CHESTERTOWN - AUG. 31, 1889.

REPTILES IN THE AIR - A Child carried off by a Snake - A dispatch from Chicago Aug. 19, says: At Sheffield Park, yesterday, an Italian peddler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and in doing so let go his string of bright colored globes. The crowd got twisted about the left arm of two-year-old Sophie Schwab and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward taking her along. Her mother, stricken as the balloons swept close to a tree and the infant grasped a handful of twigs and checked her flight. A young German ascended the tree in an instant and then crept out over the branch nearest the child. At this moment Sophie's strength gave out and the balloons, suddenly released, went again upward at least 100 ft. Flying out over the lake, Gust Koch, a shooter, grabbed a repeating rifle, leaped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch, in piercing silence of the tall, successful, slender holding the sword. Before it finally reached the boat was at the spot, and did not even get her feet wet.
