MARRIED,

In Washington, on the 26th ult., by the Rev. Mr. Blackwell, THOMAS A. CROSS and ARABELLA DUVALL, daughter of Dennis Duvall, Esq., all of this county.

DIED,

On the 22d of April, at her residence in Piscataway District, Mrs. MARY HATTON, wife of Henry D. Hatton, Esq., in the 34th year of her age.

It was soon evident, from the appalling form in which the disease attacked the citadel of life, that Death had marked her for his victim. Her sufferings, although intense and protracted, were endured with great tranquility, and not one word of complaint was ever heard to escape her lips.

In the relations of wife, mother, friend and mistress, her duties were discharged with fidelity. And could that fatal shaft have been averted by the unremitting attentions of her friends, she would still have been spared to them.

This bereavement is irreparable to her two daughters, who have just arrived at that period of life to require the fostering care of a devoted mother in the formation of their characters.

How impressive is the scene of consigning the mortal remains of a loved one to the dreamless slumbers of the tomb! After the last sad rites are performed over the remains—some return to their homes to weep in agony over the loss of one endeared to their hearts by a thousand ties—others to contemplate the brevity of life and the solemnities of death. But unlike the darkness which succeeds the fading of the evening sun sinking beneath the horizon, Death is only the beginning of a spiritual illumination to the Christian.

It now only remains for us to say farewell—but not forever. Thou art not lost, but gone before. We know that our Redeemer liveth, and that he will claim thee for his own in a world where adieus are sounds unknown. We trust that the morning of the resurrection will hail thee an inhabitant of a brighter sphere.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

GRAIN—Wheat.—This article continues in very short supply, and notwithstanding the high prices paid the receipts are much short of the wants of the market. The opinion seems to be, that the crop of last year, which comes by water, is pretty well exhausted. The sales of fair to best reds have ruled throughout the week at 110a114 cents, and we quote these rates to-day, with sales. Prime family flour white wheats have sold as high as 127 cts., including a parcel to-day. Penna. reds are worth 112a114 cts. Sales of 4000 bushels Penna. white at 123 cts.; and to-day a parcel of 2000 bushels Pa. white, to arrive, was taken at 122 cts.

Corn.—On Monday the sales of Md. white were at 52a54 cts., and of yellow at 57a59 cts. On Wednesday sales of whites at 52a65 cts., and of yellow at 58a59 cts. To-day we quote white at 53a54 cents for best parcels—most of the receipts being not in good condition and selling at 50 cents. Yellow is worth to-day 58a59 cts.

Rye.—Is scarce and wanted—a sale of Penna. at 92 cents.

Oats.—Sales of good Md. at 38 cts., and of Penna. at 44 cts.

TOBACCO.—The receipts of Maryland Tobacco this week are fair for the season, and the demand being active, shippers take nearly all that is offered. The competition arising out of the brisk demand has enabled sellers to realise an advance and prices are now considered about 55 cents higher, particularly for common and inferior grades, ranging from $4 for inferior to $5.50 for common. We quote inferior to good common $4a5; fair to middling $5.25a6; second $4.75a6.50; and good to fine brown $6.50a7.50. The advance in Maryland Tobacco is no doubt owing, in a great measure, to the fact that since the planters have begun to pack their crops for market, the yield is much less than had been previously calculated on, and it is believed the crop, which was supposed to exceed the last by about 5000 hhds., will now fall short of it.

Mr. ARCHER'S
[Graduate of West Point Academy]
ACADEMY FOR YOUNG LADIES,
No. 40 Lexington Street, near Charles,
BALTIMORE.

THIS Institution has been in successful operation for more than ten years. As a BOARDING SCHOOL, it has been eminently prosperous, and has been patronised very extensively by the Southern States. We subjoin the names of many of its patrons, whose extensive influence and acquaintance in the country would make it proper and convenient to refer to by those desiring any information in reference to the School:

Gen. Thos. F. Bowie, Upper Marlboro'*	Com. Geisinger, U. S. N.
Horatio C. Scott, Esq., Upper Marlboro'*	Dr. H. W. Tabb, Virginia.
Dr. Benjamin Lee, Prince George's Co., Md.	Gen. George Rust,* "
Hon. Thomas G. Pratt, U. S. Senate.*	B. T. Towner, Esq.* "
Dr. James Harper, Washington, D. C.	Rev. Dr. Hamner,* Balt.
Col. John H. Sothoron, St. Mary's Co. Md.*	Rev. Dr. Atkinson, "
Hon. William L. Sharkey, Mississippi.	John M'Harrison,* Virginia.
	Col. B. L. C. Wailes,* Mississippi.
	John A. Anderson,* North Carolina.
	John W. Southall, N. C.
	Col. D. S. Miles, U. S. A.

Those marked with a star (*) have their daughters in the Institution at this time.

As a DAY SCHOOL, it has numbered on its catalogue an average of EIGHTY YOUNG LADIES FOR TEN YEARS. The connexion with our city, in consequence, runs through a great number of families; and, without adding names, we will observe that many of its graduates are now the ornaments of our most refined society.

Catalogues containing all desirable information respecting the Institution, may be obtained at the school.

To those from a distance desiring to remain the summer months, Mr. ARCHER can offer the advantages of a country retreat in the most healthful and beautiful part of Harford County, Maryland. His farm, "Maiden's Bower," containing 200 acres, situate on the healthy hills of Deer Creek, has been fitted up expressly for this purpose. Every facility for exercise and amusement will be afforded the young ladies which might be enjoyed at the most desirable watering places, witout any of their objectionable features.

☞ Since the decease of Mrs. Archer, Mr. Archer has associated with him Mrs. Archer's sister, Mrs. VAN BIBBER, and the school will continue as heretofore.
