

Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING, Sept. 20, 1885.

A CARPENTER entered a jewelry store the other day to buy a watch, and expressed the wish to have one bearing the emblem of his trade. Various pins of various sorts were exhibited by the jeweler, until, after a while, the eyes of the carpenter rested on a massive pin square and compass, and letter G, "there that's what I want," said the carpenter, pointing toward the jeweler. "Yes, but that's a Masonic emblem, you know," replied the salesman. "No matter," replied the other, "it's just what I want. There's the square and compass and G for gimlet. I'll take that."

SOMETHING NEW IN GRAIN.—A new grain, a hybrid between wheat and rye, has been produced in Texas, and according to the newspapers of that State, the public is awaiting with much interest to see what kind of a crop it will make. Here, perhaps, is another step taken toward national good feeling. The North largely affects rye, the South, wheat, and the new grain between corn and rye would hit the case exactly.

J. W. MACKAY, the Nevada millionaire, is said to contemplate the erection of a public residence in Washington, one more imposing and expensive than any of those recently built. His intention is attributed to his supposed expectation of becoming Senator Fair's successor, and to Mrs. Mackay's desire to donate the national capital with the splendors which she has lavished upon her receptions in Paris.

"How is it, Mr. Brown," said the mill-owner to the farmer, "that when I came to measure those five barrels of apples I bought from you, I found them nearly a barrel short?" "Singular, very singular, for I put them up in some of your own flour barrels," "Ahem! Did, did, did, I well, perhaps I made a mistake. Fine weather, isn't it? Let's imbibe."

FATHER had been repeatedly told he must not ask people for money. One day he met Mr. Williams, who could never rest an appeal on the small boy. "Mr. Williams," said Freddy, "do you ever give five cents to little boys who don't ask for 'em?" "He got the money."

BOY (who does not appreciate sermons)—"Well, I'd just like to know what preaching is for, anyway? Small sister—"Why it's to give the singers a rest."

A WIT once asked a peasant what part he performed in the great drama of life. "I mind my own business," was the reply.
