Wednesday,

The 14 h day of February, 1849 at 11 . clock A. M. A valuable and extensive farm in Kent county, known as Howell's Point, containing about 1453 acres of limit It lies opposite to Spesutie Island, about 10 miles from Chestertown, near to the mouth of the Sassafras river, and binde on the Chesepeak bay some two miles, thus offering a cheap and convenient water communication with the Baltimore matket, for all kinds of farm and garden producte. The shores are so bold as to permit vessels of any or linary dranght to approach within a few feet of the land. -There are about 800 acres of cleared land agreat portion of which is remarkably kind and of easy cultivation, vi 1.ling large crops of wheat, corn, oats, &c., with litthe labor. The remainder is in wood, affording an almost inexhaustible supply of railroad and ship timber of the best quality, for which there is a constant and in creasing demand on he place. There are also extensive beds of decomposed oysters-shells and of other fossil nanures, more than enough to fertilize the whole farm. Wild fowl and fish of the choicest kinds abound about its shores; on which
