And now come into the Court of Appeals here, as well the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others by Alexander Randall their attorney, as the said William Plater administrator of John A Plater by John Johnson his attorney; and thereupon, on motion of the said William Plater administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the Decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against them in default thereof. And the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others by their attorney aforesaid, say that in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid, it appears that the decree aforesaid, in the cause aforesaid given, was given for the said William Plater, administrator as aforesaid against the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others when by the law of the land, that Decree ought to have been given for the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others against the said William Plater, administrator as aforesaid, therefore in that there is manifest error, and they pray that the decree aforesaid for that error, and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that they the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of the said Decree and that the said William Plater, administrator as aforesaid may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth. And thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said William Plater administrator as aforesaid, join in the errors by the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or Judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against him in default thereof. And the said William Plater administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, prays that a day may be given to him, to join in the errors by the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the first monday in December next, and to him it is granted, the same day is also given to the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others. At which said first monday in December being the fourth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty three which said day was given to the said William Plater, administrator as aforesaid to join in the errors by the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, and the said William Plater administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and he prays that the Court of Appeals here, will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said Washington Jones, William Jones & others above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed and so forth. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid, is by virtue of an act of Assembly in such case made and provided, further continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in June next, the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the Judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth. At which said second Monday in June being the tenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid. But because the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said parties, by their attorneys aforesaid, to come before the Court of Appeals here, on the first monday in December next, to hear the judgment of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here, as yet are not ready. And now at this day, to wit, the said first monday in December being the second day of the said month, in the year of our
