STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY,
CALLED
Hunt's Liniment,

IS universally acknowledged to be the INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcres, Pains in the Back and Chest, Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth-ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frosted Feet, and all Nervous Diseases.

The TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS which has attended the application of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in curing the most severe cases of the different diseases above named,—and the high eomiums that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the AFFLICTED to resort at once to the ONLY REMEDY THAT CAN BE RELIED ON.

From the New York Mirror.

HUNT'S LINIMENT.—This invaluable Remedy of the many "ills that flesh is heir to," continues to shed its untold benefits upon all classes of society. We have seen a certificate from some of the most respectable, intelligent, and influential citizens of Westchester, where the Proprietor resides, who are above all attempts to mislead the public in reference to any medicine, remedy or preparation; and as this testimony is at once spontaneous and uniform in commending this truely excellent Medicine for Rheumatism, and various other diseases named in the advertisement, there can no longer be a reasonable doubt entertained of its extraordinary success and triumph over the maladies in question

Sing Sing, May 13, 1845.

We, the undersigned, do certifiy, that we have used Mr. George E. Stanton's External Remedy, called HUNT'S LINIMENT, and have proved it to be fully equal to the character he gives it. Its healing properties are truely extraordinary; and we most confidently recommend it as one of the most certain external remedies that has yet been discovered.

Caleb Roscoe, Editor Westchester Herald; Isaac Birdsall, Inspector M. P. State Prison; Albert Lockwood, Judge Court Common Pleas; James Locke, the extensive Horticulturist; James B. Swain, Editor H. R. Chronicle; M. Churchill, Principal of the celebrated Boarding School for Boys; Samuel F. Reynolds, Supreme Court Commissioner, R. R. Voris, District Attorney; Theodosius Clark, Pastor Methodist Episcopal Church; Robert Wiltse, late Agent M. P. State Prison; Aaron Ward, late member of Congress; Munson I. Van Wyck, Samuel Trowbridge, Pierre Van Courtland, Abraham Miller, Gilbert Martin, Edmund M. Hunt, Benjamin Washburn.

☞The following shows a case of Rheumatism cured with only one bottle of Hunt's Liniment.—The letter is addressed to Mr. Staunton:

Yorktown, June 18, 1845.

SIR:—Having cured me of severe attack of Rheumatism, which had rendered me almost helpless, and at the same time made me suffer great pain, I would offer my testimony in favor of the properties which your External, Remedy, Hunt's Liniment is possessed of. I only used one bottle, and with that I consider I have been saved from a protracted and severe illness. I am now attending to my business regularly, which is that of a Farmer.

Your obedient servan't.,
OLIVER VAN COURTLAND.

This Liniment is sold at 25 and 50 cents per bottle, by all the principal Druggists and Merchants throughout the country.

THE subscriber will offer at public sale, on a reasonable credit at Bradshaw's tavern, Cambridge, on Monday, 4th January—if not previously disposed of, the farm in Transquakin, between the lands of Dr. Wm. H. Muse, and Dr. Phelps, containing 315 acres—230 of which, in cultivation, and 85 in valuable timber.

This Farm, from its variety of soil—possessing a clayey loam, and a siliceous loam, and intermediate grades, is adapted to a variety of crops; and the infallible prospect of a future growing, and permanent demand for our Breadstuffs—especially, Indian Corn, in foreign markets, offers a strong incentive to agricultural energy and enterprise, which for many years have been parallyzed. Endless resources of manure are presented on this Farm to make it a rich investment, by a moderate share of skill and attention. It has a neat, small, and nearly new dwelling house, two rooms on each floor; also two corn houses, one of them lately built and in the best manner, and will hold 3000 bushels;—the other 2000.

A well of pure, soft water is directly at the door, and many fine springs elsewhere on the land.

THE FOLLOWING IS FROM THE NEW YORK WEEKLY MIRROR, one of the very best Literary papers in the country. It is published by H. FULLER, Esq., corner of Ann and Nassau sts., New York. Terms: One copy one year in advance, $2; one copy two years, $3; two copies one year, $3; four, $5; ten $10; single copy 6 1-4 cents

Dear Thomas, you know my affliction,
The cold that I caught at a dance,
So I beg you will send me a bottle,
Of HOARHOUND, extracted by HANCE.

Mrs. Johnson, I dare say you knew her,
And the story will sound like romance,
Has been cured of her cough of long standing,
By buying some Syrup of Hance.

There's the doctor, too, bless the old fellow,
For his health, went a travelling to France,
And came home to be cured of consumption,
And lays it to Hoarhound and Hance.

Mrs. Martin, your father's first cousin,
Lay two or three days in a trance;
And the first thing she said upon waking,
Was "send for some Hoarhound to Hance."

I yesterday sent for the doctor,
Who said "I can see at a glance,
There's but one thing can cure your disorder,
And that is some Hoarhound from Hance."

So you see, dearest Tom, my condition,
If you would my enjoyments enhance,
Do not fail to forward to-morrow,
A bottle of Syrup from Hance.

Do not trust it by William, nor Peter,
For fear of some ugly mischance,
For what shall I do, dearest Thomas,
If I get not the Hoarhound from Hance.

One bottle for me, and another
Don't forget to direct to your aunts;
They sell it at Sands', I reckon,
But be sure 'tis the genuine Hance.

Mrs. Brown was bent double with coughing,
But now she's as straight as a lance;
And the change has been wrought she assures me,
By taking the Hoarhound from Hance.

As I went to the store but last Friday,
Mr. Butterman eyed me askance,
And whispering said, "Mrs. Davis,
You must send for some Hoarhound to Hance."

Mrs. Pitts, who subscribes to the Mirror,
In that Journal encountered by chance,
Very lucky, the first advertisement,
Had been seen in our village from Hance.

I remain, my dear Thomas, as ever,
Your mother, in love's fond durance,
And if you would keep me here darling,
Pray send me the Hoarhound from Hance.

We have been permitted to copy the above letter from a lady of the highest respectability in Boston to her son, a young merchant, doing business in Baltimore. The article the old lady alludes to, we believe, is HANCE'S HOARHOUND SYRUP which is doing wonders in the way of curing Asthmas and Coughs. For sale in Cambridge by T. M. Flint. [Jan. 13, 1847.—3w
