MRS. LOFTY AND I.

Mrs. Lofty keeps a carriage,
So do I;
She has dapple greys to draw it,
None have I;
With my blue-eyed laughing baby,
Trundling by,
I hide his face, lest she should see
The cherub boy and envy me.

Her fine husband has white fingers,
Mine has not;
He could give his bride a palace,—
Mine, a cot;
Hers comes home beneath the starlight,—
Ne'er cares she;
Mine comes in the purple twilight,
Kisses me,
And prays that He who turns life's sands
Will hold his loved ones in His hands.

Mrs. Lofty has her jewels,
So have I;
She wears hers upon her bosom,
Inside I;
She will leave hers at Death's portal,
Bye and bye;
I shall bear my treasure with me
When I die,
For I have love and she has gold—
She counts her wealth—mine can't be told.

She has those who love her—station,
None have I;
But I've one true heart beside me,—
Glad am I;
I'd not change it for a Kingdom,
No, not I;
God will weigh it in His balance,
Bye and bye;
And the difference define
Twixt Mrs. Lofty's wealth and mine.

Stick to Your Business.

There is nothing which should be more frequently impressed upon the minds of young men than the importance of steadily pursuing some one business. The frequent changing from one employment to another is one of the most common errors committed, and to it may be traced more than half the failures of men in business, and much of the discontent and disappointments that render life uncomfortable. It is a very common thing for a man to become dissatisfied with his business, and to desire to change it for some other, and what seems to him will prove a more lucrative employment; but in nine cases out of ten it is a mistake. Look around you, and you will find abundant verification of our assertion.

Here is a young man who commenced life as a mechanic, but for some cause imagined that he ought to have been a doctor; and after a hasty, shallow preparation has taken up the saddle bags only to find that work is still work, and that his patients are no more profitable than his workbench, and the occupation not a bit more agreeable.

Here are two young clerks; one of them is content, when his first term of service is over, to continue a clerk until he has money enough to commence business on his own account; the other can't wait, but starts off without capital and with a limited experience, and brings up after a few years in a court of insolvency, while his former comrade, by patient perseverance, comes out at last with a fortune.

That young lawyer who becomes disheartened because briefs and cases did not crowd upon him while he was yet redolent of calf-bound volumes, and had small use for red tape, who concluded that he had mistaken his calling, and so plunged into politics, finally settled down into the character of a meddling pettifogger, scrambling for his daily bread.

There is an honest farmer who has toiled a few years, got his farm paid for, but does not grow rich very rapidly, as much for lack of contentment mingled with his industry as anything, though he is not aware of it—he hears the wonderful stories of California, and how fortunes may be had for the trouble of picking them up, mortgages his farm to raise money, goes to the land of gold, and, after months of hard toil, comes home to begin again at the bottom of the hill for a more weary and less successful climbing up again.

Mark the men in every community who are notorious for ability and equally notorious for never getting ahead, and you will unusually find them to be those who never stick to one business long, but always forsake their occupation just when it begins to be profitable.

Young man, stick to your business. It may be that you have mistaken your calling—if so, find it out as quickly as possible and change it; but don't let any uneasy desires to get along fast, or a dishonest calling, lead you to abandon it. Have some honest occupation, and then stick to it; if you are sticking type, stick away at them; if you are selling oysters, keep on selling them; if you are at the law, hold fast to that profession—pursue the business you have chosen, persistently, industriously and hopefully; if there is anything in you, it will appear and turn to account in that as well, or better, than in any calling—only if you are a loafer, forsake that line of life as speedily as possible, for the longer you stick to it the worse it will stick to you.—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

GOLD! GOLD!! GOLD!!!

THE greatest offer in gold pens, gold pencils, gold chains, and gold watches, ever made. Read the following:

A SPENDID GOLD PREMIUM, worth from five to one hundred dollars, positively given to any person who can spare one day in a week, or one hour in a day, getting up clubs of subscribers in his own and adjoining neighborhoods, for the best and most popular Family Newspaper now published. No expense, no outlay, no capital required of agents. An entire new plan is proposed, by which any person can succeed in making it a paying business, who will undertake the agency. A private circular, for the inspection of agents only, with full list of premiums, will be sent to any one who desires it, on receipt of a stamp to pay return postage. Some agents have earned a hundred dollar gold watch in one week.

Every family should read at least one Newspaper from New York City, without interfering with their Local Papers, which of course cannot, and should not, be dispensed with. But New York being the great commercial and business centre of this Continent, no farmer, mechanic, professional man, or merchant, is properly prepared for the emergencies of his calling, unless he is in communication with New York City, by means of one of its first class Newspaper mediums. Such a medium is our "LEDGER," neutral in politics, but giving all the facts, items of news, and thrilling incidents worth knowing throughout the country.

A VALUABLE GIFT.

Each new subscriber will receive with the first No. of his or her paper one of the new and beautiful glass pointed indelible Pencils,* just imported from Europe, and for which we have obtained the exclusive agency for this Country. This is the most ingenious and useful little improvement of the present age, and is the only pencil ever made that will write with ink, making it both a pen and pencil of the finest quality at the same time. It will last for years, and for practical use is worth more than any gold pen in the market.

For list of premiums and full particulars, address HALL & WEST, Publishers,

The public will do well to give him a call, as he has just returned from Baltimore with a good stock of Leather, which he has taken great pains in selecting.

He will spare no pains to please all who may entrust him with their work. He intends to manufacture coarse work, suitable for servants, and would advise those who want good and substantial work for their servants to bring in their measures, so that he can have them made in time. JOSIAH HOPKINS,

HELMBOLD'S Genuine Preparation

OF HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Buchu,

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weaknesses, Obstructions, Secret Diseases, Female Complaints, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs,

ARISING from Excesses and Imprudencies in life, and removing all Improper Discharges from the Bladder, Kidneys or Sexual Organs, whether existing in

MALE OR FEMALE,

from whatever cause they may have originated, AND NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING, giving health and vigor to the frame, and bloom to the pallid cheek.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!

It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power and Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite, with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently black spots flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such Patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one word to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Futuity and Epileptic Fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled."

Debility is most terrible! and has brought thousands upon thousands to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths. It can be cured by the use of this

INFALLIBLE REMEDY.

LIME!

To the Editor of the Annapolis (Md.) Gazette:

We deem it due to Mr. Coulter, of your place, to invite attention to the very superior article of LIME now furnished by him. In doing so we feel that we are rendering a service to the Farmers, and especially to those of Anne Arundel county. We say without hesitation that, in our opinion, Mr. Coulter furnishes an article greatly superior to anything of the kind we have ever used or seen. The Lime furnished by him is burnt with the best spruce pine and light wood, the ashes of which every Farmer knows the value of, in improving land. These mix with the Lime and add greatly to its fertilizing properties. Whereas the Lime obtained from Baltimore and elsewhere is burnt with the filthy coal offal, procured from yards, and of course inferior in quality and of much less value as a fertilizer than that furnished by Mr. Coulter.

Mr. Coulter must certainly possess some secret in manufacturing his Lime, for we have never seen any Lime where all the shells were so thoroughly burnt. He burns ten thousand bushels in ten days, and every shell is converted into Lime of the finest quality and as white as the driven snow.

Dr. James Higgins, State Agricultural Chemist, in company with Col. Walton, visited Mr. Coulter's place of business a short time since, and pronounced his Lime the most beautiful article of the kind he had ever seen.

Mr. Coulter furnishes his Lime at Baltimore prices; and the Farmers of Anne Arundel co. and others would do well to give him a call, if they wish to procure an article of superior quality. FARMER.

ANTIPHLOGISTIC SALT;

A PERFECT SUBSTITUE

FOR THE

Lancet, Leeches and Blisters!

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremeties or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

PRIME COST, $1.50 PER DRACHM—PRICE $2 PER DRACHM.

Four months ago this mysterious medicine was submitted to the tribunal of an intelligent public. In that short period nearly five hundred editors and publishers (in the United States, Canadas, British Provinces and England) have personally tested or witnessed its efficacy in Inflammatory Diseases, and have pronounced it the most valuable medical discovery of this or any preceding age. This enlightened jury of five hundred reliable men, by their unbiased verdict, have given the Antiphlogistic Salt an established character, as will be seen by the following brief extracts:

[From the Boston Traveller.]

"We think the following testimonials from publishers, who received the Salt in payment for advertising, entitled to higher consideration and more confidence, than the certificates ordinarily attached to advertising medicines:"

Lynn (Mass.) Reporter: "The new medicine, the Antiphlogistic Salt, is rapidly working its way to popular favor in this city—having cured Rheumatism, Pleurisy, Rush of Blood to the Head, Croup and Bronchitis."

Lawrence (Mass.) Sentinel: "It is a sure remedy for Inflammatory Complaints."

Huntington (Pa.) Journal: "It stands unrivalled in Inflammatory Diseases."

Norway (Me.) Advertiser: "All who have used the Salt have derived the most beneficial effects from it."

Piketown (O.) Journal, edited by Mrs. E. S. Dexter: "We can say from experience, it is an excellent remedy for Headache, Neuralgia, Ague and Palpitation of the Heart—indeed, we are sure it will do all it professes, and we say God speed the new medicine."

Jeffersonville (Ind.) Democrat: "It has cured several cases of Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Erysipelas and Canker."

Lewiston (Me.) Advocate: "Our journeyman was cured of severe Neuralgia in one week."

Philadelphia (Pa.) Herald: "It is growing very popular here."

Libertytown (Md.) Banner: "It has cured Humors and Inflammatory Cutaneous Diseases."

Waynesville (O.) Visitor: "We know it subdues Fevers, Headache, Toothache and local pains—working silently but effectually."

Another editor, by letter to Dr. C., says: "I know of several who are using it with great benefit, but unknown to their family physicians, whom they do not wish to offend!"

Another: "I have been a dyspeptic for 3 years—have taken the Salt four weeks, and am entirely cured."

Another: "A son of mine, subject to Fits from boyhood, used the Salt one month, and is well."

Marysville Tennessean: "It is a valuable substitute for Venesection and Blisters."

Boonsville (O.) Observer: "In Fevers and Inflammatory Rheumatism it is invaluable."

Pass-Christian (Miss.) Times: "The editor cured of Rush of Blood to the Head."

Western (Ky.) Chronicle: "Every man should have it in his family."

Maine Down-Easter: "Dr. Coggswell's Salt has wrought great cures."

Indiana American Eagle: "It has been used successfully in Nervous Headache."

Another editor, by letter: "One of our compositors has taken it for Pleurisy and Heartburn, and is loud in its praise."

Another: "It is very popular with the ladies in Nervous and Female Complaints."

Another: "It is the best remedy for Fever and Ague ever used in the West."

Another: "My wife has long been afflicted with Inflammation of the Lungs and a hard Cough; she has used the Salt less than one month, and her complaints are wholly removed."

Another: "One of our physicians turns up his nose at it, in the face of a Neuralgic cure in my family, which he witnessed. He says faith wrought the cure. I told him, faith or no faith, the Salt has done what he could not do."

Another: "A child of mine dangerously sick with Scarlet Fever, was quickly cured with the Salt."

Lewis County (N. Y.) Banner: "We know it is all it professes to be."

Newark (O.) Times: "It is an excellent remedy for Neuralgia, Headache, Inflamed Eyes and Catarrah. It is indeed a great discovery; and we say, 'Tremble, ye disciples of Esculapius.'"

Another, by letter: "My wife has been cured of Inflammation of the Womb and distressing Piles."

Another: "Our town clerk has had the Spine Complaint for 6 years; has used only one box and is well; and a member of his family was cured of Inflammation of the Kidneys from the same box."

Another: "An aged Scotchman, a compositor in our office, was cured of the Venereal of 14 years' standing, with one box and a half."

Another: "A case of Chronic Rheumatism cured in three weeks."

Palmyra (N. Y.) Sentinel: "It has cured the most virulent form of Salt Rheum."

Jefferson County (N. Y.) Union: "Every family should have it at hand for immediate use."

Cass County (Mich.) Tribune: "It is attended here with great success."

Boston Transcript: "We concur in the views of the Traveller that these editorial verdicts, under the circumstances, are entitled to more than usual considerations."

While many nostrum-makers victimize the good-natured and pill-ridden public by ordering "from six to a dozen boxes or bottles to cure any malady," the discoverer is happy in being able to state, that the most severe forms of recent inflammatory disease are overcome by one Acute package, and the most obstinate and long-standing cases by one Chronic package. It does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. NO AGENTS.

To protect the community from imposition by counterfeits, the proprietor will employ NO AGENT, and has made such arrangements that he can send the Antiphlogistic Salt in any quantity, by MAIL or EXPRESS, to any part of the United States or foreign countries without expense to the purchaser. It is put up in drachm packages for acute disease at $2; chronic packages $5, and family do. $8. It is accompanied with a history of its discovery and full directions for use.

N. B. He repeats—no person in the United States or elsewhere has been appointed agent by him for the sale of his Salt; and those who are announced as agents are only selling the few $2 packages received by publishers in payment for advertising. So that hereafter, till public notice is given, the Antiphlogistic Salt can only be had by MAIL, (free of expense) through Box 322, Post Office, Boston, Mass., or at his office, 25 Winter street.

All letters with money should be registered at the Post Office where mailed, as it costs but five cents, and will insure their safe arrival. In one day (besides office sales) 317 letters were received—mostly for Chronic Packages. F. COGGSWELL, M. D.,

The Medicine of the Million.
PHILOSOPHY AND FACT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS.

The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnishes the component of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and integument. The stomach is its manufactory, the veins its distributors, and the intestines the channel through which the waste matter rejected in its productions is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, these Pills act simultaneously, relieving indigestion, purifying the fluids, and regulating the excretions.

THE NATIONAL COMPLAINT.

Dyspepsia is the most common disease among all classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of innumerable dangerous maladies, but whatever its type or symptoms, however obstinate its resistance to ordinary preparations, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unerring remedy.

BILIOUS AFFECTIONS.

The quantity and quality of the bile are of vital importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes this fluid, these Pills operate specifically, infallibly rectifying its irregularities, and effectually curing Jaundice, Bilious Remittants, and all the varieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of the organ.

BOWEL COMPLAINTS.

Unless the bowels perform their functions properly, the whole body suffers. Tens of thousands die annually of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Chronic Constipation, and other diseases of these waste pipes of the system. The effect of the Pills upon all intestinal disorders, whether casual or epidemic, is a phenomenon in medicine. By following the printed directions, the most alarming cases of bowel complaint are promptly controlled.

A WORD TO FEMALES.

The local debility and irregularities which are the especial annoyances of the weaker sex, and which, when neglected, always shorten life, are relieved for the time being, and prevented for the time to come, by a course of this mild but thorough alterative.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Debility, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Headaches, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Piles, Stone and Gravel, Secondary Symptons, Veneral Affections and Worms of all kinds.

MEDICAL NOTICE.

DR. SMITH would respectfully inform his friends and the public that he continues to be confidentially consulted at his old established MEDICAL HOUSE, No. 11 South Frederick street, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

His long experience and attention to this class of complaints; his safe and speedy method of treatment, and his extraordinary success during a long and extensive practice, enables him, confidently, to promise all persons so afflicted, a safe and radical cure, without injury to the constitution or confinement from business. By a long course of study and practice experience, Dr. S. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed, "since he first introduced them," to cure the most alarming case, and that in a very short but reasonable time, without the aid of mercury or any other deleterious drug. Within the last ten years Dr. S. has cured more than thirty thousand cases, of the above character and it may be safely said that more than one-half of the patients had been previously treated with mercury and other mineral poisons by some foreign or native pretender to the healing art.

Dr. Smith does not profess to be a Parisian, or a graduate of any London or Parisian hospital. He believes the United States can produce physicians as capable of curing disease, "no matter how difficult," as any foreigner who has been compelled to leave his own country because his boasted skill and wonderful discoveries in medicine have failed to afford him a living at home. Let the unfortunate bear in mind, when affliction overtakes him, that no time should be lost in making application to a competent physician, as they would not only obtain relief from pain, avoid mortification through exposure, and elude great constitutional injury, but enable their medical assistant to be more moderate in his charges than he could justly be where symptoms have become confirmed or the disease more widely diffused. The rapid advances of this truly terrifying disease, is sufficient to alarm the boldest heart. When ulceration and discolored blotches, with racking pains, betray to the unhappy victim the deadly poison preying upon his vitals, then, "and not till then," do many awake to a full sense of their danger.

YOUNG MEN

And others afflicted with seminal debility, "whether original from a certain destructive habit," or from any other cause, with the train of bodily and mental evils which follow, when neglected, should make an early application, with the full assurance that they can be speedily restored to sound health and firm vigor.—This is one of the greatest evils that can befall man, and has doomed thousands of the human race to untimely graves; blasted the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighted, in the bud, the noble ambition of many an aspiring youth. Dyspepsia, weakness of the back, eyes, and limbs, palpitation of the heart, dizziness, forgetfulness, &c. &c., are symptoms of this disease.

IMPOTENCE—IMPUISSANCE.

One of the most frequent penalties paid by those who give unrestrained license to their passions is a loss of virile power. The young, unaware of the fearful results that may ensue, are but too apt to commit excesses. Impotency may, and does occur from stricture, gravel, deposites in the urine, and from many other causes; but by far the most frequent source of it is an abuse of the sexuel organs, by excessive venery or self-pollution—particularly the last. Too great excitement of the genital organs is, however, productive of other effects, besides premature impotency; it tends to derange the digestive functions, and weaken the physical and mental powers. Thus parents and others are often deceived as to the true source of the
