BRIGADE ORDERS.

The 3d Brigade of Maryland Militia will parade in Baltimore street, on the morning of the 4th of July next, precisely at 7 o'clock. The infantry will rest their right on the intersection of Baltimore and Charles-sts.—the artillery will take post on the right, and the cavalry on the left of the infantry; and thus formed, the brigade will move to Pratt-street Avenue, when three rounds will be fired in honor of the Anniversary of American Independence.

A search of arms is recommended in each corps previous to its joining the Brigade, that accidents may be avoided—and as it is presumed that the cartridge boxes are filled with ball cartridges, they will be dispensed with on this occasion.—By order of Brig. Gen. Stricker,

J. CALHOUN, Brigade Major,
3d Brigade M. M.
