Eastern Shore General Advertiser.

EASTON—(MARYLAND) Printed and Published every Tuesday Morning, by THOMAS PERRIN SMITH, Printer of the LAWS of the UNITED STATES.

[VOL. 9.....12.] TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1811. [No. 31.....593.]

TERMS OF THE STAR—Are Two Dollars and Fifty Cents per annum, payable half yearly in advance: No paper can be discontinued until the same is paid for.

ADVERTISEMENTS—Are inserted three weeks for One Dollar, and continued weekly, for Twenty-five Cents per square.

DENTON, CAROLINE COUNTY, 7th March, 1811.

The county court of said county, being in session, and many of the republican citizens (in consequence thereof) being assembled at Denton from all parts of the county; a large and respectable body of the said citizens convened in the Court House Chamber; when col. William Whiteley was called to the Chair, and col. Robert Orrell appointed Secretary.

The meeting then took into consideration, the propriety of adopting some equitable plan for calling a committee which should be vested with the power of selecting two persons to be recommended to the republican citizens of Caroline county to be supported as candidates for electors, to elect the next Senate of Maryland, also, to select four persons, to be recommended to the said citizens as candidates for representatives to the next General Assembly of Maryland.

Whereupon the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to

Resolved, that the following notice be given, (viz.)

☞ The Democratic Republican Citizens of Caroline county are requested to meet at the different places of holding elections in each election district on Monday, the 15th day of April next (which will be Easter Monday) and to elect and chuse for each district seven persons as deputies to meet in general committee at Denton, on Tuesday, the 30th day of the same month, for the purpose of selecting and nominating two such persons as a majority of said general committee shall deem most suitable to be supported as candidates for electors, to elect the next Senate of Maryland—Also to select and nominate four such persons as a majority of said committee shall deem most suitable to be supported as candidates for representatives to the next General Assembly of Maryland.

Resolved, that Messrs. John Boon, James Pearce and Alemby Jump, be, and they are hereby appointed and requested to make public the aforegoing notice in the upper election district of Caroline county, by causing written copies of said notice to be set up in all the most public places in said district, as soon as convenient, after receiving a transcript of the same from the secretary.—And that Messrs. Thomas Culbreth, Thomas Styll and Elijah Satterfield, be, and they are hereby appointed and requested to do the same in the middle election district, as soon as convenient after receiving a transcript of said notice from the secretary—And that Messrs. Peter Willis, Frederick Holbrook and Sovren Dawson, be, and they are hereby appointed and requested to do the same in the lower election district as soon as convenient after receiving a transcript of said notice from the secretary

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be signed by the Chairman, and attested by the Secretary, and that the said secretary be, and he is hereby directed to transmit a copy of said proceedings to the Editor of the Republican Star for publication, and that the said Editor be requested to continue said publication for three weeks preceding the aforesaid 15th day of April next.

Signed WM. WHITELEY, Chairman.
Test, ROBERT ORRELL, Secretary.

FARMER'S BANK OF MARYLAND,
Branch at Easton.

THE President and Directors have declared a dividend of three and an half per cent. for the last six months, ending the first and payable on the eighth of April next, to the stockholders or their legal representatives. JOHN KENNARD, Cashier.

March 26, 1811——4

NOTICE.

THAT the Levy Court for Talbot county will meet on TUESDAY, the second day of April next, to appoint Overseers of the Public Roads, and to receive accounts against the county.

By Order of the Levy Court,
J. LOOCKERMAN, Clk.

March 12, 1811——4

IN CHANCERY,
March 6th, 1811.

ORDERED, That the sale made by Hugh M'Allister, trustee for the sale of the real estate of John Ford, dec'd. shall be ratified and confirmed unless cause to the contrary be shewn before the 20th day of May next: Provided a copy of this order be inserted three successive weeks in the Easton Star, before the 20th day of April next.

The report states the sale of 78 acres of Land in Caroline county at $42 per acre, and 150 acres at $1 66⅔.—True copy.—Test,

NICH'S BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can

March 19, 1811——3

GROUND PLASTER OF PARIS,
For sale by the Subscribers,

AT their Store, No. 5, Spear's Wharf, and at their Plaster Mill, on Jones' Falls, near the Goal—WRIGHT & BYRNES.

Baltimore, February 19, 1811——7

VALUABLE LANDS
FOR SALE.

The Subscriber will sell the following landed property, viz:

PART of that well known farm called GALLOWAY—which part contains by estimation the quantity of 691 acres and one fourth of an acre of land, and is laid off in to seven lots of various sizes, each lot containing a proportionable quantity of arable, meadow and wood land. Gentlemen disposed to purchase are invited to view the premises, which will be shewn either by Mr. Thomas C Nicols, Easton, or by Mr. Thomas Harwood, tenant upon the land.—Should not the above mentioned property be disposed of at private sale before the third Tuesday of April next, it will upon that day be offered at public sale, at Mr. Lowe's Tavern, in the town of Easton, from a plot made out by the surveyor—ALSO, all that lot of ground in the town of Easton, situated upon South street, and adjoining the lot at present occupied by the rev. Archibald Walker. This lot is divided into seven lots, three of which front fifty, and one fifty-four feet upon South street, and extend back 297 feet to an alley intersecting Washington street, and running entirely through the said lot—Two other lots fronting upon the above mentioned alley, 91 and 87 feet, and extending back 206 and two hundred and one feet to a ditch, the divisional line between these lots and lot No. 7. Lot No. 7 comprehends all the rest and residue of the whole entire lot, and communicates with Washington street by means of an alley laid off to intersect the alley above-mentioned—ALSO, all that house and lot situated upon South street, adjoining the lot of John Goldsborough, Esquire, which lot was heretofore purchased of Mr. James Earle, by the late Mr. Henry Nicols, jun. If the above-mentioned lots are not disposed of at private sale before the first Tuesday of April next, they will upon that day be offered at public sale upon the premises. The terms of sale are, that one third of the purchase money is to be paid down, one third in twelve months, with interest, and the residue in two years with interest from the day of sale till paid. A good and sufficient deed, upon the purchaser's complying with the first payment, and giving bond with approved security for the payment of the residue of principal, with interest, will immediately be given. The just and properly liquidated and authenticated claims against the estate of Mr. Henry Nicols, jun. will be received and allowed. William Hayward, jun my agent, is authorised to dispose of all the above mentioned property for me. ELIZA. NICOLS.

March 5, 1811——m

NOTICE.

In pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland,

THE subscriber will offer for sale in the town of Centreville, at the house now occupied by John Beard as a tavern, on SATURDAY, the 20th day of April next, at twelve o'clock in the forenoon—All the following several tracts and parcels of Land, situated in the neighbourhood of the Beaver Dams and Roe's Cross Roads, in Queen-Ann's county: Scrivener's Hardship, part of Security, part of Joseph, part of Hackett's Meadows, enlarged, and part of Rachel's Desire—which said several tracts and parcels of land are all adjoining one another, and contain by estimation one hundred and eighty acres of land On the premises is a dwelling house, and almost every convenient out house, all in tolerable repair. The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay the money down on the day of sale.

KENSEY HARRISON, Trustee.

March 19, 1811——5

PUBLIC SALE.

Will be sold at Public Sale, on TUESDAY, 21st of May next, on the premises, lying at the head of Queen-Ann's and Caroline counties—

ALL the real estate of the late rev. Samuel Keene, deceased, containing about 1000 acres of land, which will be divided into lots of between 3 and 400 acres each—The terms of sale will be two thirds of purchase money on taking possession, with a credit of twelve months for the remaining one third, secured by note and security, bearing interest from the day of sale. Attendance given by RICHARD KEENE, Ex'or of the rev. S. Keene, dec'd.

Caroline county, March 12, 1811——10

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell several valuable LOTS near Easton, one situated on the west side of the road leading from Easton to Mrs. Tilghman's farm, containing five and an half acres of land, well enclosed, and in fine order for cultivation.—Also, a lot on the east side of the road leading from Easton to Cambridge, containing about thirteen and an half acres, with a couple of small dwelling houses not finished, a kitchen, and a large and strong windmill.—Likewise, one other lot containing about eighteen acres, adjoining a lot formerly the property of Dr John Coats, deceased, lately cleared, and under good enclosure. The subscriber will make the terms as agreeable to the purchaser as he can.

JOHN M. G. EMORY.

March 26, 1811——6

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

[BY AUTHORITY.]

AN ACT

Making appropriations for the support of government for the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That for the expenditure of the civil list in the present year, including the contingent expenses of the several departments & officers; for the compensation of the several loan-officers and their clerks, and for books and stationery for the same; for the payment of annuities and grants; for the support of the mint establishment; for the expense, of intercourse with foreign nations; for the support of light houses, beacons, buoys and public piers; for defraying the expenses of surveying the public lands; and for satisfying certain miscellaneous claims, the following sums be and the same hereby are respectively appropriated, that is to say:

For compensation granted by law to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, their officers and attendants, estimated for a session of four months and a half continuance, two hundred and one thousand four hundred and twenty-five dollars:

For the expense of fire-wood, stationery, printing and all other contingent expenses of the two Houses of Congress, thirty-four thousand dollars:

For all contingent expenses of the library of Congress, and for the librarian's allowance for the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, eight hundred dollars.

For repairing the roof and fitting up a room in the west side of the north wing of the Capitol for the Library of Congress, six hundred dollars:

For compensation to the President and Vice President of the United States, thirty thousand dollars.

For compensation to the Secretary of State, clerks and persons employed in that department, including the sum of one thousand four hundred and seventy eight dollars, in addition to the sum allowed by the act of the twenty first of April, one thousand eight hundred and six, fourteen thousand and thirty eight dollars:

For the incidental and contingent expenses of the said department, one thousand three hundred and fifty dollars:

For the printing and distributing the laws of the third session of the eleventh Congress, and printing the laws in newspapers, five thousand five hundred dollars:

For compensation to the Secretary of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office, including the sum of one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars, for clerk hire, in addition to the sum allowed by the act of the twenty-first of April, one thousand eight hundred and six, sixteen thousand seven hundred dollars:

For expense of translating foreign languages, allowance to the person employed in transmitting passports and sea letters, and for stationery and printing in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, one thousand dollars:

For compensation to the Comptroller of the Treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office, including the sum of one thousand six hundred and thirty nine dollars, for compensation to to his clerks, in addition to the sum allowed by the act of the twenty-first of April, one thousand eight hundred and six, fourteen thousand six hundred and sixteen dollars:

For expense of stationery, printing and incidental and contingent expenses of the comptroller's office, five hundred dollars:

For compensation to the auditor of the treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office, twelve thousand two hundred and twenty one dollars:

For expense of stationery, printing, and incidental and contingent expenses of the auditor's office, five hundred dollars:

For compensation to the treasurer, clerks and persons employed in his office, six thousand two hundred and twenty seven dollars and forty five cents:

For expense of stationery, printing and incidental and contingent expenses in the treasurer's office, three hundred dollars:

For compensation to the Register of the treasury, clerks and persons employed in his office, sixteen thousand fifty two dollars and two cents:

For compensation to the messenger of the Register's office, for stamping and arranging ship's registers, ninety dollars:

For expense of stationery, printing and all other incidental and contingent expenses in the Register's office, including books for the public stocks, and for the arrangement of the marine records, two thousand eight hundred dollars:

For fuel and other contingent and incidental expenses of the Treasury Department, four thousand dollars:

For the purchase of books, maps and charts for the use of the Treasury Department, four hundred dollars:

For compensation to a superintendent employed to secure the buildings and records of the Treasury department, during the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, including the expense of two watchmen, the repairs of two fire engines, buckets, lanterns and other incidental and contingent expenses, one thousand one hundred dollars.

For defraying the expense of stating and printing the public accounts for the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, one thousand two hundred dollars:

For compensation to the secretary of the commissioners of the sinking fund, two hundred and fifty dollars:

For compensation to the secretary of war, clerks and persons employed in his office, eleven thousand two hundred and fifty dollars:

For expense of fuel, stationery, printing and other contingent expenses of the office of the secretary of war, one thousand dollars;

For compensation to the accountant of the war department, clerks and persons employed in his office, ten thousand nine hundred and ten dollars:

For contingent expenses in the office of the accountant of the war department, one thousand dollars:

For compensation to the clerks employed in the pay-master's office, three thousand four hundred dollars:

For contingent expenses in the said office, two hundred dollars;

For compensation to the purveyor of public supplies, clerks & persons employed in his office, and for expense of stationery, store rent, and fuel for said office, including the sum of five hundred dollars for compensation to clerks in addition to the sum allowed by the act of twenty first of April, one thousand eight hundred and six, five thousand one hundred dollars:

For compensation of additional clerks in the office of the superintendant of Indian trade, eight hundred dollars:

For compensation to the secretary of the navy, clerks and persons employed in his office, nine thousand eight hundred and ten dollars:

For expense of stationery, fuel, printing and other contingent expenses in the said office, two thousand dollars:

For compensation to the accountant of the navy, clerks and persons employed in his office, ten thousand four hundred and ten dollars:

For contingent expenses in the office of the accountant of the navy, one thousand dollars:

For compensation to the post master general, assistant post master general, clerks, and persons employed in the post master general's office, including the sum of two thousand seven hundred and forty five dollars for compensation to clerks in addition to the sum allowed by the act of the twenty-first of April, one thousand eight hundred and six, and the sum of eight hundred and fifty-seven dollars for deficiencies in the appropriation of the year one thousand eight hundred and ten, nineteen thousand seven hundred and fifty seven dollars and seventy eight cents:

For expense of fuel, house rent for the messenger, candles, stationery, chests, &c. incident to the post master general's office, two thousand five hundred dollars:

For compensation to the several loan offices, thirteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars:

For compensation to the clerks of the commissioners of loans, and for allowances to certain loan officers, in lieu of clerk hire, and to defray the authorised expense of the several loan offices, fifteen thousand dollars:

For compensation to the surveyor-general, and his clerks, three thousand two hundred dollars:

For compensation to the surveyor of the lands south of Tennessee, clerks employed in his office, and for stationery, and other contingencies, three thousand seven hundred dollars:

For compensation to the officers of the mint, viz:

The director, two thousand dollars:

The treasurer, one thousand two hundred dollars:

The assayer, one thousand five hundred dollars:

The chief coiner, one thousand five hundred dollars:

The melter and refiner, one thousand five hundred dollars:

The engraver, one thousand two hundred dollars:

One clerk, at seven hundred dollars:

Two clerks at five hundred dollars, each:

For wages to the persons employed in melting, coining, carpenters, mill wrights and smith's work, including the sum of one thousand dollars allowed to an assistant coiner & die forger, who also oversees the execution of the iron work, and of six hundred dollars allowed to an assistant engraver, eight thousand dollars:

For repairs of furnaces, cost of rollers and screws, timber, bar iron, lead, steel, pot ash, and for all other contingencies of the mint, two thousand seven hundred and seventy five dollars:

For an allowance for wastage in the gold and silver coinage, including a deficiency in the appropriation for the year one thousand eight hundred and ten, arising from the increase of the coinage for that and several antecedent years, six thousand eight hundred dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the territory of Orleans, thirteen thousand dollars:

For expense of stationery and other contingent expenses of said territory, including the sum of one thousand dollars for a deficiency in the appropriation for the year one thousand eight hundred and ten, two thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the Mississippi territory, including the sum of one thousand one hundred and thirteen dollars and thirty three cents for a deficiency in the appropriation for the year one thousand eight hundred and ten, ten thousand one hundred and thirteen dollars and thirty three cents:

For expense of stationery, office rent, and other contingent expences of said territory, three hundred and fifty dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the Indiana territory, six thousand six hundred dollars:

For expence of stationery, office rent and other contingent expences of said territory, three hundred & fifty dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the Michigan territory, six thousand six hundred dollars:

For expense of stationery, office rent and other contingent expences of said territory, three hundred & fifty dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the Louisiana territory, six thousand six hundred dollars:

For expense of stationery, office rent and other contingent expenses of said territory, three hundred & fifty dollars:

For compensation to the governor, judges and secretary of the Illinois territory, six thousand six hundred dollars:

For expense of stationery, office rent and other contingent expenses of said territory, three hundred & fifty dollars:

For the discharge of such demands against the United States, on account of the civil department, not otherwise provided for, as shall have been admitted in due course of settlement at the treasury, two thousand dollars:

For additional compensation to the Clerks in the several Departments of State, Treasury, War and Navy, and of the General Post Office, not exceeding, for each department respectively, fifteen per centum in addition to the sums allowed by the act, entitled "An act to regulate and fix the compensation of clerks, and to authorise the laying out certain public roads, and for other purposes," thirteen thousand two hundred and sixty nine dollars and thirty two cents:

For compensation granted by law to the chief justice, the associate judges and district judges of the United States, including the chief justice and two associate judges for the district of Columbia; to the attorney general, and to the district judge of the Territory of Orleans, fifty nine thousand four hundred dollars:

For the like compensation granted to the several district attornies of the United States, three thousand four hundred dollars:

For compensation granted to the several marshals for the district of Maine, New Hampshire Vermont, New Jersey, North Carolina, Kentucky, Ohio, East and West Tennessee and Orleans, two thousand two hundred dollars:

For defraying the expenses of the supreme, circuit and district courts of the United States, including the district of Columbia, and of jurors and witnesses, in aid of the funds arising from fines, forfeitures and penalties, and for defraying the expenses of prosecutions for offences against the United States, & for the safe keeping of prisoners, forty thousand dollars.

For the payment of sundry pensions granted by the late and present government, nine hundred and sixty dollars:

For the payment of the annual allowance to the invalid pensioners of the United States, from the fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, to the fourth of March, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, ninety eight thousand dollars:

For the maintenance and support of light houses, beacons, buoys and public piers, stakeages of channels, bars and shoals, and certain contingent expences, sixty eight thousand nine hundred sixty five dollars and thirty nine cents:

For erecting light houses at the mouth of the Mississippi, and at or near the