The Critic.

- A grouse drummed a roll-call below, Vhile a robin piped up in a tree;
- For a high-born critic was he. With a twitter a sparrow flew down,
- The bee left the rose and the frog from a doze Was aroused by the loud tattoo. A grasshopper perched on a straw, A bobolink paused on his way,
- And the burrowing mole peeped out of his hole To hear what they all had to say. "What's the row, Mr. Grouse?" croaked What's to pay?" sang the blue jay and wren
- While the geese, with a squawk, shouted back And were joined by the quarrelsome hen. "Alack !" said the grouse, with a frown,
- "I am sick of that's malaperts song."

SCROFULA can only be cured by a thorough purifica-tion of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collarse, etc. If allowed to consical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it en-riches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great
