BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

JOSEPH KENT, Gov. of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, authentic information hath been received by the Executive of this state, that a most cruel and unprovoked murder was committed on the nineteenth day of August last, in Calvert county, on the body of Joseph R. Fowler, by BENJAMIN BUCKMASTER, both of the said county, and that the said Buckmaster hath fled from justice. And whereas, it is of the first importance to society that perpetrators of such heinous offences should be brought to condign punishment. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by, and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of

200 DOLLARS,

To any person or persons, who shall apprehend the said Benjamin Buckmaster, and lodge him in any jail, so that he may be brought to justice.

[L. S.] Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, this twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and of the independence of the United States, the 51st.

JOSEPH KENT.

By the Governor,
THOMAS CULBRETH,
Clerk of the Council.

MR. JEFFERSON'S

NOTES ON VIRGINIA.

JOHN S. GALLAHER proposes to publish a new edition of this work. The design has been for some time entertained, and Mr. J.'s death rendering it probable that almost every family not already supplied with it (at least in Virginia) will be desirous to obtain and preserve the book as a memorial of the author, and as a proud vindication of our country against foreign slanderers, the proposer is induced now to offer it. If, however, any of Mr. Jefferson's family should claim a property in it, he will cheerfully relinquish the design, and lend his humble aid towards its patronage.

There will be added to the work by way of appendix, several of Mr. Jefferson's letters, and, if properly patronized, it will be embellished with a fine portrait of that great man.

It will contain between 300 and 400 pages, 12mo. neatly bound in leather, & be delivered to subscribers at $1 25 per copy.

Harper's Ferry, July 19, 1826.

☞Subscriptions received at this office.

Register of Debates.

IN the press, and will be published before the next meeting of Congress,

Gales and Seaton's

REGISTER OF DEBATES IN CONGRESS.

VOL. II.

This volume will contain—

1. A full report of the principal Debates and Incidents of the Session of Congress which has just closed, chronologically arranged.

2. An Appendix, containing a complete List of the Members of the two Houses, with the Presidents Message to Congress, and other leading State Papers.

3. A complete copy of the whole body of the laws passed during the session.

4 A copious Index to all the matters contained in the volume.

The volume for this year will contain double the matter of the volume of last year, but will be offered to subscribers at the low price of five dollars. The number of extra large brevier pages which it will contain, is expected to exceed a thousand.

We shall not undertake to magnify the importance of a work of this description. We are more than content with the verdict which public opinion has passed upon the first volume. We will only add, that the second volume shall exceed the first, in typographical execution as well as arrangement, an entirely new type having been procured expressly for it. GALES & SEATON.
