Proclamation being made the Court is opened.—

The Court being informed, that William Pinkney, a gentleman of this Bar, highly distinguished for his learning and his talents, departed this life last night in this City, the Judges have determined, as a mark of their profound respect for his character, and sincere grief for his loss, to wear crape on the left arm for the residue of the Term: and to adjourn for the purpose of paying the last tribute to his remains by attending them from the place of his death.—

Proclamation being made the Court is adjourned until tomorrow morning at twelve O'clock.—
