1860.

"It is the duty of every citizen of this Great Republic to foster and encourage native genius and American enterprise."—Don'l Webster.

The "Great Republic" Monthly:

A MAGAZINE devoted entirely to the elevation of American authorship, wholly national, in no wise sectional or sectarian; having for its motto the words of the great statesman: "No North, no South, no East, no West;" having nothing to do with politics, aiming only at the highest in Art, Literature and Science, and employing the best writers in every branch, is again before the American public, seeking their support.

This Magazine is now finishing the first year and drawing near the close of the Second Volume, and has met with unparalled success.—The Third Volume will commence with the number for January, 1860, which will be issued in December, 1859. Every number will be splendidly illustrated in the highest style of art. Among the numerous contributors engaged for the coming year are the following well-known distinguished authors:

Fitz Green Halleck,	Seba Smith,
Orestes A Brownson,	(Jack Downing)
Geo. P. Morris,	J. T. Headley,
Wm. Gillmore Simms,	Geo. D. Prentice,
Park Benjamin,	Alice Carey,
John G. Saxe,	Mrs. Kirkland,
Hannah F. Gould,	Mrs. Oakes Smith,
Calhoun McKenzie,	Phebe Carey,
M. F. Maury,	Mrs. Ellet, &c., &c.

In the January number will be commenced the most strikingly original novel of the day, entitled

The Prophet; or Scenes of Border Life.

BY ELIZABETH OAKES SMITH.

There will also be commenced in an early number of the volume a most startling and intensely interesting original novel, entitled

THE SLAVER OF THE COAST; OR, THE AFRICAN TRADER.

BY CALHOUN MCKENZIE.

The "Great Republic" Monthly is the largest Magazine published in this country. Over $40,000 has been already expended to bring it to its present high degree of merit. The publishers are determined to give it the largest circulation in the world. With this view they make the following magnificent offers. And they refer to every subscriber now on their books as to the fidelity with which they fulfill their obligations.

TERMS:

Single copies,	$0 25
Subscription, per year,	3 00
Clubs, of three or more, each	2 00

Any one sending a club of FIVE subscribers, with the money, shall receive, by mail, his choice of either of the following magnificent Steel Engravings, viz:

THE LAST SUPPER. Size of plate. 25 by 40 inches. Value, $5.
THE CITY OF THE GREAT KING. Size of plate, 25 by 39 inches. Value, $5.
THE PALACE OF WESTMINSTER. Size of plate, 25 by 39 inches. Value, $5.
SIR WALTER SCOTT'S MONUMENT Size of plate, 25 by 34 inches. Value, $4.
"WE PRAISE THEE, OH LORD."—Size of plate, 21 by 25 inches. Value, $3.
ROBERT BURNS. Size of plate, 21 by 25 inches. Value, $3.

Any one sending a club of TEN subscribers shall receive his choice of any TWO of the above engravings. Any one sending a club of FIFTEEN subscribers shall receive his choice of any FOUR of the above engravings. Any one sending a club of TWENTY subscribers shall receive ALL of the above engravings, and a copy of the Magazine for one year, gratis.

This splendid offer will enable every one, by a very trifling exertion, in getting subscribers, to obtain as fine a collection of rare works of art to adorn his parlor, as can be obtained anywhere for Twenty-five Dollars, cash.

Young gentlemen and young ladies, all over the country, are invited to get up clubs upon above terms.

Postmasters, and other respectable persons who may desire to act as Agents, and receive a cash commission instead of the above liberal offer, are authorized to forward us subscribers at the prices before named, deducting twenty per cent. for their trouble. The engravings will be sent in rotation, in the order in which the clubs are sent in.

First Come First Served.

In addition to the above unparalleled offer we now announce that where parties do not form clubs and where their names are not sent in clubs, that single subscribers sending the amount set opposite to each of the above Engravings, shall receive by mail the Engraving chosen and one copy of the Magazine for one year.

Some of these engravings are of three times the value of those offered by the old Art Union, and all of them are better and of more intrinsic worth than any engravings ever offered by any "Gift Enterprise" or "Art Association."

"The Last Supper" and "The City of the Great King" should adorn the walls of every clergyman and scholar in the country.

No such offers as these were ever made before—there is no "chance" in the matter, no "lottery," no gift enterprise, no humbug. We call upon clergymen, postmasters, travelers, scholars, and all who are interested in the success of American Literature and Art, to avail themselves of these generously liberal offers. In addition to all of the above, any one sending $1 50 extra, shall receive the twelve back numbers of the magazine from January, 1859, forming a perfect set of The "Great Republic" Monthly from its commencement.

All subscriptions invariably in advance, and no deviation from above terms. No further instructions necessary to those forming clubs or to Agents. Give name and Post Office address in full. All sums over $3 should be sent by draft, if convenient. Money by mail, properly authenticated, at our risk. Postage stamps and current bills received at par.

The magazine is for sale by all news dealers in the United States and Canada.

Send in Your Clubs! Send in Your Clubs!!

Specimen copies sent upon the receipt of 25 cents. The engravings will be sent on rollers, prepaid, or by express.

To Farmers and Planters.

Per-Manipulated GUANO,

A COMBINATION OF

Best Peruvian and the Best Phosphatic Guano, made with the Best Machinery and by the most expert workmen.

ON MOST LANDS AND ON MOST CROPS SUPERIOR IN ITS EFFECTS TO EITHER PERUVIAN OR ANY OTHER GUANO.

By Dr. JAMES HIGGINS,

For the past ten years State Agricultural Chemist of Maryland.

THIS combination of Peruvian and the Phosphatic Guanos was first recommended by me more than six years ago, and very successfully used by many farmers in this State, though several in this city (Baltimore) have pretended to be its inventors. If this statement be denied, I have abundant proof of its correctness.

A long experience as a practical planter and farmer, with the analytical examination for more than ten years, of every kind of Manure sold in our market, (advantages possessed by none others in the trade,) will enable me always to furnish those, who may favor me with their orders, with the best, purest, and therefore the cheapest Manures.

Farmers, planters and others will be furnished with all the Guanos sold in our market. Also, with PLASTER OF PARIS, and PURE or MAGNESIAN LIME, according to the wants of the soil,—and too much care cannot be taken in adapting the proper lime to soils; for the want of this, thousands of dollars have been annually lost to our State. Also the following artificial manures:

Higgins' Super-Phosphate of Lime, prepared under his own direction; and

Higgins' Nitrated Saline Fertilizer,

an admirable Top-Dressing for Wheat, Oats or Grass, which has been very successfully used, and prevents, to a great extent, the wheat from being straw-fallen; where the wheat is pale, sickly or yellow, it at once changes it to a bright, healthy green, and rapidly increases its growth, and greatly promotes the yield.

All Manures sold in our markets are liable to differ naturally, though coming from the same place and bearing the same mark. Still more are they liable to adulterations, &c., and for these things our Inspection System has never afforded an adequate protection.

All Manures sold by me will have my name stamped on each bag or barrel, be carefully analyzed, and for their purity the buyer is pledged a legal guarantee and my personal honor.

The Manures sold by me will be at the same rate as those sold by others in the trade.

Persons wishing to obtain any of the Manures manufactured by me, or any others of my selections, should so specify in their orders to their agents in town.

TERMS CASH, or accepted city paper.

☞I will also attend to the BUYING OF REAL ESTATE, and everything connected with the Farming and Planting interest.

☞FOR SALE now, several very fine FARMS on the Baltimore and Washington Road, one of them with elegant improvements and every convenience, in the most beautiful and elegant location on it, and several large tracts in Virginia, with negroes, stock, &c., attached.

ANOTHER EDITION
OF THE Mastodon Newspaper!

ROBERTS' ILLUMINATED QUADRUPLE CONSTELLATION!

The largest sheet of paper ever made and printed, measuring 70x100 inches!—The greatest Typographical Achievement of the Age!

The subscriber announces that he has made such arrangements as will enable him to keep printing a constant supply of his mastodon paper, "The Illuminated Quadruple Constellation"—and all orders from any part of the country, for one or more copies, will be immediately filled on their receipt. All newspaper dealers will keep a supply on hand ready for purchasers. We have Electrotyped the immense eight pages, and therefore can print them as fast as required.

The Press, with one accord, have pronounced The Illuminated Quadruple Constellation the greatest newspaper achievement ever accomplished. Notwithstanding its immense size, it is superbly printed on the very best and strongest white paper ever made or used for a newspaper. It contains eight mammoth pages thirteen columns to a page—each page four feet in length! In its Imperial folds is embraced more matter than is contained in six different numbers of Harper's Monthly, or fifteen different numbers of the New York Ledger, or any other similar weekly! Four of its immense pages are largely occupied with splendid engravings, portraits of noted personages, &c., &c.

Among the prominent contents may be mentioned the re-publication complete, and without any abridgement whatever, of the celebrated MOON HOAX! as originally published in the New York Sun, in 1835—Two Splendid Novellettes, by J. H. Ingraham, author of "Pillar of Fire," "House of David," "Capt. Kyd," "Lafitte," &c.,—a splendid story by Edward Everett—and one by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr. But it is impossible in an advertisement to give a full detail of its immense contents. It is emphatically a Sheet for the Million—filled with every variety of useful and entertaining reading! In every sense it is the greatest wonder of the age!

Single copies 50 cents—Three copies $1.

☞Postmasters or others sending us $2 for six copies, shall receive one extra for their trouble. Postage on this paper in U. States and Canada 10 cents. By steamers to France, Germany, &c., from New York, 12 cents.

☞All newspaper agents can obtain their supplies from the wholesale dealers that supply them with their other papers, or of the subscriber. Address

A CARD.

I ADOPT this mode, as a means of reaching all my friends, to urge upon them the prompt settlement of their accounts. I have heavy engagements to meet this Spring, which is near at hand, and they have my funds. I therefore respectfully but earnestly say to them, I want my money—I need my money—I cannot carry on my business without my money. I have been and am still disposed to be indulgent, but the revulsion which has swept over the country has embarrassed me, and I must of necessity collect in my funds—"peaceably if I can, forcibly if I must."

I hope my friends will respond promptly and demonstrate that "a friend in need is a friend in deed." THOMAS W. ANDERSON.

☞CANVASSING AGENTS (PARTICULARLY FEMALES) wanted everywhere. Agents are allowed to retain 20 cents out of each 50 cent subscription they obtain, and some are now clearing as high as $25 a week profit for themselves. Postmasters and Teachers can act as agents, on the same terms.

☞Persons receiving specimen copies of the LITERARY GAZETTE are requested to act as agents, or to show it to those who will, and they shall be sent a copy of the paper one year gratis, as compensation for their trouble. This is an easy way to pay for a year's subscription, and the effort will put money in the pockets of those who need it, and extend our circulation. Instead of earning 50 to 75 cts. a day with her needle, or by teaching school, a smart woman can procure from 10 to 20 subscriptions every fair day in the week, and clear for herself $2 to $4, while she would have made only 75 cents at her old occupation.

☞All persons extending the circulation of the paper continually get a copy gratis.

☞Applicants for Agencies are requested to send us the names and post-office address of all the leading people they know of, who would be likely to subscribe, and a specimen copy for inspection, will be mailed to each of them free of postage. Agents find this plan very profitable to them, as they obtain subscriptions much easier.

THE FAMILY JOURNAL,
A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,
Devoted to Literature, News, Romance, Science and Art.

JOHN B. WILLIAMS, CHARLES H. MOORE, } Editors & Proprietors.

IT is a well-known fact that the South is now almost entirely dependent on the North for its hebdomadal literature. It is to be seen whether the Southern States cannot support a literary journal of its own. The parties undertaking this new enterprise are determined to spare no effort or expense to produce a paper which shall effect this purpose, and deserve a share of the support of the reading public. Such a paper, it is hoped, will arouse the somewhat dormant literary condition of our (Baltimore) city, develop its inactive talent; and offer at our own doors a vehicle for the expression of thought, interchange of ideas, and the imparting of new items of information.

The FAMILY JOURNAL will contain Original Stories, Sketches of Travel, Biographical Essays, a Summary of News, domestic and foreign, Reviews of Books, Dramatic and Musical Criticisms, Reports of Popular Lectures, and such general information as will make it a welcome guest in every family. The proprietors are determined that their journal shall be second to none in the variety, interest and value of its contents; in its literary excellence and high moral tone. Politics and Sectarianism will be most rigidly excluded.

Particular attention paid to "answers to correspondents," a talented gentleman having been specially engaged for that purpose.

Arrangements have already been made with a distinguished corps of American contributors, and negotiations are still in progress which will untimately secure the best talent in the country. It is intended that the literary matter in this journal shall be chiefly original; the appropriation from foreign sources, without acknowledgment, in the newspapers of the day, is already too frequent. Should any article be selected on account of its superior excellence, credit will be invariably given where it is due.

TYPES.

Click—click,
Go the types in the "stick,"
Gliding together with ominous sound.
As swiftly the hand that collects them goes round
And arranges them firm in the "stick."
Click—click.

Click—click,
See them now in the "stick,"
To the thief or assassin they sorrow betide,
And the wealthy oppressor in vain tries to glide [hide
Away from the clicking—the world cannot
Him away from the sound of that click—click—
In putting up types in the "stick,"
Click—click.

Click—click,
As they go in the "stick,"
See guilt, at the sound, with a visage of fright,
Recoiling from self by day and by night,
As it views with suspicion, each method of flight.
But it never can flee from the click—click
Of putting types in the "stick,"
Click—click.

Click—click,
As they go in the "stick,"
Monarchs and Kings their approaches dread;
They know that with Liberty types have been wed,
And visions they see of their thrones blood-red
As they trembling bow at the click—click

The Workingman.

The noblest men I know on earth,
Are men whose hands are brown with toil;
Who, backed by no ancestral graves,
Hew down the woods and till the soil,
And win thereby a prouder fame
Than follows king or warrior's name.

The workingmen, whate'er their task,
To carve the stone or bear the hod—
They wear upon their honest brows
The royal stamp and seal of God!
And brighter are their drops of sweat
Than diamonds in a coronet!

God bless the noble workingmen,
Who rear the cities of the plain,
Who dig the mines and build the ships
And drive the commerce of the plain;
God bless them, for their swarthy hands
Have wrought the glory of all lands.

How English Dutchesses and Countesses Employ Their Time.

The following extract from a recent letter of an English traveler, who has had the best opportunities of observation in the first circles of the United States, may surprise some of our idle fine ladies, if any such there be among our readers.

It were well if a noble emulation could be excited among our women to imitate what is worthy of imitation in the privile
