"Two seconds in Pennsylvania" will be the A Watch for Nothing.—This seems an absurd assertion to make but it is absolutely true. One of the Baltimore clothing houses has made an arrangement with the Waterbury Watch Company, which enables them to present for a short time the latest improvement in stem-winding watches gratis to each cash purchaser to the amount of $12.00 or over. We allude to Oelim & Son, the well-known clothiers for men and boys, Pratt and Hanover Streets, whose clothing is well known to most of our readers.
