HERBERT R. O'CONOR

U. S. Senator Millard E. Tydings

Editorial

VOTE FOR O'CONOR AND TYDINGS

It is up to you, the voters of Maryland, to bring an end to the chaotic mismanagement under which Maryland has suffered during the past four years of the Nice administration.

The State of Maryland is in debt to the tune of nearly fourteen million dollars for money borrowed—every cent of which was used for current expenses. We haven't a single dollar's worth of capital improvements to show for this enormous expenditure.

The campaign is at an end, and Governor Nice has failed to discuss a single issue. He has gone off into by-paths in the hope of diverting the public mind from the failures of his administration.

Four years ago Governor Nice was elected on a series of reckless promises, none of which has been kept. His record of appointments of Magistrates is a sorry one. In Baltimore City he named as Police Commissioner a man who was actively engaged in the liquor business. He named as a Justice of the Peace the proprietor of a notorious night club. He named as head of the Maryland State Police J. Purdon Wright, who accepted a fee of $250.00 in connection with the now famous Paperhangers' Bill.

He appointed men to the State Roads Commission solely with an eye to their political worth. As a result, the State Roads System has deteriorated. Millions of dollars of gasoline tax money have been diverted, and we now have a pretty sorry mess on our hands.

The Democratic Party is pledged to an amendment to the Constitution so that the Governor will not succeed himself. This promise will be kept.

Herbert R. O'Conor will give the State of Maryland a public school system free from political influence and totally free from any other kind of outside influence. Everyone who knows Herbert R. O'Conor and his record knows that this is so.

Every appointment made by Herbert R. O'Conor during his entire public career has been motivated in the people's interest, and he has never named a man to office except that he was fully qualified by reason of character, integrity and ability.

Senator Millard E. Tydings, now seeking re-election, is the kind of Marylander who makes us swell with pride. He deserves re-election to the United States Senate on his record of public service. He is courageous, and a powerful force in our Democracy. He, along with Herbert R. O'Conor, should be overwhelmingly elected.

The State-wide, Congressional and local Democratic ticket deserves your support.

Vote for O'Conor and Tydings.

As the election date approaches closer the local interest in the candidates both State and local increases. Due to many cuases there has been generated a very considerable degree of political animosity in both departments, state, and local.

The State organization has gone into full speed ahead and the campaign on all fronts is energetic and aggressive, leaving the Republican no position but defense, this active aggressive campaign is showing results in the democratic optimism, and also in the growing gloominess shown by the Republican chieftians.

The State Central Committee and the County Central Committee are both driving with all their power to consolidate the voters and get out a maximum vote on election day. No recent election has been so interesting and none in which the probable result was as hard to foretell.

From all the districts come the reports of much intensive work, the democratic organization being reported as very much ahead in organizing and consolidating the votes of the party. and making a most determined effort to recruit the disgruntled elements of the Republicans into Democratic camp.

Regardless of the prognostications of the Republican Party leaders in Cecil County and the State, the Democrats will carry our County, State, and National ticket on November 8th. by the largest majority in the history of the County electing every candidate from the top to the bottom of the Ballot.

It is not necessary at this time to elucidate or enumerate the sterling qualifications of the various candidates selected for the several offices at the Primary Eelection. Each of the nominees are especially qualified for the office to which they aspire. This is evidenced by the fact that every candidate in the Primary Election has shown his true sportmanship by putting his shoulder to the wheel, and has given unselfishly his energetic support to the man who merged successfully at the Primary and to the ticket as a whole throughout the Campaign. The harmony of the Democratic organization has met every challenge on a clean basis, and all issues in the campaign have been made clear to the Electorate of the County .

The battle cry of the Democratic Party throughout the Campaign has been "one for all and all for one," and the effectiveness of this lending of help and aid to each other will be made manifest in the returns which will be recorded on Election Day, next Thursday, November 8th.

TO THE VOTERS OF CECIL COUNTY

It has come to my attention that a rumor has been spread throughout Cecil County that I have already selected a Deputy Sheriff to serve with me should I be elected Sheriff of Cecil County.

I do not know how this rumor started but I do know that it is entirely false. I wish to go on record, publically, here and now, that I have made no commitments to anyone, that I am not obligated to appoint any one and that I will absolutely not consider anyone until after the election.

DAVID J. RANDOLPH

Should I be elected Sheriff of Cecil County, and I hope to be, I will then give careful and deliberate consideration to the problem of selecting a Deputy Sheriff who will measure up to the High Standards of service to my County that I have set up for my self.

I have tried to be courteous and honest to all I have met and it has been very gratifying to me to know that ih has been so well received.

It is my intention to keep a clear and accurate set of books of each and every transaction that comes to my office as Sehriff and continue to serve everyone in a courteous and impartial manner.

Democratic Campaign Chairman Confident Of Sweeping Victory

Clarence W. Miles, In Statement Just Issued, Declares Indications Point To At Least 15 of 23 Counties Voting Democratic, With 60,000 Majority In Baltimore City.

With the election only a few days off, a sweeping Democratic victory is predicted by Clarence W. Miles, chairman of the Democratic Advisory Campaign Committee.

Optimism is running high at campaign headquarters in Baltimore as the final stages of the long, exciting campaign are reached.

The enthusiasm with which the large audiences have greeted Herbert R. O'Conor, candidate for Governor; Millard E. Tydings, seeking re-election as U. S. Senator; William C. Walsh, seeking election as Attorney-General; J. Millard Tawes, candidate for election as Comptroller; and James A. Young, running for re-election as Clerk of the Court of Appeals, has given much encouragement to those who have been directing the Democratic campaign.

Mr. Miles predicts a majority of more than 60,000 votes for the Democratic ticket in Baltimore City, and expects at least 15 of the 23 counties to return Democratic pluralities.

Complete Harmony in Baltimore City

In a statement, just released by Mr. Miles, he said:

"Reports from all of the counties visited by Mr. O'Conor, Senator Tydings, and the statewide Democratic ticket all point to an overwhelming victory for the Democratic Party. There is complete harmony in Baltimore City and all factions are behind Mr. O'Conor, Senator Tydings, and the whole Democratic ticket.

"A great many Republicans, including a number influential in the Republican Party as well as the rank and file, have indicated their preference for Mr. O'Conor and shows a widespread revolt among thinking Republicans. All signs point to a sweeping Democratic victory. Indications point to a majority of more than 60,000 votes for the Democratic ticket in Baltimore City, with at least 15 of the 23 counties returning Democratic pluralities."

Mr. O'Conor said:

"The reception we received has been most heartening in Southern Maryland where we are assured of most satisfactory majorities. In Western Maryland, where Governor Nice secured the bulk of his county majority in 1934, indications are that this Republican majority will be cut down tremendously, if not entirely. On the Eastern Shore and in the Central counties this entire Democratic ticket seems assured of success generally.

Enough of Republican Administration

"All this, together with the proven strength of our ticket in Baltimore City, where we confidently expect a very large majority, indicates that Maryland will return the Democratic Party to power. On every side we have heard from Republicans and Democrats alike that they have had enough of Governor Nice's Administration at Annapolis and there is a clear indication that the statewide Democratic ticket will be overwhelmingly successful on November 8th."

Senator Tydings, who has covered the state with Mr. O'Conor and the other statewide candidates, said:

"I am ready to predict one of the most sweeping Democratic victories in many years. The crowds that have turned out everywhere reflect interest in the Democratic program and we have heard repeated declarations of dissatisfaction with the Republican Administration of the past four years.

"We expect a complete Democratic victory, including Mr. O'Conor, Judge Walsh, Mr. Tawes, Mr. Young, myself and the six Democratic Congressional candidates, together with the local Democratic ticket generally."
