Josiah Sturgis
vs
Richard Crowninshield

This cause came on to be heard on the Transcript of the Record of the Circuit Court of the United States for the first Circuit and District of Massachusetts and on the questions on which the Judges of that Court were divided in ~~that~~ opinion and was argued by Counsel on consideration whereof, this Court is of opinion that since the adoption of the constitution of the United States, a State has authority to pass a Bankrupt law provided such law does not impair the obligation of Contracts within the meaning of the constitution, and provided there be no act of Congress in force to establish an uniform system of Bankruptcy conflicting with such laws. —

This Court is further of opinion that the act of New-York, which is pleaded in this case, so far as it attempts to discharge the contract on which this suit was instituted, is a law
