THE OTHER FELLOW. How seldom do our dreams come true! The very thing our fancy lets Us hope in time will be our own, some other fellow always gets. We fall in love : our mind's diseased The brain is in a foolish whirl; And while we worship from afar Some other fellow gets the girl.

We try for wealth, deluded fools! As men from Adam's time have done And while we toil, and strive, and fret, Some other fellow yanks the bun. We yearn for fame, and struggle To win some measure of renown, And find that to posterity Some other fellow's name goes down.

If we were of the hope bereft, That in some fairer world than this That the other fellow might get left!

back through the darkness:
"It vhas all right. I make dot feller behave himself or bring him in a prisoner!" He was gone half an hour before I heard anything. Then there was a crushing in the bushes, some swearing and growling, and Jake appeared with a full-rigged Con-federate infantryman, having a firm clutch

"Here vhas dose feller," he announced as they came to a halt. "He doan' promise to keep shtill, und I pring him along."

Jake had actually captured a picket on his post and brought him off a prisoner and would go out to drill. The reb was so mad he cried, but he was turned over to head-quarters, and Private Jake Klein had "Corporal," as a handle to his name after a few days.—N. Y. Sun.

Children's Day at Rock Hall.

Messes. Editões:-June 9 was observed as Children's Day in Rock Hall M. E. Church. The attendance was large all day. The programme, "Six Steps to the Throne," by Dr. Payne, was well rendered. Miss Maggie Hersch, with her usual grace, pre-sided at the organ. She had previously met and trained the scholars in the music, and the result was a compliment to her skill. More voices than usual were trained for this service. The show of flowers was good. Miss Maggie's live canary furnished all the music of that kind needed. A number of the scholars recited appropriate se-lections. Wm. N. Ayers has been placed in the superintendency of this school, in place of F. M. Satterfield, resigned. The new incumbent comes to his place with fine promise of success. Mrs. Sarah Stevens, a very efficient worker, has been selected as his assistant. The school is in a very flourishing condition. Several new teachers have been recently elected. The number of scholars is increasing, and the outlook is encouraging. What a grand work for the enlistment of every heart. By request of Bro. Beck, the superintendent of Piney Neck school, the Chil-dren's Day services in that church were held on June 23. On last evening, in attending the class led by Sister Stevens, we were reminded that the revival fires were not extinguished. The occasion was very precious to many hearts. To God be all the glory. It is estimated that in Rock Hall harbor alone at least one hundred thousand logs have been secured by the energetic men of the place. What has been disaster to some appears to be a godsend to others. To the people of this place, who have been almost entirely without employment, and who have been suffering from an unusual financial collapse, this great drift of sawed lumber and logs has given what promises to be very remunerative employment. Let every heart honor God who has opened this opportunity that it may not prove a bane instead of a blessing. RUSTIC.
