PERSONAL. - Ex-Senator W. T. Hepbron had a slight attack of vertigo on Monday night last while at Lynch's Station and his numerous friends were somewhat alarmed for him for a time. His interest in the election forced him to the polls to vote on election day and he has suffered for that indiscretion, but at last accounts he was rapidly convalescing. A friend who was to see him yesterday states that he found him sitting in bed smoking the inevitable cigar. ## A Little Telephone Confab.

Mr. Stam's clerk summoned our junior to the telephone on Thursday afternoon when the following colloquy ensued : Chestertown-Still Pond! Is that you?

Still Pond-Yes, what is it? Chestertown-Tell Mr. George Harper that Mr. Usilton is at the phone. Harper-Hello, Usilton! Is that you! Usilton - Yes. How are you, old fellow. What can I do for you? Harper-Don't you want to congratulate me?

Usilton-Why certainly; yes, I do so most heartily. Don't you feel happy? Harper-Happy! Ha, ha, ha, ha! Well, I do feel pretty good. Usilton-About as happy as I felt two years

Harper-Don't expect you felt very happy But you know how to sympathize with Usilton-O, yes, I sympathize with you. And

I say, George, I declare I am happy in defeat, Harper-Happy in my defeat you mean-ha, Usilton - Well, that's good. Happier now than then, true enough.

Departed this life at his late residence in Kennedyville, Kent co., Md., after an illness of nine weeks, in hope of the beautiful hereafter, Chas. W. WARREN. Our friend and brother in Christ left us on the morning of the 24th of Oct., 1885, just as the earth was being bathed with the tints of the uprising sun, and the last remnants of the curtains of the night were being rolled away ; fit emblem of all darkness with him vanishing ments to attend. Remember the date, Nov. 26, where "the day breaks and the shadows fice away," Kind, generous and amiable in life; so beautifully submissive to the Heavenly Father's will during all his illness, he has left us missed by his dear ones of the home circle, in the Sabbath School of which he was the efficient superintendent, in his community where he was ever ready in every emergency, and in the church Big Tunnips .- Mr. James Shuster, of Back of his choice where his voice was so often heard but he has gone to realize the truth of his beautiful hymn so often sung : "Forever with the Lord : Amen! So let it be; Life from the dead is in that word :

Tis immortality Funeral services were held at the Grace Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member, on Monday afternoon of the 26th of October, in the presence of a large congregation. The Scriptures were rend by the Rev. F. T. Little, and the burial services of the church for the dead by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Reese, after which his remains were laid away in the quiet of the cemetery of the Friends Meeting House.
