CHESTERTOWN - JUNE 4, 1887.

The Church Convention.

The annual convention of the Diocese of Eastern was held in Chestertown this week, the proceedings of which will be found in another column. Special interest centered in this meeting, as here again would be made the effort to secure a bishop for the diocese, and the different churches sent up their best men among the laity to add their wisdom and effort to that of the clergy in this most important matter. The convention was a representative body of churchmen of rare intellectual ability and distinguished merit, and our citizens felt it a privilege to extend to these gentlemen the hospitalities and courtesies they had a right to expect.

The newly-elected bishop, Dr. Lindsay, was telegraphed the fact of his election Wednesday evening and he promptly replied that he could not accept, as he had already accepted the position of the mission he had been called to, and those of his co-workers upon which to base their opinion.

Dr. James L. Bryan, school examiner of Dorchester county, visited Chestertown public school last Wednesday in company with Major Perkins and delivered a short address. He congratulated the school upon its fine condition and said to himself that he was the oldest examiner in the State now living, having been 12 years in continuous service. Mr. Thompson, of Queen Anne's, now deceased, was a year his senior in service.

Col. P. W. Downes, of Caroline, has been in town this week attending the church convention. He appears as contented and happy as before he entered "Uncle Sam's" service.
