CHESTERTOWN:
SATURDAY.....DEC. 31, 1887

An Angel's Touch.

One evening not long ago, a little girl of nine or ten entered a place in which there is a bakery, grocery and saloon in one, and asked for five cents worth of tea.

"How is your mother?" asked the boy who came forward to wait on her.

"Awful sick, and ain't had anything to eat all day."

The boy was just then called on to wait on some men who entered the saloon, and the girl sat down. In five minutes she was nodding and in seven minutes she was sound asleep, and leaning her head against the barrel, while she held the poor old nickel in a tight grip between her thumb and finger. One of the men saw her as he came from the bar, and asking who she was, said:

"Say, you drunkards, see here. Here we have been pouring down whiskey when this poor child and her mother want bread. Here's a two dollar bill that says I've got some feelings left."

"And I can add a dollar," said one.

"And I will give another."

They made up an even five dollars, and he spokesman carefully put the bill between the sleeper's fingers and whispered his companions:

"Just look, the girl's dreaming."

So she was. A big tear rolled out from r closed eyelids, but her face was cover- with a smile. The men tiptoed out, and e clerk walked over and touched the leeping girl. She awoke with a laugh and ried out.

"What a beautiful dream! Ma wasn't sick anymore, and we had lots to eat and wear, and my head burns yet where an angel touched it!"

When she discovered that her nickel had been replaced by a bill, a dollar of which loaded her down with all she could carry, she said:

"Well, now; ma won't hardly believe me that you sent up to heaven and got an angel to come down and clerk in your grocery?"

EMBARRASSING.—"I intended to tell Jane to bring a fresh bucket of water," said the wife of Professor Nottlehead, looking up from her sewing.

"You doubtless mean a bucket of fresh water," rejoined her husband. "I wish you would pay some little attention to rhetoric. Your mistakes are embarrassing."

A few moments later, the professor said:

"My dear, that picture would show to better advantage if you were to hang it over the clock."

"Ah," she replied, "you doubtless mean if I were to hang it above the clock. If I were to hang it over the clock, we couldn't tell what time it is. I wish you would pay some little attention to rhetoric. Your mistakes are embarrassing.

SHARP-VISAGED FEMALE (to grocer's boy)—"I've waited here so long, young man, that I forgit what I come for." Grocer boy (meekly suggestive) "P'raps it's winegar, mum."

THE INCURABLE CURED!
HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Feb. 24, 1887.
Gentlemen—Seven years ago a sore developed on my nose from a finger nail scratch. I tried a few simple remedies, but the sore would not yield. I grew worse every year for seven years. Many thought I had a cancer. Over a year ago I commenced taking S. S. S., and two dozen bottles entirely cured me. When I began with Swift's Specific I was in very poor health, and could hardly drag about. After I had finished the course of S. S. S. I was strong and buoyant, and had a good appetite. I regard it as a most valuable medicine for ladies in weak, delicate health. It is a household medicine with me. Yours respectfully,
Mrs. R. W. WILSON.
SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 2, 1887.
Gentlemen—For twenty years I have had a sore on my left cheek. It had gradually been growing worse. The many physicians whom I had consulted were unable to do me any good. Last fall a year ago I began using S. S. S. At first it inflamed the sore, and it became more virulent than ever; so much so, indeed, that my family insisted that I should leave off the medicine. I persisted in using the S. S. S. At the end of two months the sore was entirely healed. Thinking that the evil was out of my constitution, I left off the medicine; but in November, ten months after, a very slight breaking out appeared. I at once began again on S. S. S., and now that is also disappearing. I have every faith in S. S. S. It has done me more good than all the doctors and other medicines I ever took. Yours truly,
A. K. SHANDS.
WILKESON, N. C., April 12, 1887.
Gentlemen—Two or three years ago a cancer came on my face. It soon grew to be quite large. It wore on me, and my general health was very poor. Last September I began a course of S. S. S., which I have continued to the present time with the happiest result. The cancer has entirely disappeared, there being no evidence or symptom of a cancerous character left. My general health is good now, and my appetite better than it has been in years. I am 62 years old, and to-day I am working in the field planting corn. Yours truly, JONAS LIMBAUGH.
Gentlemen—I had a sore on my upper lip for eight years. Seven different doctors attempted in vain to heal it. One gave me a small vial for five dollars, which was a "certain cure." It is needless to say that it did me no good. About two years ago I became quite uneasy, as people thought I had a cancer, and I took a course of eighteen bottles of S. S. S. The result has been a complete cure. The ulcer or cancer healed beautifully, leaving scarcely a perceptible scar. From that day I have been in excellent health, the Specific having purified my blood thoroughly, increased my appetite and perfected my digestion. In a word, I feel like a new woman, and, best of all, the eight year ulcer is gone entirely. Yours sincerely,
MRS. W. P. CANNON.
