The fact is clearly established establ the first missiles were thrown from the steam boat, Jewess at the Annapolitans on the wharf. Also, that a considerable number of rifles were fired by persons in the Jewess, and by some in the uniform of Capt. McAllister's company.

One or more of the Baltimore papers seemed to condemn the originators of the riot and to wish them brought to punishment, while they referred to he testimony olis. It is obvious, that persons in a crow- der, from Vera Cruz, via Tampico and the gether in life, and they are now together in
