Heard Mr. Anarchist, was sentenced on Wednesday to the penitentiary for one year and fined $500. Recorder Smith, in sentencing him, expressed deep regret that the law did not permit to impose a heavier sentence. His crimes, he said, deserved the punishment awarded to capital offenses. He also told him he was the greatest scoundrel he had ever seen at that bar.

John Kelly, the well known Tammany leader, died at 3.20 Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Kelly had been ill for seven months. During the last few weeks he seemed to feel comparatively well, but on Sunday night he was taken with an attack of fainting, and he never recovered. Monday he was worse, but next morning improvement was apparent. At 5.00, however, he began to sink, and the approach of the end was realized. Mr. Kelly's death was painful, although he was conscious to the last. As the leader of Tammany Mr. Kelly was well known and has for many years exercised a powerful influence in New York politics. His course as a politician was indistinguishable, and whatever might be thought of the wisdom of his actions from a political standpoint, he was always respected for his sincerity and integrity.

The proposed Chesapeake and Delaware Ship Canal, which will maintain a water level in the Baltimore Bay, is a work of great importance. It is not only a prolongation in the interest of a large existing commerce and a larger prospective commerce of the navigable waters of the Chesapeake, but it is also a much-needed interior line of communication, which will be available in time of war with a marine power as a means of facilitating the defense of Washington, Baltimore, Chesapeake, Wilmington and Philadelphia. It will also increase the effectiveness of a squadron charged with the protection of these waters.

Smith, chief deputy marshal, and John C. LeGrand, Cole, brother of Congressman Wm. H. Cole, will be deputy marshal at Baltimore. Mr. Isaac, Col. Wm. Henry Legg, of Queen Anne's county, on Tuesday succeeded Mr. Charles L. Jones as deputy sheriff of the county. He also takes the place of Mr. Wilson on the board of Civil Service Examiners.

The fourth week of the work of the evangelists Jones and Small in Baltimore ended last Sunday, when they concluded their labors in that city. They preached about 100 sermons, and a number of persons are attending their meetings, says the Sun, has been estimated at from 250,000 to 300,000. Of these it is thought that not less than 2,000 are regular hearers, while thousands of others had their hearts and minds touched and were more exhorted and urged to accept the Christian faith. The strain upon them was as great as they are both exhausted and in need of rest. They left Baltimore on Monday for their Georgia home, and after a short rest will go to Indianapolis, where they will hold meetings for two weeks, after which they will take the same line of work in St. Paul.

Mr. Sparks, the house-owner, says he can see the house in two and remove the dog-trustee part with its contents intact.

The "Pink Tea"—The Pink Tea festival held at the town hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings by the ladies of the M. E. Church was a very pleasant affair and in every respect successful. The hall was beautifully decorated with pink trimmings, and the stalls and booths contained with lace. The pink tea was held at the corner of the hall and was the most attractive feature of the festival. It was neatly arranged and divided into three pretty furnished parlors where tea, coffee and chocolate were supplied all patrons at a cost of about one cent per cup. On the last night of the festival there were some 100 persons present. The refreshments were prepared by the ladies of the church and were of excellent quality. The proceeds of the festival were for the benefit of the church.

THE CHESTERTOWN ORCHESTRA will hold their first festival at the Town Hall WEDNESDAY EVENING NEXT, and will be a grand affair. The orchestra will consist of the following: Wm. B. Stephens, 6 single, 8 double; Thos. Gale, 1 single, 7 double; W. R. Gale, 1 single, 7 double; Dr. P. H. Stephens, 1 double, Mr. A. Dible was the other member selected to shoot, but he did not put in an appearance. They lay down, without him.

THE FRONT OF THE M. E. Church in Chestertown is to be painted and the scaffolding has been erected and the painters are now at work examining the seams and repairing defects preparatory to the coating and painting proper. It will take a considerable time to do the work, as every joint must be first gone over. The appearance of the building will be greatly improved when the work is finished. The repairs will not interfere with the use of the house for the usual church services.

ARRAIGNED.—Constable W. Miller last Sunday afternoon arrested a disorderly young man who was driving through Elkton, Md., and was taken to the jail. The man was charged with driving through Elkton, Md., and was taken to the jail.
