Tenders expressions of sincere thanks to the supplying conveyances, homes and entertainment, of the most satisfactory character, to officers and members of The Dual Grand Lodge, I O. G. T. of Maryland, during the annual session held in this place, 24th and 25th instant. This body was represented by gentlemen and ladies from all sections of our State. In supplementing words of thanks our Lodge will ever cherish the remembrance of this kind heartedness and benevolence of our citizens and feel assured that the object for which we work has the cordial support of true friends. To all we extend a broad invitation to come into our Lodge. We have a plank in which you can rest in the full assarance of being elevated in principles far reaching for good. Join hands with us in the Hopper and a granddaughter of the late Judge temperance work. The needs of the times in this exalting work is direct personal effort. G. W. COVINGTON,

> KRIS KRINGLE CASTLE. FRIEND CUMMINGS & CO.:

WE have had many a jolly, good time together; I am bound to make all the people happy at the Holidays, and am never kept from making up my usual things and visiting my favorite localities and customers by any rumors of hard times or calamities that may reach me here. While you and the other good people of Chestertown have been enjoying the fruits of your country and the sunshine and of the opinion you'll secure good goods at low the flowers, my workmen and myself have been as busy as bees here in our workshop amids snow and ice, and have made and fashioned a great stock of new and handsome things for the little children and big folks that all may have some sort of present. KRIS KRINGLE.

My Dear Friend Kris Kringle: VE have received from your agent an unusually large stock of Holiday Goods, the largest ever in Chestertown. We have Wagons, Doll Carriages, Sleds, Wheelbarrows, Carts, the best selection of Dolls you ever saw.

Mechanical Toys, a large variety of Toy Animals, such as Horses, Dogs, Cows, Goats and Pigs, in fact so many things that I cannot tell you all. In Confections we do not carry any thing but very best articles, no second class of inferior goods can be found in our store. We have the finest line of confections ever offered in this town. Also, Raisins, Pigs, Prunes, Dates all kinds of Nuts, Paper Shell Almonds, English his age, leaving a widow and nine children to good things you can possibly need at Christmas time. Besides Kris if you want a good stew, Walnuts, Pecans, Cream Nuts, and all the other fry, or jar of Oysters, we can get it up for you; and if you like them raw we have the best that tion, ANNIE, wife of Harry Vanlear, and daughter of the late Joseph and Amanda Walraven, home with you, we sell them by the quart or gallon. Ice-Cream made to order during the Respectfully yours, CUMMINGS & CO.
