

Kent News. SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 2, 1886.

Unveiling the Maxwell Monument.

On Wednesday, Dec. 23, 1885, the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the monument to the memory of Dr. W. M. A. Maxwell were held in the R. Church...

The chairman of the monument committee, J. F. Wilson, Esq., made the following report: In the month of May of the present year a notice appeared in the Kent News signed by "Many Citizens" calling a meeting of the friends and patrons of the late Dr. W. M. A. Maxwell...

By action of this meeting the same persons were authorized to collect the amount subscribed to purchase and erect the monument...

As the result of our work we present this report from the family of our beloved Dr. Maxwell to those interested, the report of the secretary of the committee, T. E. Bland, is as follows: The total cost of the monument is $124.00...

The installation of officers will take place on Saturday night, January 24, at which time the members of the committee will be sworn in...

Dr. Caldwell's address. When we look upon a testimonial like this we are not inclined to ask what it means...

When we look upon a testimonial like this we are not inclined to ask what it means. It is a monument to the memory of a man who has done good...

They will build monuments to preserve the memory of the lives and great deeds of the men who have done good...

TO THE POULTRY RAISER! Are your HENS laying as they should? Are they droopy and moulting? Or are they healthy, strong and active? Have you had cholera or any other disease among them? Remember that eggs are high. Are you willing to invest three cents a week to the dozen chickens and largely increase your egg supply. Keep them free from disease—Acht them in moulting season, and keep their whole general system in good order. If so by your nearest grocer, or if he does not keep it write to us enclosing the price and ten cents for postage, and we will mail you a large package of the “Eureka Egg and Poultry Food.” THE LARGEST PACKAGE! THE LOWEST PRICED & BEST FOOD FOR Poultry Old and Young on the Market!

FOR SALE in Chestertown by A. J. Canal, R. F. Parks, R. Berge, F. Smith, E. W. F. Simmers, W. H. Lambert, General Stores; M. A. Toulson, Druggist. If your Country Storekeeper does not keep it ask him to order it.

MANUFACTURED BY L. BATES RUSSELL, Gen'l Agent for Kent County. Dec. 9, 1885—M. F. CASEY, Sec'y, Chestertown.

THE advertisement in your paper of the blacksmith property brought a number of inquiries, showing the importance of printers' ink.

On the new road opened by Capt. Young has sold three lots and one of them has been built upon and occupied by its owner, the young systems. This avenue also overlooks the bay, and what is now wanted was what steamboat would land passengers in Baltimore in two hours; and we hope before the new again reaches Capriorn we will have it. Parties are willing to build a wharf as soon as a steamer finds it to their interest to stop there. Many think it would prove a profitable stop, and save the long and tiresome trip to Queenstown, twenty miles further from Baltimore than Deep Landing and thirty more than Gray's Inn—our usual route to Baltimore; although many take the Tolchester line, which crosses after this week.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows: Wheat—Longbery 98c @ 99c. Fair 96c. Corn—White, prime, 42c @ 43c. Yellow, 42c @ 43c. Oats—41c @ 42c.

THE PHILADELPHIA WEEKLY TIMES. Attractive, Entertaining, Instructive. The Family Journal of America.

STORIES OF THE WAR ILLUSTRATED IN EVERY ISSUE. A Paper for the Homes of the Land—Sparkling and Original in Every Feature.

On the first of JANUARY, 1886, a new departure in every feature of the Weekly Times was made. Every number will be liberally illustrated in its War contributions, which have so long been a specialty in its columns, and in its Stories, which will be greatly enlarged from the pens of the best writers, and in Current History, Biography, Politics, Art, Science and the leading events of the day.

The time has passed for the weekly journal of the city to fill the place of the newspaper. The daily newspapers from the great centers of news now reach to every section of the land. Every inland city and every town of importance have their daily newspapers, and the local weekly, with the wonderful progress it is making, is the only paper in the vicinity that has been much more than a newspaper; it must be a magazine of family reading; it must be a magazine of popular literature; and it must meet every requirement of the intelligent reader of every class.

STORIES OF THE WAR. It will be published in each number from the ablest writers who participated in the bloody drama of civil strife, and each will be profusely illustrated. The most entertaining and instructive stories from the best writers, fiction will appear in each issue, with illustrations.

TERMS: Sold by all news agents at five cents per copy. By mail, $2 per year, or $1 for six months. Clubs of ten $15, and an extra copy to get up of the club.

Address: Times Building, Philadelphia.
