are taken as fast as inspected at former prices, which we continue to quote, viz: Inferior and common Ohio $3.75; good common middling $4 a $5; good $5 a $6.50; fine red $6 a $8; fine wrappery $10 a 15; and yellow $10 a 16. We note a sale of 20 hhds. Kentucky at $7.75 a $9.50. The latest accounts state that the crop of Kentucky Tobacco will fall short of the quantity previously anticipated. The inspections of the week are 810 hhds. Maryland: 140 hhds. Ohio; 23 hhds. Kentucky; and 10 hhds. Virginia—total 983 hhds.

Review of the Tobacco and Grain Markets.

Prepared for the American Farmer by J. W. & E. Reynolds.

The new crop of Tobacco has commenced coming in, and it has found ready sale, the market being bare of the old. Buyers have come forward and purchased freely—taking it as fast as it was inspected. We quote common dark crop and second at $4a4.50; middling to good crop $5a6; fine $6a7. The finer qualities do not sell as freely as the common.

Wheat, red, $1a1.05; white $1.05a1.10.—Corn, white 45a53c; yellow 55a57c. Oats 34a36 cents.

Guano.—There is no Peruvian in this market, and the demand is very considerable; farmers have consequently turned their attention to other kinds, and the various fertilizers offered by manufacturers. We believe there has been but a single arrival of Peruvian during the past month. We quote African, $35—No 2 Patagonian, $33a35—No. 3, $28a30—Mexican, $30; all per ton of 2000 lbs.

A Cloud of Witnesses.

We have certificates from Hon. Henry Clay and R. M. Johnson—one from Captain Cannot, brother to the eminent Physician to the President of the French Republic, who was cured of a Rheumatism of 7 years standing—also, one from Robert Gault, Rheumatism of 7 years. Mr. Oldham, Baltimore Custom House, dreadful case of Dyspepsia, and from hundreds of others. All must admit there never has been such a mass of testimony in favor of any other medicine, which is so pleasant and taken in such small quantities.

GREATER WEIGHT OF TESTIMONY CANNOT BE GIVEN.

Were there ever so many cures—wonderful cures made by any other medicine? All we ask of the afflicted is, that they try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, the purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

Pamphlets, with a history of the medicine, with certificates of many wonderful cures, may be had at the stores having the Tincture for sale, gratis.

You owe it to yourself to call and get a pamphlet, it may be the means of curing you. See certificates in to day's paper. JOHN T. W. DEAN and GEO. W. WILSON are the agents for Upper Marlboro'. WILLIAM H. EARLY, for Brandywine.

THE PRIZE WRITERS.

THE subscribers to the Baltimore Weekly Sun may indulge the anticipation of a literary treat, rarely afforded in the columns of a newspaper. Amongst the stories submitted in competition for the prizes offered by the proprietors of that journal, six are already brought before the public by title, with the names of the several writers to whom the awards of the committee have been made. In this connection we feel at liberty to remark that, excellence of style, entertaining subjects, unexceptionable incident, and salutary morals have been scrupulously considered; while mawkish sentiment, slip-shod romance, and the mere namby pambyism of "literary" effort are as scrupulously excluded. We take this occasion to name briefly the prize stories and their authors. The series will be introduced to the reader on Saturday, April 2d., with the story of

"THE GOLDEN THREAD,"

BY CAROLINE CHESEBRO', of Canandaigua, New York, to whom was awarded the first price of $150. This gifted lady is the author of "Dream Land by Daylight;" "Isa, a Pilgrimage;" "The Children of Light," &c. In "The Golden Thread," the author has produced a work of genius which will secure an added host of admirers. It will be followed by

"THE GOLD CRUSHERS,"

BY P. HAMILTON MYERS, ESQ.,

of New York; author of "Bell Brandon," "The Emigrant Squire," &c., to whom was awarded the second prize of $100.

This story will afford an ample fund of entertainment to the reader; the characters are drawn with a vigorous hand, and the portraitures well sustained. Next in order will be of Lexington, Rockbridge county, Va., author of "The Ashburnes," a prize tale, who obtained the award of $60, being the third prize of the series.

"THE STEPMOTHER,"

BY MARGARET JUNKIN,

The "Stepmother" is a charming domestic story, and will leave a most agreeable impression upon the mind of the reader. Next in succession

"PAUL,"

BY EDITH MAY.

of Philadelphia, will appear, for which the fourth prize of $40 was awarded by the committee. Paul is a work of fiction which evinces a remarkable perception of human character, and the deep passions of the heart. After this, will be published

"THE HEIRESS,"

BY JANE T. BOND,

of Marblehead, Massachusetts, to whom a prize of $25 was awarded, being the fifth of the series. The character of the heiress is beautifully drawn, and admirably sustained.—The sixth and last of the series is entitled

"META VON SICKLE,"

BY MIRIAM CHURCHILL,

of Boston, Massachusetts, who also won a prize of $25, under the award of the committee.—This is "a tale of Gowanus," on Long Island, and embraces some of the revolutionary incidents of the time in which it is laid. The foregoing are all excellent stories; and will furnish a fund of entertainment for some time to come.

SEALED PROPOSALS and bids will be received by the undersigned until the

FOURTH WEDNESDAY IN APRIL next,

at the hour of 12 o'clock, M., for the thorough and complete repair of the Circuit Court House, and the erection of a Fire-proof Record Office contiguous thereto. Persons disposed to make proposals or bids for the work to be done, can apply by letter (post paid) to either of the undersigned, who will furnish specifications of the same.

The proposals to be opened on the fourth Monday in April next; and the undersigned are fully authorised to make a contract for the work with the lowest responsible bidder, who is to give ample bond and security for the faithful performance of the same. The work, when approved of by the undersigned, to be paid for according to the stipulations of the contract to be entered into. It is, perhaps, proper to state that the work will be paid for in two equal instalments, to be levied respectively by the County Commissioners in June, 1853, and June, 1854.

Mr. ARCHER'S

[Graduate of West Point Academy]

ACADEMY FOR YOUNG LADIES,

No. 40 Lexington Street, near Charles,

BALTIMORE.

THIS Institution has been in successful operation for more than ten years. As a BOARDING SCHOOL, it has been eminently prosperous, and has been patronised very extensively by the Southern States. We subjoin the names of many of its patrons, whose extensive influence and acquaintance in the country would make it proper and convenient to refer to by those desiring any information in reference to the School:

Gen. Thos. F. Bowie, Upper Marlboro'*	Com. Geisinger, U. S. N.
Hornio C. Scott, Esq., Upper Marlboro'*	Dr. H. W. Tabb, Virginia.
Dr. Benjamin Lee, Prince George's Co., Md.	Gen. George Rust,* "
Hon. Thomas G. Pratt, U. S. Senate.*	B. T. Towner, Esq.* "
Dr. James Harper, Washington, D. C.	Rev. Dr. Hanmer,* Balt.
Col. John H. Sothoron, St. Mary's Co. Md.*	Rev. Dr. Atkinson, "
Hon. William L. Sharkey, Mississippi.	John M. Harrison,* Virginia.
	Col. B. L. C. Wailes,* Mississippi.
	John A. Anderson,* North Carolina.
	John W. Southall, N. C.
	Col. D. S. Miles, U. S. A.

Those marked with a star (*) have their daughters in the Institution at this time.

As a DAY SCHOOL, it has numbered on its catalogue an average of EIGHTY YOUNG LADIES FOR TEN YEARS. The connexion with our city, in consequence, runs through a great number of families; and, without adding names, we will observe that many of its graduates are now the ornaments of our most refined society.

Catalogues containing all desirable information respecting the Institution, may be obtained at the school.

To those from a distance desiring to remain the summer months, Mr. ARCHER can offer the advantages of a country retreat in the most healthful and beautiful part of Harford County, Maryland. His farm, "Maiden's Bower," containing 200 acres, situate on the healthy hills of Deer Creek, has been fitted up expressly for this purpose. Every facility for exercise and amusement will be afforded the young ladies which might be enjoyed at the most desirable watering places, witout any of their objectionable features.

☞ Since the decease of Mrs. Archer, Mr. Archer has associated with him Mrs. Archer's sister, Mrs. VAN BIBBER, and the school will continue as heretofore.
