tinkering there will be no need of a convention in '87.

REV. Mr. STANSBURY, the new paster of the improvement to say the same thing.—

Bethel African M. E. Church at New Haven, Bethel African M. E. Church at New Haven, PENINSULA, embracing Delaware and or address 1875;" "Governor, 1872;" "Mayor, November, Kent county, said 1881.' The weight of the waiter is 138 ounces.

dent Davis to escape from the country after he was taken out of prison on bond. Mr. Davis refused to do so. Mr. O'Conor nreged-the excited state of feeling, that might lend to the worst results. Mr. Davis replied that, other consistance of the limit of feeling, that might lend to the worst results. Mr. Davis replied that, other consistations in this State. With many I find that the present judiciary system is objectionable, soon. "I am able almost to pay the amount of the bond, and I could not devote my fortune so at to give me greater happiness than in paying for your liberty."

Ara dance at Bringler's tavers, twenty-four the point of the same of the bond and a seed months and that the circle works a hardship in the case of Baltimore city in her endeavor to take in the prince of the constitution was adopted by the people on lond. Mr. Davis replied that, other considerations and davisities. Prices. Prices

THE STATE CONSTITUTION. The Question of Calling a Convention - Further Expressions of Opinion.

Members of the Chestertown bar bave been their views on the Convention question R. Hynson, Esq., said :

a committee of five, who had not reported at last special convention.

The law provides for submitting to the people The Governor's message was sent in | in 1887 the question of altering the present con-

and read. It is a lengthy document, covering stitution. That time is only about three years sixty-seven book pages, and is devoted mainly to the constitution as it now stands during the past ple of the State do, that 1887—the period already the financial condition of the State and the ques- seventeen years with reasonable facility and tions which have from time to time arisen in con- promptness, and there is no apparent reason why ters-will be time enough to remedy any grave nection therewith. We have not space this week | they could not be conducted three years longer, | defects in the present organic law which cannot

Joseph B. Seth, of Talbot county, was chosen portance that it can be swept out of existence any dire necessity for the immediate call of a conperiodically, upon trivial objections. The present chairman of the House caucus, and R. D. John- | constitution was framed by some of the best and son, of Howard, secretary. There were sixty wisest men of their time, and has fulfilled its pur- for the intrinsic good of the people, to call in members present out of the sixty-three. On mo- pose in the main with fairness and justness. There are some provisions of the present constitution, tion of ex-Governor Thomas, seconded by John however, which time has shown may be improv-H. Handy, of Baltimore city, Dr. J. Pembroke ed upon. The judiciary system of the State, I Thom was made the unanimous choice of the think, might be better constructed. I would of Baltimore county, was chosen chief clerk; Dr. Maryland and one to the Eastern Shore, making posed to reframing the constitution at this time. Wm. H. Cole, of Baltimore city, reading clerk, the Appeal Court to consist of five judges, and and Milton Y. Kidd, of Cecil, journal clerk, all these to be relieved entirely of district duty. I James A. Pearce, Esq., writes to the Baltiwould not increase the number of circuit judges, more Sun as follows: but would enlarge their sphere of duty. I would Dr. Geo. W. Bishop, of Worcester, presided abolish the Orphans' Court and enlarge the duover the democratic senatorial caucus, and Sen- ties of the Register of Wills. I would have circuit court judges hold quarterly sessions in each county, for the performance of Orphans' Court All the fourteen democraticSenators were present. | duties. The less important and more mechani-Senator Turpin, of Queen Anne's, nominated cal portion of these duties I would impose upon effect of frequent changes in the organic law of the Register of Wills. As to the judicial tenure, I would make it extend until the incumbent dent of the Senate. He was chosen unanimonsly. should have reached the age of seventy years, un-Senator Hayes, of Baltimore, offered the follow- less he be in the meantime physically or mentally incapacitated. I would also have him conyears after be had passed the age limit for which

Another matter calling for constitutional amendment is the present short tenure allotted expect in 1887. to a number of elective offices. The frequency of elections is very demoralizing in its effects upon a community. It has a tendency to take the attention of citizens too much from their legitimate Sears, of Worcester; postmaster, Levi Webb, of affairs and to engender too large an office-seeking class. Every election, too, necessarily stirs up a degree of strife and bad feeling that should be rendered as little frequent as possible. There is a public servant has fairly learned the duties of desirable constitutional changes, could, I think,

E. F. PERKINS, Esq., said

I am aware of no substantial reasons for changnot heard or heard of the subject or necessity for deck. It is expected the senatorship will have a change being discussed until the recent editorial of the Baltimore Sun. The reasons moving of obtaining an enlarged representation in the legislature of the State from a convention to be called at this time. The enlargement of the city can now be secured by the assent of the citizens of the county, or can be reached through an be gradually effected by constitutional amend- traffic by any one line of steamers between New returned his first and final administration acc't. of a new constitution curtailing the proportion THE Baltimore Sun's correspondent at Cum- of the rural representation to Baltimore city, berland recently interviewed the leading mem- ought, it seems to me, secure the opposition to a soon enough, and 3 were non-committal. They of Maryland the jewel in our constitution. It soon enough, and 3 were non-committal. They were nearly unanimously in favor of changing the judiciary system so as to make the Court of Appeals independent of other judges and give each county a judge, as under the constitution of the 1864. Most of them favored the abolition of the Orphans' Court, and the substitution of one judge learned in the law.

The Easton Star, edited by T. K. Robson, East.

The Saton Star, edited by T. K. Robson, East.

The Saton Star, edited by T. K. Robson, East.

The Saton Star, edited by T. K. Robson, East.

The Convention were nearly unanimously in favor of changing the federal government, the Southern States allered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of the federal government, the Southern States allered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of the federal government, the Southern States allered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of the federal government, the Southern States allered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of the federal government, the Southern States altered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of continuing, exportation, and home consumption, while at the same time there shall be no diminution in the oyster beds. Can it is defect, and it is certainly not free from them. I regard the certainty and permanence of judicial tenures as more important of the properties of the federal government, the Southern States altered their constitutions to conform to the visual treatment of continuing, exportation, and home consumption, while at the same time there shall be no diminution in the oyster beds. Crew, Robert S. Crew, has this to say on the subject of a new constitution: lis in 1867 was as intelligent a body of men as and I believe the desire for a change is greatly The convention which assembled at Annapo-

"We do not like our judicial system, and never | would be likely to be gathered now. Two years pay three men to do what one can do just as well, idea that the present constitution was a reaction or better, is an unnecessary expense. We think of the constitution of sixty-four is without founit would be very much better to elect a judge for dation. The men of 1867, in my opinion, buildeach county, and an independent Court of Ap- ed well, and I hope to see our present organic H. W. VICKERS, Esq., said :

vention. A great many people think we ought tion. The present discussion seems to me preto have a poll tax in Maryland, which the Bill of mature. At least it is sprung rather sudden and Rights prohibits; but it is very doubtful if a unexpected. I am at a loss to know how the constitution providing for a poll tax would be "boom" originated, whether with democratic or and professional ambition, and of political ar- which struck this town, last week and this, the wild, and the eyes are also different. The withered and drooped—gone to bloom in Para- which struck this town, last week and this, the wild, and the eyes are also different. The accepted by the people. The will of the people republican politicians, or is gotten up by the on the subject could be easily ascertained at a newspapers for their profit and the entertainment time for a constitutional convention, but have no | The present constitution is non-partisan. It is serious objections to submitting this question to in harmony with the constitution of the United a popular vote, which would most probably re- States, and there is no present reasonable demand for a change from any quarter. Barring a very monial of regard. To the surprise of his friends | cipally from Baltimore. The counties I believe presses his high appreciation of the gift, but presses his high appreciation of the gift, but appeals ought not to be entirely divorced from purchase a white elephant for £10,000, wherewounded at Antietam, and received a pension. the people. It don't do the judges any harm to "From the beginning of my political career I do circuit work. The people like to see their an exception on this occasion. Your loyal attachment to me guarantees that my action will neither give you offense nor receive your disappendent Court of Appeals that the duties of the Orphans' Court should be discharged by the The donors in reply state their appreciation of Circuit Court judges. While such a change the ex-Mayor's reasons for declining, and ask that the municipal authorities permit the present to be placed in the City Hall. The waiter is a perfect gem of artistic skill, and greatly reflects

The donors in reply state their appreciation of the Curt judges. While such a change might be desirable in some respects, I apprehend that the people will be slow to give up altogether the management of the Orphans' Court. The people look upon this court as the judgment court, and nearly everybody manages to have been put on the oreax-fast table by mistake.

The total deaths in Baltimore during the past year number of the people will be slow to give up altogether that the people will be slow to give up altogether the management of the Orphans' Court. The people look upon this court as the judgment of the oreax-fast table by mistake.

The total deaths from small-pox in 1882 is now moving southeast, and on New Year's was 551, while in 1883 it was 663. Of those upon the taste of the donors. It is 18 by 25 will be reluctant to surrender rights which they in a private family, and the society paid for her inches, of oval shape, and was made by Warner. In the centre, encircled by a garland of flowers, which they have so long performed with satis-

vember, 1881, to November, 1883, by the officers | ing within the "belt," who enjoy the advan-

I have not given the question much thought to agricultural pursuits. and I hardly feel able to express an opinion MR. O'Coson's Apvice. - A writer in the At- about the advisability of calling a convention for Ar a dance at Bringler's tavern, twenty-four milet from Catawissa, Pa., Friday night, a free fight occured, during which Eliwood Strausser was fatally stabbed by Matt Cope. Henry Snyder was also fatally stabbed, and Benson Irwin and Mary Annan were shot. Cope and four others were arrested.

Case of Baltimore city in her endeavor to take in the city ought to have that adjacent territory, but that and the other patent reasons I have read as offered for the cause of the call might be affected by amendments, is the doing away with so many elections. Had earlier or later, our State and Congressional elections would have then come in the same year, thereby saving a considerable item of expense.

glad of the prospect of a general discussion of the subject. After sixteen years of vigorous growth, it is certainly not out of place to direct politicians or the self-interest of those in office.

ple of the State do, that 1887-the period already fixed for the consideration of Constitutional matwhen the question of making radical changes in | be healed in the meantime by proper amendments. the constitution can be submitted to the people. That lapse of time and the extraordinary advance If all this agitation by the Battimore press of the and development of the human race in this free question of calling a speedy convention has its land of ours, should often require thorough exorigin in the fact that Baltimore wants to enlarge amination and frequent amendment and reconher boundaries, certainly this matter could be struction of the laws under which we live, is remedied if thought proper, by legislative surely no surprise; and so, since the adoption Frequent change without urgent necessity in time there have arisen exigencies which the the organic law of a State is, to say the least, existing laws do not meet, as the bi-annual bad policy. While the constitutional law of a books of legislative acts clearly show so far State should not be so inflexible as not to admit as the statute law of the State is concerned, the same time not be considered of so little im- needs revising and amending. But that there is stitutional convention I cannot agree. With our multiplicity of elections, too frequently held now dential election already warming us with its approaching glow, would seem to me to be extremely ill-timed and unnecessary, and without siderations in favor of such a convention, and these I concede to be both numerous and weighty, the State are such that I am not prepared hastily to yield my assent to the propriety of calling a convention, and I should not hesitate to express the people upon this question in the year 1887. not, however, affect the tenure of the present enduring work which we may not reasonably shortly introduce the system of illustrated ser-

'You have stated what you deem to be these advantages fairly and strongly, and they may be summed up, I think, as follows: late election, after strong demand for and gen- acteristically, he invited several physicians to eral concession of the need of reform in political | Bridgeport, Conn., to testify to his mental com-

strong and presumably reputable to guard varying in amount to the Chapin Home, Childamendment as by the holding of a special con- against the mere partisan use of power by the ren's Aid Society, the Rev. C. L. Brace, secre- estant Sunday School was held at the Town Hall from 1780 up to the present time under the same | rates for freight and passage between said cities. constitution, though during that period nine The bequests foot up a large sum, leaving no amendments relating to various matters, and | chance for dissatisfaction.' some of great importance, have been adopted. Vermont is still under her original constitution of 1793, with four amendments, and North Carodefects which may exist in the judicial system, Westminster Advocate. exaggerated.

"The best material for the bench can only be tion. At this time the personnel of our courts is in the main excellent; many of its members have said to have been due to the fear that a conspirbeen recently re-elected in recognition of able acy had been formed by the negroes to commit I have not given the subject very much atten- and faithful services rendered; and I should murder.

only by reducing the size of the circuits and diminishing the salaries of circuit judges, thus at once lessening the standard of material and narrowing the scope and contact of the bench, I must consider the change of more than doubtful expediency. In spite, therefore, of considerations at this time, I prefer to bear longer with such many years to come. I am by no means sure defects as exist, unless the doctrine of permaparamount importance, can be adopted by a provision for the retention of the present judges for

"GOLDEN DAYS," the brightest, best and in manent testimonial in approval of my public an opportunity of knowing what is going on every way most attractive and desirable maga- show business. conduct, and, although I recognize this as an outside of Annapolis. The present judiciary zine for young people, comes promptly to our offering of personal friends merely, to be kept as system after mature deliberation was adopted as table. If you want to supply your boy with first after mature deliberation, that I should not make and the reasons thus advanced for a change do class literature for the Boyland and Reese Blair were poisoned by eat-"Golden Days," published by James Elverson, fever 132, consumption 1,299, pneumonia 563, nity to see it again-if they live long enough. The corporate limits of Baltimore ought in cholera infantum 473,---

M. DEK. SETT, Esq., the State's Attorney for gaged for a short season at $1,000 a week, and Conn., was forcibly ejected from his pulpit last that be intends to use the money by makes in Sunday by two of the deacons, who have secured N. B.—Entirely free from disease of any kind. stocking his little farm, when he will settle down a minister more to their liking. Prosecutions shows every Town, Post Office, Stream,

VALUABLE CHRISTMAS GIFTS, -- Senutor Fair, | tees of the church. lanta Constitution says: "I have it from good the purpose of making a new constitution. The authority that Charles O'Conor advised Presipresent constitution was adopted by the people gift to the Boys and Girls' Aid Society of San ADAM HARTLINE, a pedler, was stopped on the Size 31x47 inches. Prices, pocket form Terms, a First-Class HAULING SEINE, in fine ly low the present constitution been adopted one year THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN AMERICA. Points Agreed Upon by the Bishops While at sends what he states to be a full translation of a So far as my observation goes, without giving letter from an influential dignitary of the Catho-News and Transcript, and gave expression to reason for a convention. At the same time I am lic Church regarding its future in the United

"The American bishops have been very busy I cannot see that there is any urgency to war- our attention within and try to find what needs | here preparing for the National Council that was | C. Adkinson. At the close of the installation rant the calling of a constitutional convention | the times have developed. It is the privilege of | to have taken place shortly after New Year's. | ceremonies the lodge was "called off" and adjection was made to the swearing in of Senator ticulars, but these defects can be reached by leg-Hodson, of Somerset, and his case was referred to islative amendments, without the calling of a much influence from the ambitious schemes of possibility of exciting public opinion at a most der and quite a number of invited guests. susceptible moment. Mgr. Sepiaci, who was to Messrs. Armstrong & Sparks, proprietors, have the evening. preside at the council and fill the functions of > on of their young and brilliant church, so full not yet been firmly established on the solid basis onsecrated the labors of the last few weeks, merous and happily the most fruitful delibera- masonic "men and measures." The bishops have agreed upon the fol-"1. The bishops are to organize their seminaries according to the principles established by "2. Parochial schools are to be established and in doing so the principles of the first period of the Middle Ages are to be borne in mind. "3. Commissions are to be appointed for the administration of ecclesiastical property adopted by common accord.

mons into his church.

"4. For the nomination of curates the system exception, of course, of the co-operation of the forgot to take it with him when he arose; Frank state, which, unfortunately, in America has no relation with the church. This method of nomdivide the State into five appellate districts—one tiring you by going into details and giving you ination is a point of the utmost importance, for got up and went down stairs, about 7 o'clock, caucus for Speaker of the House. Thomas Moore, to Baltimore city, three to the Western Shore of the House the State into details and growing into details and growing into details and growing in the Baltimore city, three to the Western Shore of the House the Baltimore city, three to the Western Shore of the House the State into details and growing into details and growi thorny and multifarious nature. "5. A system of legislation is to be decided upon for religious marriages.

> but my convictions of the evil policy and bad of Philadelphia, preached Sunday morning and amination of the wound decided it not expedient line. thor of "illustrated sermons," having 724 ser- revolver under his head is a mystery. an adverse opinion but for the existence of the mons, each of which has a number of very large constitutional requirements to take the sense of pictures illustrating the sermon. Yesterday Pisgab, the three illustrations showing Moses in Chestertown, closed last Saturday night .terance of a deliberate opinion without fuller parting from the people, his ascent up the mounconsideration of the details of the present con- tain, and finally his gaze over the promised land, stitution and of the changes in affairs since its | which he was never to enter. The evening ser- the fortunate winners of the numerous articles | Deposit adoption. I do not regard the question or ex- mon was about the building of the ark. The disposed of: Lady's gold watch, Mrs. Mary other office until two years after the time for which he had been elected had expired. I would pense, in view of the fact that we must act in In the afternoon Mr. Long visited the penitentic. 1887, as worthy of serious consideration, and in In the afternoon Mr. Long visited the penitentiseeking to reach a sound judgment for myself, I ary and preached to the inmates about Moses, judges, and would not apply the age condition am disposed to consider whether the present time using the same illustrations. Rev. G. W. M. John Baumgarter; majolica ware, John Sweeny;

> > MR. BARNUM'S WILL, -As already announced, methods and measures, still remains firm in the petency to execute a last will and testament, and thus prevent the possibility of a contest after his Second,-That no element in the party can | death. The will and its codicils cover more be expected to be more sensitive to the obliga- than 700 pages of closely-written legal cap, and "Third .- The assurance of a minority repub- and London shows, which is valued at $3,500,ican representation in the convention sufficiently | 000. Among the charitable bequests are sums | "Fourth .- That there is no guaranty that sist males and females over eighty years of age;" there will not be in 1887 excitements and conten- Bridgeport Orphan Asylum, Bridgeport Hospi-"Fifth.-The possibility - remote though it | don shows for each year that the show is in exmay be-of devolving the duty, if delayed till istence, and authorizes his executors to renew 1887, upon the republican party, which in a the partnership at present in effect with James democratic State could not but be regarded as a A. Bailey and James L. Hutchinson at its expi-

calamity. Many of the matters to which you refer | ration in 1899. He secures to the city of Bridgemight be revised with advantage to the State, port the only water front left, with a dock costbut I do not think that the defects of the present | ing $30,000, and which he forbids his executors | Register of Wills in the sum of $7,000, which constitution press so hardly upon the people as to sell or lease for twenty-one years after his was approved. to necessitate a convention to remodel it, and I death, "my object being," the will states, "to am disposed to believe that all vital reforms can prevent a monopoly of the freight and passenger York and Bridgeport, and to preserve to Bridge-"If I mistake not, Massachusetts has continued | port and others the advantages of reasonable THE OYSTER PROBLEM .- The problem to be

lina lived under her original constitution of 1776 | solved by the next Legislature, in reference to rough, the genial proprietor of the Arlington secured, and the highest qualities of judges so armed men took Robert Swayze, Micajob Par- House in that town. The people of Kent will find obtained can only be brought into constant ac- ker and Richard Gibbs from the jail and hanged Mr. Goldsborough a pleasant, genial and exceltion, by the assurance on their part that without | them. W. L. Foote resisted and was shot dead | lent landlord. We regret to lose him, but what some paramount necessity their tenure shall not | in his cell. The prisoners were charged with | is our loss is Chestertown's gain. He has our be disturbed either by legislation or a conven- the murder of the Posey brothers and Jasper best wishes for success in his new field of labor.

so soon again of all those places in the State to the hot and uncertain competition of personal town News says: The immense crop of measels red rabbit. The hair is different in quality from of tears. One of earth's loveliest flowers has made it a dull Christmas to many families .- | rabbit was shot at and missed two years ago, and | disc, that haven of rest for the weary one. "I concur with most of my brother lawyers in the opinion that a smaller and an independent struck us quite light only 5 down out of 10. All a week ago did they succeed. The rabbit is now tenderly nursed and watched by her devoted ment repealing the prohibitory clause in the Bill The Republicans seem to clamor most however of Rights. We see no great necessity at this for a convention, but without any good reason. The Republicans seem to clamor most however to stay be rearrily prop. But God in His wis-

> THE Baltimore Sun says Gen. Horn has in the State penitentiary a negro from southern Maryland who is the champion pie eater of the world. A year ago last Christmas he ate, in his cell, six The secretary of the Society to Protect Children your affections above. "She bath done what dozen pies between the hours of closing on from Cruelty, of Philadelphia, on Monday re- she could," she has finished her course and now which seem to faver the calling of a convention | Christmas eve to that of opening his cell on Christmas morning. We havn't the record yet

Adam Forepaugh received a telegram from his and a daughter of a soldier who fought in the purchase a white elephant for £10,000, where- wounded at Antietam, and received a pension. | NOTICEupon Mr. Forepaugh instructed him to make the He died ten years ago, and his pension reverted purchase forthwith. This will be sad news for to his two daughters. After his death one of of the MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY of Kent supposed to be out of danger. The eggs are be- society took charge of the children. The youn- STRAW BOARD & MANUFACTURING COMPANY of DEATHS IN BALTIMORE THE PAST YEAR .- The | killing rats, and to have been put on the break- long continued abuse and neglect, and is now | Company in Chestertown on WEDNESDAY, Janu-

SERGEANT MASON, Who attempted to shoot found lying in the snow near the Pennsylvania position. She lived in her new home for a year, TUESDAY, January 8, next, at 11 o'clock A. M. under his municipal administration. After faithfully serving his State and country as Comptroller, Governor and United States Senator, his sult. Besides the constitution can be amended

SERGKANT MASON, who attempted to shoot found lying in the snow near the Pennsylvania found lying in the sno evening, Mason proving a drawing card. He evidence of a horrible struggle. The body was marriage, and was accepted. They are now made a speech, in which he thanked the newspa-identified as that of John Robinson of Cleveland. living happily together in Philadelphia.

> for assault will follow. Stansbury was appointed | Canal, Common Road and Railroad, acby Bishop Brown without consulting the tras- curately delineated. No other Map com- LISHERMEN ATTENTION !

of commercial fertilizers was used,

the following officers-elected for the ensuing to learn, however, that he is convalescing.

senior warden, G. H. Cannan; junior warden, Wm. H. Blakeney; secretary, John R. Gray; Co., expect to spend the winter in Florida. Dodd; junior deacon, John D. Urie; tyler, Geo.

apostolic vicar, will not leave Rome as early as secured for their hotel an enviable reputation for "The bishops have certainly labored with the prepared with their characteristic skill. After createst zeal and enthusiasm for the organiza- doing full justice to oysters and canvas-back f hope, yet surrounded by difficulties. Like duck, and turkey and chicken, etc., etc., the all new-born religious structures, the church in company adjourned to the parlor where im-America has not yet heen adapted to a true ju- promptu speeches were the order, and a half and takes charge of his own near Galena. Mr. ridical existence. The church of America has dozen or more short addresses were made some Nelson K. Murren succeeds Mr. Spicer at the dozen or more short addresses were made-some | Nelson K. Murren succeeds Mr. Spicer at the or paramount excellence of ecclesiastical tradi- relative to masonry and its good work, but more tions. It is to mould gradually but surely this of an "anecdotal" character. The whole affair institute to the exigencies of canon law and of was of the most pleasant and enjoyable charac-Catholic jurisprudence that the episcopate has ter, and the company dispersed at a late hour, They have been weeks filled with the most all hands no doubt favorably impressed with

A BOY SHOOTS HIMSELF ACCIDENTALLY .- Frank Mitchell, aged nine years, son of Geo. Mitchell, colored, who lives on college road just outside the head of Chestertown, was shot and seriously if not dangerously hurt last Thursday morning from carelessly handling a pistol. The pistol was a four-barrelled revolver, and George had obtaining in France is to be adopted, with the slept with it under his head the night before and slept in the same bed, and shortly after his father gan playing with it while yet in bed ; three of the barrels were loaded and one was discharged, evening at the Scott Street U. B. Church, Balti- to probe for the ball at present. Why George more. Mr. Long is very well known as the au- should find it necessary to sleep with a loaded morning he preached on Moses' death, on Mount | THE FAIR for the benefit of the Catholic Church, About $425 were cleared. The following were son; baby's afghan, Al. Jester; handsome doll, offers any special advantages for healthy and Rigor, the pastor of Scott Street Church, will gold wedding ring, Joseph Peterson; lady's gold onyx ring, L. K. Stam; handsome lamp, Mrs. Annie Dixon; magnificent bride, Jennie Stuart; wedding cake, Frank Casey; lounge, Mrs. Wa-Mr. P. T. Barnum has finally become reconciled | ters, Baltimore; handsome whisp and holder, RELIGIOUS .- A "watch meeting" was held in the M. E. Church on Monday night commencing tion thus imposed than that upon which special bequeath $10,000,000 to twenty-seven direct at 10 o'clock and lasting till after midnight. The frequent sore bereavement as that of Mr. Dodd. responsibility has been devolved by the election heirs. The property consists of personal and bell tolled out the dying year and rang in the their representatives under pledges for these real estate in New York, Brooklyn, Bridgeport upon his loved ones we are not prepared to say. has been in progress at the church during the But we know of one bright boy suddenly stricken The children's jubilee by the Methodist Prot-tary : Old Men's and Women's Home, to "as- on New-Year's eve and the little folks-and big tions in the party tending to the selection of un- tal and other Bridgeport societies. He also makes occasions. About two hundred and fifty pack- Truly, grace is needed in a life like his, and our wise delegates and to the adoption of an instru- a handsome provision for some societies by be- ages of confectionery were distributed to the personal acquaintance with the man warrants us ment marked by haste or prejudices, and to queathing them a certain percentage of the anscholars and teachers of the school, and cake in darkest bour. We tender our friend our sincere abundance to all present.

ORPHANS' COURT, Monday, Dec. 31, - Present, Judges Walker, Hyland and Stevens. Joel C. Slaughter filed his official bond as John J. Roeder, adm'r of Mary Maria Roeder,

Letters testamentary on the personal estate of Edward Slaughter, were granted to Marion dek. Smith, who filed his bond in the sum of $1,000. Marion dek. Smith, the trustee appointed to all the seriousness and dignity of maturity, with sell the real estate of Isaac Caulk, deceased, filed | the grace and simplicity of childhood. She was his bond in the penal sum of $1,000. Chas, M. Sutton, adm'r of Andrew J. Sutton, returned his account of sales of personal estate.

Hotel at this place for the last year, has removed AT Yazoo City, Miss., Saturday night 200 to Chestertown, and will conduct the Voshell A RED RABBIT .- Wm. Boyd, Cecil county, has a curiosity, caught in a box-trap by his daughter | riven ; another star has faded from the etherial

Mayor Latrobe, of Baltimore, as a contribution | dom saw best to remove that plant so tenderly to the park curiosities.

ROMANTIC HISTORY OF TWO ORPHAN GIRLS .ceived word from Disbursing-Agent Laurence, of the pension office, informing him that he had you shall be reunited where parting is no more; ANOTHER WHITE ELEPHANT .- On Friday Mr. | ing to Margaret Culiden a ward of the society, dered it for drink. He gruelly treated the child- o'clock A. M. John C, Marsh, a lawyer, and his wife, James | ren, and the society investigated the case. It an inmate of the almshouse hospital. The history of the the elder girl, Elizabeth, Directors for the succeeding year. from the time of her commitment to the present, | d22-3t, ful and accomplished, and refined and gentle in and treated as a daughter. She lived pleasantly pares with this in clearness or detail. - I

$471,000 against the heirs of Wm. Philips, formerly president of the company, who, it is claimfor some time that he had broken one of his legs, the pain was so intense, but it turned out that of property in his own name.

Sept. 29.

W. H. H. BARROLL, ATTY.

Sept. 29.

W. B. BARROLL, ATTY.

Sept. 29.

Currently the pain was so intense, but it turned out that the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and heis better. He was the bone is not broken, and he is better. He was the bone is not broken the bone is not broken the bone is not broken. about to take a ride, and went to his coachman market. Our New Emerald, Farmer 117. CAPT, THOMAS R. FITZGERALD, of Somerset co., and gave him some money as a christmas gift, Girl, and Virginia Cooks cannot be exgot 1,600 bushels of corn from 26 acres of land. and in turning round to go to his carriage fell. celled. Call and examine them at JOEL R. CLEMENT not be able to leave his room for some time.

MASONIC INSTALLATION AND BANQUET. - The PERSONAL .- Mr. Tilghman Shafer, late county Masonic Lodge of this town held its installation | commisssioner from the second district, has been meeting on Wednesday evening last, at which | dangerously ill with the measels. We are glad rant the calling of a constitutional convention the times have developed. It is the privilege of the present the people and the time is auspicious for a fair the people and the peop Mr. W. B. Dulaney, who has been conducting week for Virginia where he expects in future to The mill will be carried on by Mr. W. Mr. W. J. Spicer leaves "Whalaud's Mill'

Messrs. L. C. Justis, of Kennedyville, and C. trip is to combine pleasure with business.

SALE OF TOWN PROPERTY .- James A. Pearce, Esq., as trustee, sold on Wednesday at the Voshell House, the property located on High street, known as the "Simon Wickes property." Mr. T. W. Wickes bought the building in which his drug store is located, consisting of a store and dwelling, for $7,500. Mr. Thomas S. Wickes bought the part now occupied by Wickes & Bro.

> as a store for $4,000, making a total of $11,500. PEACHES IN ST. MARY'S .- Mr. Wm. J. Vannort, of this town, who owns an estate on the St. Mary's river in St. Mary's county, has determin ed to introduce the cultivation of peaches on a large scale in that county. The soil and climate are believed to be well adapted to the growth of peaches, and experiments in this direction made by various parties have been attended with above the heart. Several other children were in removed his place of business to the store room | THE STONE HOUSE on the northeast side the room and two in an adjoining bed. Dr. C. opposite the Kent National Bank, where he will ILLUSTRATED SERMONS .- Rev. Edwin M. Long, W. Whaland was sent for and after a careful ex- be pleased to see all who desire anything in his

WITHDRAWN .- The Sassafras river and Tolchester steamers have been withdrawn until fur-

In Port Deposit, Dec., 26, 1883, by Rev. J. A. Weigand, WILLIAM I. BARROW, of Baltimore, to Miss LAURA V. HOPKINS, of Port In the M. E. Church at Rock Hall, Jan. 1.

Rev. G. S. Conaway, CHAS. O. DONNELLY to Miss CATHARINE URIE, both of Rock Hall At Betterton M. E. Church, Dec. 31, by Rev. Louis E. Barrett, THOMAS E. MOORE and Miss MARY M. WHEELER, both of this county.

On the 11th ult., in Galena, Mrs. LAVINIA WILSON, in the 77th year of her age. "First,-That the State, as the result of the to the advances of age and made his will. Char- John Vandegrift; marble-top table, K. O. Oster- CALDER, youngest son of William and Annie E. Meeks, aged 4 years, 2 months and 22 days. In Wye Neck, Queen Anne's county, January , 1884, Mrs. S. HENNIE DODD, wife of John Dodd, Esq., of that county. Not many men are called upon to suffer such

How many times his home has been invaded by severe affliction and death's hand lain heavily down in the early blush of manhood, when hope seemed brightest to both father and son; of others and has on hand a fine assortment of taken from the bosom of his family while affec- CLOTHS and CASSIMERES. He will tion's most tender chords seemed strongest, and | make Suits to order and Guarantee a Fit now, after long suffering, the nearest and dearest and satisfaction in every case. A call and Public Auction, to the highest bidder for cash. of earthly ties is taken—the wife is gone! - examination of his goods is solicited. sympathy, and trust that his devoted head will not soon again be called to bow beneath the

In Memory of Ellenora L. Betton. "God gives us love; something to love He lends us. But when that on which love throve has grown to ripeness, love falls off and we are On the 18th day of December 1883, in her 23d year, at Tallahassee, Florida, the subject of this brief memorial laid down the earthly life, and entered upon the heavenly. Her life was short, but beautiful; she had scarcely budded into womanhood, but possessed one of the innocent few who did not lose her identity in the mysterious transformation from child to woman-and for her "Nature preserved by individual right, a young thought so beautifully expressed by Wordsworth

Or the injuries of tomorrow? Thou wert a dew drop, which the morn brings Not framed to do unkindly shocks, Or to be trailed along the soiling earth; A gem that glitters while it lives And no forewarning gives;

But at the touch of ill without a strife Slips in a moment out if life." In Memory of Ellenore Betton.

Another golden link in the family chain is watched and watered. Take comfort, fond mother. She has only gone to dwell with the angels above. Think of her as a link between Heaven and earth to draw receiving that reward which only the people of God have in reversion. Think of the time when in his possession several thousand dollars belong- and think of her in that choir where her sweet voice is blended with the angels in Beaven.

THE ANNUAL MEETING Mr. P. T. Barnum, but such is the fate of the their uncles was appointed guardian for the or- County will be held at the Court-House in Chesphaned children, drew the pension, and squan- tertown on Monday, January 7th, 1884, at 11

ing eggs Sunday morning at Beaver Dam, Union | $1,500 of the girls' money, and he was arrested, | THE regular ANNUAL MEETING county, N. C. Marsh died, but the others are fined and his guardianship was revoked. The lieved to have been poisoned for the purpose of ger one, Margaret, became an imbecile from the Kent County, will be held at the office of the ary 16th, 1884, for the purpose of electing Syrups, Canned Goods, Tobacco, Segars, T. W. ELIASON, JR., Sec'y.

> Kent National Bank of Chestertown CHESTERTOWN, MD., Dec. 14, 1883. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Stock-holders of the Kent National Bank of est. Country Produce taken in exchange Chestertown, that the regular annual meeting for goods. for election of Directors for ensuing year will be d1-tf. held at the Banking House in Chestertown on JOSEPH PETERSON, CASHIER.

LOR SALE-Pure Bred Plymouth Rock CHICKENS, rom selected and carefully mated birds, of the best strains of the country. Large size, bright JUST PUBLISHED - MAP OF THE yellow beaks and legs. For terms, &c., call on

At Private Sale on Tone and Liberal A and YOUTHS BOOTS, at unusual- LINE and

JOEL R. CLEMENTS', Successor to Hines & Clements.

DESTIVAL

The Mite Society of Kennedyville Presbyterian Church will hold a FESTIVAL Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Evenings, January 9th. 10th and 11th, in the Town Hall, Kennedyville. SUPPER each evening. The public is cordially

MAUTION NOTICE.

BACON have been placed in the hands of the Eastern limits of Chestertown, and indersigned for settlement. Those indebted will clease call and settle by note or cash on or before January 25th 1884. No further notice will be deemed requisite. H. H. BARROLL.

DR. JAMES, A. PERKINS

SPECIAL NOTICE.

further notice, the STEAMER GEORGE

DEMOVAL.

las removed his office and residence to the dwelling formerly occupied by Mr. Thos. L. Hines, on Queen street extended, between the residences f Messrs, H. M. Stuart and Harry Rickey. The Chester River Steamboat Co.

AW will be withdrawn from the route. GEORGE WARFIELD, OR RENT-For the year 1884. A Comfortable Frame DWELLING, on the main street to the railroad depot, at the entrance to "Lynchburg." Apply to d29-3t. M. DEK. SMITH, Attorney.

FOR SALE. of High Street, Chestertown, third House below College avenue; will be sold low on easy terms. Apply to CHAS. T. WESTCOTT. Att'y at Law, Chestertown.

CTOLENtertown, on Thursday night last, a BAY HORSE, with a white bind foot and small white star in the forehead; also, a York Side-bar CARRIAGE. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the same JOHN McGUGAN.

No more suitable Christmas Present than at ESTEY ORGAN. Terms easy. Prices low.

Kennedyville, Md

LOUIS K. STAM.

REMOVAL.

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT

LOUIS STOLL.

urgently solicited to make prompt payment.
J. M. J. BYRON,

law in every case without respect to persons.

B. B. ADKINSON.

MRS. M. C. USILTON

Nuts and Toys, and will be thankful to the pub-

CUMMINGS' GRAND DEPOT

Christmas and Holiday Goods.

Work-boxes, Albums, Musical Instruments, Rock

ing Horses, Shoo Fly's, Baby Carriages, Express

FRUITS AND NUTS.

1,000 LBS. of CHOICE CONFECTIONERY

Christmas Cake a Specialty.

Fruit, Pound and Lady Cake, &c., &c., orna-

opp. A. J. Cahall's.

cery and Confectionery store.

A large stock for sale by

D. ARTHUR BACCHUS.

COLIN F. STAM

J. H. SIMPERS.

at SPARKS'.

Prayer Books, Hymn Books, Bibles,

ARGE STOCK Gentlemen's, Ladies

Misses' and Children's Shoes and

LARGE STOCK of MEN'S, BOYS

UR Line of TOBACCO 25c. to $1 a

ARGE Stock of FRUITS, LEMONS

at LAMBERT'S

L Oranges, Grapes and Nuts

The stock of Christmas Goods

Wagons, Trimmings for Trees, &c., &c.

and all kinds of Almonds.

mented in the Finest style.

THINA and GLASS VASES, Dolls, Games,

Chestertown.

Coll. 4th District late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased.

TAX NOTICE. Allpersons having claims against said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the AM compelled to close my books, and undersigned, on or before the 7th day hereby notify all persons in arrears of July, 1884, otherwise they may be for Taxes for 1881 and 1882, that unless excluded from all benefit of said estate. December, 1883 FIRST OF DECEMBER MARION DEK. SMITH, shall proceed to collect according to

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. chans' Court of Kent county Letters of administration c. t. a. on the personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, of

All persons having claims against said lic to give her a call before purchasing elsewhere, Store between J. H. Simpers and Dr. Gilpin's, same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the 8th day of July, 1884, otherwise they may be ex-cluded by law from all benefit in said estate. Given under my hand this 18th day of December, 1883. CHARLES T. WESTCOTT.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

TOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber has obtained from the Or-phans' Court of Kent county Letters of Oranges, Lemons, Figs, Grapes, Raisins, Curants, Walnuts, Palm Nuts, Cocoanuts, Pecan estate in Kent county, Maryland, of ELIZA J. LEMLEY, late of Kent county, Maryland, dec'd All persons having claims against said leceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the > day of December 1883 Dec. 22-4t.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Would call attention to the fact that he has purchased with care and for cash a in Kent county, Maryland, of GEORGE L. MASLIN, late of Kent county, Maryland, dec'd All persons having claims against said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit Hecker's Oat Meal, Lea & Sons' Flour, same, with the vouchers thereof, to the and a choice line of Candies, Raisins, Cursubscriber, on or before the 15th day of rants, Citron, Figs, Nuts, and in fact everything pertaining to a first class Groestate. Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of December, 1883 THOS. C. MASLIN.

> NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS All persons are hereby cautioned against trespassing upon the farms known as "Camels-worthmore," "The Skirven Farm" or "Merritt Farm," after this date, with dog, gun or other-

WILLIAM R. GALE. EDWARD BIDDLE, October 27, 1883-tf.

NICE ASSORTMENT of Ladies Misses and Children's COATS, direct from the manufacturer's-pretty styles and close prices. Very truly. GROUND ALUM SALT, T. W. ELIASON, JR. at low Prices. For sale by FINE CONFECTIONERY for the days at WM. H. LAMBERT'S.

Oc27.

T. W. ELIASON, JR.

L. ADIES' Hand-Made, Kid-Buttoned BOOTS. Something nice. For sale T. W. ELIASON, JR.

> LARGE LINE of Gent's, Ladies A and Children's Vests.

The Extension of Court Street, and Cannon Streets, Chestertown.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Having rented the gunning privilege of FTHE COMMISSIONERS OF CHESTER STONETON SHORES for 1884, we hereby fore- TOWN hereby give notice, in accordance warn all persons from trespassing on the same. with the requirements of the Act of 1882, chap. OPEN AND EXTEND COURT > STREET The Books of Messrs. SPICER & its present width, from Church Alley to the

TO INCREASE THE WIDTH OF CANNON STREET,

Attorney for Spicer & Bacon. from Kent Street to College Avenue, to its present width below Kent street, and all persons interested in that portion of the grave yards over which the extension and widening of said streets will run, are hereby requested and notified to remove the tombstones and remains of their friends or relatives lying in those portions of said grave yards on or before April 1st, 1884. JAMES A. PEARCE. Pres't Commissioners of Chestertown, By order of the Board. d29-3t.

AT PRIVATE SALE

ON January 1st, 1884, and thereafter until A DESIRABLE COUNTRY RESIDENCE AT LOCUST GROVE.

> THE undersigned, attorney for the owner, offers at Private Sale that HANDSOME RESIDENCE, with Stables, Carriage House, and other necessary Outbuildings and fencing all in good order and repair, with TWO ACRES OF LAND attached, lately occupied by Dr. B. S. Roseberry and now in the tenancy of Dr. J. Horton Kelley, desirably located at Locust Grove. This property is suitable for a physician or usiness man as a residence, in a thrifty, thriving locality, near schools, churches, railroads, up for the next three years. Call on or address for particulars HOPE H. BARROLL.

etc. It has a policy of insurance for $2,650 paid

DY VIRTUE of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued by William A. Miller, one of the Justices of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Kent county, at the suit of Joseph Morris, use of Kate Morris, against the goods and chattels, ands and tenements of William H. Hill, to me directed, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, claim, interest and estate, at law and in equity, of the said William Hill, in WOOD LOT, LAND AND PREMISES. situated in the Maryland part of the Maryland and Delaware Forest, containing TWENTY

A CRES, more or less, and which lies in the 1st

Election District of Kent county, Maryland, adjoining the lands of Joseph W. Peacock, Henry

W. Archer and others, and which was conveyed THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully in- to the said William H. Hill by Joseph Morris, by forms the citizens of Chestertown | deed dated the 4th day of January 1883, duly and vicinity that he has removed to the executed, acknowledged and recorded in Liber store room opposite the Bank in Ches- S. B., No. 3, folio 616, one of the land record tertown his MERCHANT WENESDAY, January 16, 1884 Kent county, aforesaid, I will offer for sale the said property so seized and taken in execution, at > OPR H. BARROLL, att'y for Plaintiff, Chestertown, Md NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

WILLIAM R. MILLER, Constable

THE subscriber may be found at the Sheriff's OTICE is hereby given that the sub-office in the Court House on TUESDAYS and Scriber has obtained from the Or-SATURDAYS. The levies will be due on the phans' Court of Kent county letters tes-1st of January, and those owing TAXES are urgently solicited to make prompt payment. tamentary on the personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, of EDWARD SLAUGHTER > same, with the vouchers thereof, to the Given under my hand this 31st day of

TOTICE is hereby given that the sub-GEORGE SURVER, JR., ment of Christmas Goods, such as Candy, Fruits, late of Kent county, Maryland, deceased undersigned on or before the 18th day of July, 1884, otherwise they may be excluded by law from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this 18th JOHN W. CAREY.

VOTICE ishereby given that the sub-scriber has obtained from the Or-wise. The law will be strictly enforced. W. F. WOODMENDER.

ound. Our 2 for 5 Cigars best in FINE Cut-glass GOBLETS and Wine town. J. B. SAPPINGTON. F Glasses suitable for Christmas presat T. W. ELIASON'S, JR YOU can get a good box, (containing

100) CIGARS for $1.75 at WROTH & ALDRIDGE'S

Notwithste pastor and each other Friday que

A boun

the bost

gone th pleasure

the capit

out the v

Capt. H.

cently oc

R. S. Ta

Purnell J

ing of th

Frank N

"Wood's

Those e

mproved;

surprised amily, in

In the ormerly c