A Reflective Retrospect.

'Tis twenty years and something more,
Since, all athirst for useful knowledge,
I took some draughts of clasic lore,
Drawn, very mild, at ——rd College,
Yet I remember all that one
Could wish to hold in recollection;
The boys, the joys, the noise, the fun;
But not a single Conic Section.

I recollect those harsh affairs,
The morning bells that gave us panics,
I recollect the formal prayers,
That seemed like lessons in Mechanics;
I recollect the drowsy way
In which the students listened to them,
As clearly, in my wig, to-day,
As when a boy I slumbered through them.

I recollect the tutors all
As freshly now, if I may say so,
As any chapter I recall
In Homer or Ovidius Naso.
I recollect extremely well,
"Old Hugh," the mildest of fanatics;
I well remember Matthew Bell,
But very faintly, Mathematics.

I recollect the prizes paid
For lessons fathomed to the bottom;
(Alas, that pencil marks should fade!)
I recollect the chaps who got 'em—
The light equestrians who soared
O'er every passage reconed stony;
And took the chalks—but never scored
A single honor to a pony!

Ah me! what changes time has wrought,
And how predictions have miscarried!—
A few have reached the goal they sought,
And some are dead and some are married!
And some in city journals war;
And some as politicians bicker;
And some are pleading at the bar;
For jury-verdicts, or for liquor.

And some on Trade and commerce wait,
And some in school with dunces battle;
And some the Gospel propagate,
And some the choicest breeds of cattle;
And some are living at their ease,
And some were wrecked in the 'revulsion;'
Some serve the State for handsome fees,
And one I hear upon compulsion!

LAMONT, who, in his college days,
Thought e'en a cross a moral scandal,
Has left his Puritanic ways,
And worships now with bell and candle;
And MANN, who mourned the negro's fate;
And held the slave as most unlucky,
Now holds him at the market rate
On a plantation in Kentucky.

To KNOX, who swore in such a tone
It fairly might be doubted whether
It really was himself alone,
Or Knox and Erebus together—
Has grown a very altered man,
And, changing oaths for mild entreaty,
Now recommends the Christian plan
To savages in Otaheite.

Alas, for young Ambition's vow,
How envious fate may overthrow it!
Poor HARVEY is in Congress now,
Who struggled long to be a poet;
SMITH carves (quite well) memorial stones,
Who tried in vain to make the law go;
HALL deals in hides; and "Pious Jones"
Is dealing faro in Chicago!

And, sadder still, the brilliant HAYS,
Once honest, manly, and ambitious,
Has taken latterly to ways
Extremely profligate and vicious;
By slow degrees—I can't tell how—
He's reached at last the very groundsel,
And in New York he figures now,
A member of the Common Council!

JOHN G. SAXE.

MARRIAGE GUIDE:

Being a private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production or prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 SPRUCE St., above 4th, Philadelphia, Pa.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious QUACKS—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's books, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his Office, No. 416 Spruce St., above Fourth. my16

WASHINGTON
NATIONAL MONUMENT.

POSTMASTERS throughout the United States are now offering for sale, for the benefit of the

Washington National Monument,

A MAGNIFICENT

STEEL PLATE ENGRAVING!

OF THE SIGNERS OF THE

Declaration of Independence!

surrounded by Life-like Portraits

Of all the Presidents!

and bearing upon its face an engraving of the Tomb of Washington at Mt. Vernon!

The whole comprising one of the most beautiful Patriotic designs ever published in this country, and respectfully dedicated to the contributors of the Washington National Monument. This Engraving will recommend itself wherever it goes, and as a PARLOR ORNAMENT nothing will excell it. Its patriotic designs are equal to a volume in the History of "Our Country;" and considering the object for which it is sold, we hope it will meet with unlimited success.

Size of Engraving 18 by 22 inches—Price 50 cents; or Twelve copies for Five Dollars.

Address orders for Engravings with the money enclosed to SAMUEL RIDENOUR,
Postmaster and General Agent,
Hagerstown, Washington County, Md.

Postmasters who receive orders for the above Engraving, will please forward them, with the money enclosed, to the General Agent, from whom they will be sent, free of postage, to any part of the United States. The Name, Town, County and State should be plainly written so as to avoid mistakes.

Five Splendid Strawberries

HOOKER,—Very productive; large, beautiful, and of UNEQUALED QUALITY.

WILSON'S ALBANY,—Exceedingly productive, FINE FOR MARKET.

TRIOMPHE DE GAND,—IMMENSE SIZE; splendid appearance, and high flavor.

PYRAMIDAL CHILIAN,—Very handsome; productive, hardy, and good flavor.

LARGE EARLY SCARLET,—THE EARLIEST; productive and excellent.

As it is impossible to secure all the excellencies of this most popular fruit in one variety, we offer the above as comprising, in five sorts, the various points desirable.

We again confidently RECOMMEND the HOOKER, as by far the best for family use, if only one sort is to be planted—combining a greater number of excellencies than any other variety.

☞All of the above have perfect flowers, and will produce excellent crops, if planted singly or together.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY.
The Family Journal for 1860.

ON the first Saturday in January will be commenced a new volume of this popular Southern Illustrated Paper. One year ago the JOURNAL was begun as an experiment to establish a literary paper south of Mason and Dixon's line, which, while it should not contain anything sectional in its columns, might be a means of freeing the South from its dependance on the North for its literary food.—It has been too long a subject of just reproach to the South, that her popular literature is almost wholly borrowed from Northern sources. This preference arises not from any lack of intrinsic merit in the writers of the South, but from an unfounded assumption that no good book, magazine or paper can be expected unless coming from a Northern publishing house.

To remove this unfounded stain upon the literary talent and enterprise of the South, was the great object for which the Family Journal was established. To aid in this high and patriotic undertaking, we earnestly invite the co-operation of the South. We pledge ourselves to devote our entire time and energies to ensure the success of so good a cause. Nor shall we rest satisfied with producing a paper whose sole claim upon Southern readers shall consist in its being published in their midst. Unless the Journal can in every respect compare with similar papers published elsewhere, we do not expect the support which we now solicit.

It may not be inappropriate here to announce that we have succeeded in securing the valuable services of F. H. NORVELL, Esq., late Professor in Marshall Female College, Mississippi, as Associate Editor. The exalted character of Mr. Norvell, and his acquirements as a scholar, offer our best guarantee for the moral tone and literary excellence of the Journal.

Each number of the paper will contain three or four complete stories by the popular authors of the day. They will be written with great care, and specially adapted to interest those persons who do not read the continued stories.

Sketches of Travel and Adventure will also form a special feature in the coming volume, as well as Biographical Essays, which will contain the lives of all the popular authors.

Useful Information.—Under this head will be comprised interesting anecdotes in Natural History, Chemistry, new inventions in Science and Art, items for the Farmer and Housekeeper, &c.

Particular attention will also be paid to original Poetry, extreme care being taken to present such only as shall command the praise of every lover of this divine art.

The Ladies' Portfolio will continue to be a prominent feature in the ensuing volume.

The Family Journal is a mammoth eight-paged paper, containing forty columns of closely printed reading matter. Each number is handsomely illustrated, talented artists having been specially engaged for this purpose. No advertisements whatever will be taken in the new volume; thus devoting the entire space to the reading matter.

The Family Journal is published every Saturday, and is mailed to subscribers at $2 per annum; two copies sent for $3. Terms invariably in advance. Any postmaster sending us eight subscribers at $1 50 each, will be entitled to a copy free.

Subscribers are particularly requested to write in a plain hand the name of the place, county and State, so as to prevent mistakes. Remittances, properly authenticated, at our risk. Single subscribers can forward postage stamps.

Blackwood's Magazine
AND
BRITISH REVIEWS.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative).
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
3. The North British Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.—The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

"It is the duty of every citizen of this Great Republic to foster and encourage native genius and American enterprise."—Dan'l Webster.

The "Great Republic" Monthly:

A MAGAZINE devoted entirely to the elevation of American authorship, wholly national, in no wise sectional or sectarian; having for its motto the words of the great statesman: 'No North, no South, no East, no West;' having nothing to do with politics, aiming only at the highest in Art, Literature and Science, and employing the best writers in every branch, is again before the American public, seeking their support. Among the numerous contributors engaged are the following well-known distinguished authors:

Fitz Green Halleck,	Seba Smith,
Orestes A Brownson,	(Jack Downing)
Geo. P. Morris,	J. T. Headley,
Wm. Gillmore Simms,	Geo. D. Prentice,
Park Benjamin,	Alice Carey,
John G. Saxe,	Mrs. Kirkland,
Hannah F. Gould,	Mrs. Oakes Smith,
Calhoun McKenzie,	Phebe Carey,
M. F. Maury,	Mrs. Ellet, &c., &c.

TERMS:

Single copies,	$0 25
Subscription, per year,	3 00
Clubs, of three or more, each	2 00

Any one sending a club of FIVE subscribers, with the money, shall receive, by mail, his choice of either of the following magnificent Steel Engravings, viz:

THE LAST SUPPER. Size of plate, 25 by 40 inches. Value, $5.

THE CITY OF THE GREAT KING. Size of plate, 25 by 39 inches. Value, $5.

THE PALACE OF WESTMINSTER. Size of plate, 25 by 39 inches. Value, $5.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S MONUMENT. Size of plate, 21 by 34 inches. Value, $4.

"WE PRAISE THEE, OH LORD."—Size of plate, 21 by 25 inches. Value, $3.

ROBERT BURNS. Size of plate, 21 by 25 inches. Value, $3.

Any one sending a club of TEN subscribers shall receive his choice of any TWO of the above engravings. Any one sending a club of FIFTEEN subscribers shall receive his choice of any FOUR of the above engravings. Any one sending a club of TWENTY subscribers shall receive ALL of the above engravings, and a copy of the Magazine for one year, gratis.

This splendid offer will enable every one, by a very trifling exertion, in getting subscribers, to obtain as fine a collection of rare works of art to adorn his parlor, as can be obtained anywhere for Twenty-five Dollars, cash.

Young gentlemen and young ladies, all over the country, are invited to get up clubs upon above terms.

Postmasters, and other respectable persons who may desire to act as Agents, and receive a cash commission instead of the above liberal offer, are authorized to forward us subscribers at the prices before named, deducting twenty per cent. for their trouble. The engravings will be sent in rotation, in the order in which the clubs are sent in.

First Come First Served.

In addition to the above unparalleled offer we now announce that where parties do not form clubs and where their names are not sent in clubs, that single subscribers sending the amount set opposite to each of the above Engravings, shall receive by mail the Engraving chosen and one copy of the Magazine for one year.

Some of these engravings are of three times the value of those offered by the old Art Union, and all of them are better and of more intrinsic worth than any engravings ever offered by any "Gift Enterprise" or "Art Association."

"The Last Supper" and "The City of the Great King" should adorn the walls of every clergyman and scholar in the country.

No such offers as these were ever made before—there is no "chance" in the matter, no "lottery," no gift enterprise, no humbug. We call upon clergymen, postmasters, travelers, scholars, and all who are interested in the success of American Literature and Art, to avail themselves of these generously liberal offers. In addition to all of the above, any one sending $1 50 extra, shall receive the twelve back numbers of the magazine from January, 1859, forming a perfect set of The "Great Republic" Monthly from its commencement.

All subscriptions invariably in advance, and no deviation from above terms. No further instructions necessary to those forming clubs or to Agents. Give name and Post Office address in full. All sums over $3 should be sent by draft, if convenient. Money by mail, properly authenticated, at our risk. Postage stamps and current bills received at par.

The magazine is for sale by all news dealers in the United States and Canada.

Where there's a Will there's a Way.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Aut veniam viam, aut faciam.

It was a noble Roman
In Rome's imperial day,
Who heard a coward croaker,
Before the battle say:
"They're safe in such a fortress;
There is no way to shake it—"
"On! on!" exclaimed the hero,
"I'll find a way, or make it!"

Is Fame your aspiration?
Her path is steep and high;
In vain he seeks the temple,
Content to gaze and sigh;
The shining throne is waiting,
But he alone can take it,
Who says with Roman firmness,
"I'll find a way, or make it!"

Is Learning your ambition?
There is no royal road;
Alike the peer and peasant
Must climb to her abode,
Who feels the thirst of knowledge,
In Helicon may slake it,
If he has still the Roman will
"To find a way, or make it!"

Are Riches worth the getting?
They must be bravely sought;
With wishing and with fretting
The boon cannot be bought;
To all the prize is open
But only he can take it,
Who says, with Roman courage,
"I'll find a way, or make it!"

In Love's impassioned warfare,
The tale has ever been
That victory crowns the valiant;
The brave are they who win;
Though strong is Beauty's castle,
A lover still may take it,
Who says, with Roman daring,
"I'll find a way, or make it!"
