MOTHER WOUNDED, CHILD DEAD. Norman Allen Accidentally Shot Woman -Child Killed By Fall.

Considerable excitement was caused in the little village of Sudlersville Sunday afternoon, when it was reported that a murder was committed on the outskirts of the town. Alice Green, colored, was found unconscious in front of the door way of her home, with her lower jaw blown off by the charge of a shot-gun and an infant, which was in her arms at the time, lying dead at her feet with a Medical aid was summoned and a posse started in search of the suposed murderer. After regaining consciousness the woman said that a man named Norman Allen, a colored employe on the steamer B. S. Ford, at Chestertown, had passed that way while out gunning. He sat down and was extracting the shells from his gun, when one of them exploded. She said that she supposed the child had broken its neck by the fall from her arms. After the shooting Allen disappeared and has not since been seen. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death from accidental causes. The woman may recover.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

The oyster industry already suffering with a black eye was almost completely knocked out last week by the "Home Coming" festivities in the city. No sales, no demand, everybody and everything in holiday attire, made the oyster market sick indeed. This week the outlook is more hopeful as the packers have begun steaming. Our buyers are taking | 3 larger jags while the prices are still very low, regularity in sales will enable the oystermen to put in more time and make fair wages barring bad weather.

The numerous festivals through the county is encroaching on the time and business of candidates and politicians as they have to attend them all in order to ?? get close to the "dear people" or lose deal. Ex-Sheriff Casey is making the political fur fly now, that his better half is in the city of Brotherly Love. He is using no money, but he is making cigars tell which way the wind blows, and if he doesn't come out a winner it will not be Jim's fault. Some of the hustlers on both sides are wishing that the battle of the ballots was fought. These frosty mornings put kinks in them and they will not put on thicker duds until after the election.

Mrs. Minnie Durding was removed to the hospital on Friday of last week to be treated for cancerous effections, and we learn that an operation has been performed and she is slightly better. Many prayers and good wishes are expressed for her recovery.

Revival services are being held this week in the M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Burr will have the assistance of Evangelist Clark, of Va., as long as the meetings will justify his presence. Rev. Mr. Jefferson, of Baltimore, and Dr. Corkran will also assist during the progress of the extra services. The meetings are having good effect so far.

THE OFFICIAL BALLOT.

The copy of the official ballot appears in this issue. As will be seen, the ballot is a very large one, and one that will require a good deal of care in voting. There are nineteen Democratic candidates on the ticket, so that to vote the entire Democratic ticket will require nineteen separate crossmarks. We urge upon all our readers who are voters to make a careful study of the ballot and be sure they understand fully how to vote. If Chestertown, in doubt, consult some good Democrat in your neighborhood.
