FAIRLEE MATTERS.

Let everybody come.

We understand that Mr. Purnell Jump | 3 and his popular daughter and son will remove to our village for the winter.

Mr. G. W. Copper, contractor, has a large force of workmen rapidly pushing to completion the home and outbuildings on Mr. Fred G. Usilton's farm. This | 39 outlay in our community is appreciated and will be quite an improvement to the community. We welcome Mr. Blackiston and his industrious family.

Mrs. Joiner, mother of Mr. Ridgway Joiner, died near here Sunday night. The next meeting of the St. Paul's Sewing Circle will be held next month at Mr. George Bell's.

The new firm of Kilbourn & Smythare fully installed, and they are as busy as can be. They are buying much poultry and already their Christmas trade is beginning to boom.

Mr. A. L. Hudson has his shoulder to the wheel and is pushing his trade along with vigor. Capt. W. W. Price, is behind the counter, with a vim dispensing to the wants of his customers. Mr. S.D. Leverton, our butcher, has furnished his many customers with excellent meat this season. The way he handled his meats and the very neat appearance of his meat store is excellent.
