W. N. E. WICKES, WOLVES OF THE OCEAN. PERILS MET WITH IN A HUNT FOR MAN-EATING SHARKS.

A Bloody Battle of the New England Coast - Methods Used to Eradicate the Wary Monsters of the Sea - How They Feed Upon Each Other.

The excitement of every sport is intensified by the presence of danger, and in this respect shark hunting commands a foremost place.

When woulded the shark will often attack a man if he is in the water, and it is not infrequently seen to attack a man who is in the water.

Smoking Among Ladies: A recent incidental statement made by an authority upon the opportunity of observation leaves no doubt as to the fact that the practice of smoking among ladies is becoming more and more general.

More American women smoke cigarettes, and they are doing so more and more. A few mornings ago I sat in the boulevard of a busy thoroughfare in New York city, and I saw a woman in a smart dress, and a young girl in a stylish costume, both of whom I saw smoking.

It is not pleasant to contemplate a condition of affairs as the above gives an excellent reason to believe that the "men smoke" and "why should not women?" question is becoming more and more a reality.

The custom of smoking among American ladies is becoming prevalent, it is one that cannot be overlooked as a deeply deplored, no woman who smokes is in any way less respectable than a woman who does not.
