Lifts Honor System Box at Drug Store

Last Sunday night or early Monday morning someone must have been short of funds, when they lifted a coin box that was placed in front of Dr. Hitch's Drug Store. The thief tore the box from the building on which it was nailed and locked. The box is placed there for customers to get their papers early in the morning during week days or late on Sunday. It was on the honor system, when you purchased a paper, you dropped your money in the box.

According to Mrs. Hitch, there could not have been over fifty cents in the box. The damage was more costly than what was in it. No clues have been found and no one has been suspected. When you take money from an honor system, you are really stooping low.

Driver Hands Toll Collector $2.40; Dollar Mailed Back

A Severn motorist who paid $2.40 to cross the Bay Bridge when he should have paid only $1.40 had his dollar back today, thanks to an honest toll taker.

Alfred Heller, the motorist, crossed the bridge October 1 and handed the toll taker what he thought was a dollar bill and 40 cents in change.

"I think I have 40 cents there," he said.

The toll collector, Miss Constance Kelley, of Stevensville, counted the change and said it was correct. Mr. Heller pulled away.

Miss Kelley unfolded the dollar bill and found another dollar inside. She called out, but Mr.Heller did not hear.

The toll collector joted down the license number and a State trooper found out who owned the car.

Miss Kelley wrote Mr. Heller a letter which said:

"I am returning your dollar with sincere apologies that it should have escaped my notice at all.

"I hope when you missed it, you didn't become too angry with this toll collector and that you will cross our bridge again at the right cost—$1.40."

BLANN — RADCLIFF

On Saturday afternoon Oct. 8 at 2 p.m. in the Sts. Peter-Pauls Catholic church in Easton, Miss June Elizabeth Radcliff of Grasonille, Md., became the bride of Mr. Philip Joseph Blann of Easton. Father Irvin performed the ceremony. Mrs. Marjorie Pierson Crouse of Denton was the Matron of honor and Mr. Waynn Horney of Chester, acted as best man. Mr. Lawrence LeGates of Denton and Mr. Robert Warner of St. Michaels, were ushers.

The charming bride was attired in an exquisite gown of ice blue lace, in her hands she carried a satin bag with a single white orchid. Mrs. Crouse was attracively gowned in a dress of dusty rose with accessories to match. She carried a rosegay of button mums in assorted colors.

A reception was held at the new home of the bride and groom

Fishing Fair Association Contest, Oct. 31

Calling all people who like to fish!

There is still a few weeks in which to win a $500 vacation—free. Your next vacation, if you have already taken this year's.

A vacation that will include a week's Chesapeake Bay fishing for two, that may be taken any time within the next 12 months, and that will not cost a cent. The Chesapeake Bay Fishing Fair Asociation of Preston, Maryland, is offering this as a prize for the best letter on the subject, "Why I Prefer to Fish In Chesapeake Bay."

The Association says it does not want fancy writing. It wants letters—not over 500 words long—from bay fishermen about bay fish and bay fishing. Plain talk that other bay fishermen will understand. It will be a committee of bay fisherment that does the judging, and they will not be impressed by high-priced words.

Entries must be in by Oct. 31. The winner will be announced soon afterward. The prize—the free vacation—includes meals, lodging, boat accommodations, guide service, bait and tackle—all for two people. Address the Chesapeake Bay Fishing Fair Association, Preston, Maryland.
