

Saturday, March 3, 1819.

determined to have a share in the golds and the pleasing murmurings on all sides Mr. Paulus Power has been nominated spirit of progress have been illustrated by be idle, and therefore abandoned it. en wealth acquired under the lucky? ad- - The General has come! ministration of the incumbent who retires to-day.

their share of whatever may attract their and salute him, he does not appear to have tricts. In the former Mr. Arkinson d - all good pairiots, but it ought not to en jections to its being made public. I un- 5 It the legislation be wanting in ei. attention. They go fully armed and e- suffered much. He is in cheerful spirits clines running again, and the Democrats courage the people to make any more mis- derstood him to wish in some way to ther Pennsylvania or Virginia, it is only to the people to make any more misquiped and will take the over-land route duty, the moment the hour arrives. from Independence Mo. To the active The Whig states that besides the gentleand senterprising, the present is an oppor- men who accompained Gen. Taylor from Mr. Bocock in the Buckingham District, if tunity for wealth and wild adventure that New New Orleans, he was joined by the the Whigs there do their duty. may never again occur in the history of and friends-from Kentucky!

Gen. Taylor's Arrival at Washington

Washington on Friday evening, was made lowing incident. te count of the reception;

Corporal authorities of Washington and a the wealth of the country, and added Colonel Bliss, proceeded in an extra train how to take care of themselves. to the Relay House.

At an early hour in the day, a large concourse of ladies and gentlemen had assembled at the Relay House from the surrounding country and from the city of The Committee of Congress appointed to - Bullimore, to do honor to the President, and by the afternoon trains from that city thousands came to join them.

dent on board arrived at the Relay Heuse made an eloquent address to the General going into a congenial sphere, where his med that a gentleman from Georgia, (Mr. at four o'clock P. M., and the crowd was concluding as fo'llows: so great, that the doors of the car in which he was had to be locked, to prevent his being surrounded by the pressure. er, as soon, as it became known to the military services -a life of earnest devo- advantage, and where his mistakes will do States. He regretted that the gentleman President that they were in waiting, were tion to your country-your whole count less harm. invited into his car, and the doors were a try-give high hope and expectation in It is a perilous post for any man to oc- allusion to the subject whatever, because gain locked. The usual courtesies were the public mind that, on taking the chair supy-that of the Presidency of the Uni+ he was satisfied that no good could result exchanged by the Mayor's introducing the first held by Washington, and which is ted States. For an inferior man it is fated. from it. He had had no conversation delegates to the President and in the name sacred to every American heart, you will No nominations of Conventions, nor ma- with the gentleman from Georgia during of the corporation of Washington, he was be able to hush the winds and still the jorities of popular votes, can save one of the present session. He was not aware In consequence of the anxiety of the constitution, with all its harmonizing com- inexorable judgement which tests the in therefore there could have been no conmultitudes to speak to the President, a de- promises-to promote the permanent pros- most quality of mir.d and heart- that judge- cert in giving publicity to the matter about lay in the department of the train was oc- perity, and further illustrate the honorable ment of the public, which, knowing no which he desired to speak. casioned, and in the interval, every person fame of our Union." in attendance came up to the window of The following is the substance of Gen- anything but weakness, the car in which he sat and exchanged ral Paylor's reply:

of his expected arrival in an extra train .- | the whole country. In the interval rockets were let off, illuminating the vicinity.

again sent up.

dent sat, being escorted by the Marshal of the committee his thanks for the manner one. the District.

On passing the National Whig Office, been discharged.

almost a race, in consequence of the in- ness.

riage, entered the house. Soon, long and mounts to $6, 897, 50. Of these the pie- which broke upon them at Buena Vista, stantially, and I think almost literally, "Mr. Ohio, and Mr. Whittlesey, of the same __Somerset Herald. loud cries arose calling for Old Zack, and ces transmitted to John Y. Mason, Esq., the American people at this moment and Wilmot, bring it forward in that form; I State, are mentioned for the Post Office all cyes were directed towards the balcony the Secretary of the Navy, were marked in all coming time would say that he fell assure you such a declaration would not Department. However, with the excepon which they expected him to appear .- with the letters "Cal." over the head of a sacrafice to the jealousy of a man who, be unpopular in Mississippi." I noted tion of Mr. Clayton for the State Depart- Washington, to take his seat as Sentil The Mayor of the city came out and stathe eagle. The other pieces with a few from the 4th Mayor of the city came out and stathe eagle. The other pieces with a few from the 4th Mayor of the city came out and stathe eagle. The other pieces with a few from the 4th Mayor of the city came out and stathe eagle. ted that the President would presently ap- exceptions had no distinctive mark.

the marine Band, tendered on the occasion by Gen. Henderson, was heard in the distance, followed by the Rough and Ready Club and a large concourse of citizens -- sonal comfort incident to his position, and stand for a re-election.

Col. James Taylor, Ky. Miss Taylor, of only 22 to contend against, where Mr. (Ky. Miss Payton, La. Mr. Christy, Ky. Polk got 518 majority. Mrs. Christy. Miss Wickliffe, Ky. Miss Mr. PRESTON, we doubt not will hold

The arrival of Gen. Taylor and suit, at The National Intelligencer relates the fol- of the result.

A gentleman, who accompained Gen. From the Baltimore American. the occasion of a grand demonstration on Taylor from Cumberland informs us that the part of the citizens, who turned out en his car was literally waylaid by a party of Mr. Polk's Administration. masse to welcome the old hero. The miners in the vicinity of that place, who Whig, of Saturday, has the following ac- determined to have a single sight at General. In a few remarks that he mad to them he uttered the following sentimen Yesterday, at noon, a committee of the he said they were the men who develope delegation of the Rough and ready Club, good roads and good laws were all the accompanied by the Mayor of the city and we wanted, for the American people knew

INTERESTING CEREMONY. GEN. TAYLOR'S ACCEPTANCE.

The delegations from this city, howev- for your long, arduous, and most brilliant his good qualities will appear to better clarations of the President of the United effect, to defeat the object entirely. He in California.

of the cars, a report having been circulated ernment for the benefit and advantage of tion.

The side pavements of the Avenue were had a very agreeable interview, and parted pear. After a short interval, the Music of CONGRESSIONAL CANVASSIN VIR-GINIA

Soon after it came up the President appear- tains the following information relative to am fatigued and require rest. You have Piras of Accomac, at present a member of opinion. my gratitude for the attentions which the States Senate; as the Whig candidate for Nevertheless it was a gallant war in the On my return to my lodgings, I draugh- dily susceptible of a Stackwater improve have been paid me- | three cheers for Old Congress against Hon. Thomas H. BAYLY way of fighting; and it was brought to a ted a resolution in accordance with the ment, to the point of intersection with the Zack-order, order, allow me to express Tr. J.M. Fornes has been nominated by triumphant conclusion even although the suggestions made; but upon consultation railroad. my best wishes for the welfare and happi- the Whigs of the Coroline District. Who President's Lieutenant General did not get with friends of more legislative experience 3. There is legislation in Virginia not ness of all of you. | Loud cheers and the Democratic candidate will be is not upon the fild; while Santa Anna, by the than myself, (never before having been a only allowing of such an improvement, but CALLEGENIA. - It will be seen by a call calls for Col. Bliss] wet determined; mention is most generally President's favor, did. The President retired and the crowd made of Mr. HENRYA. WASHINGTON, as be- The greatness of this Republic, its won- fully satisfied that any attempt to get tion of funds.

> by a Democratic Convention to oppose Mr. Polk in one respect; he has shown in I informed the gentleman from South provement to the Virginia State line, and The President looks well and though Mr. Googin, who, by universal desire, and his own case how slightly the blunders of Carolina, immediately in fr ni of me, [Mr. the Company by whym the present in.

young men who will be very apt to get ble desire of his fellow-citizens to see him didates in the Norfolk and Petersburg Dis- This should be a matter of consolation to cynstituents, and ask me if I had any ob. sufficient. and is prepared to buckle on the armor of will choose another champion. Mr. R. lakes in putting men into the Presidency make public the declaration of the Presidency of the P K. MEADE holds on in the latter, > following ladies and gentlemen-relatives Mr. FL URNOY the popular member from the Halifax District, thus a Cass majority ing to a close, has been signalized by re- of Mr. Wilmou's remark !! markable events, which, while they must In the House of Representatives, give it a prominent place in history, will have the curious effect also of illustrating the mediocrity of the man.

Gen. Taylor was too unwell on Satur- Edmonson, the Democratic nominee.

his Administration has been highly suc considerationcessful; yet they must admit that hellost | Mr. Wilmot requested that this friend the confidence of his supporters and nev- from Michigan (Mr. McCielland) would er regained it. No voice in the conven- yield the floor, to enable him to make tion of his party was raised for his re- brief statement, which he felt was dalled nomination. He passes now from public for from him at this time. The request life without elicting from any quarter any being granted, upon condition that a few notify Gen. Taylor of his election, waited expression of regret. Indeed, the general moments only should be occupied on him on Monday. Hon. Jefferson Da- sentiment seems to be that in moving from The Cumberland train with the Presi- vis, Chairman of the of the committee, his present position to the obscure range abilities will find a theatre better fitted for Stephens,) in the course of his remarks to "The character of your election—the their useful exercise than that upon which this committee, had referred to him, in general feeling of admiration and gratitude he has been for some time acting—where connection with certain expressions or de-sympathy for individuals, can yet pardon During the second session of the prece- advice of Dr. Witherspoon, "Lever to rise

make Mr. Polk a great man. But they respect, much less in a matter so impor- finished discourse on the character of Menokin, some weeks since, announced here. from which was displayed the national Washington, which was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the Back the Residence of the national Washington, which was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the Residence of the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply to Presbytery for less than the national was heard with de- intention to apply the national was heard with the national was flog, the President was saluted by nine President Polk, and was cordially and handsomely received by him and his lady. They own tint of green to the eyes of his excellency. The people beheld with astonish- Congress, in any other form, as the exment and indignation, this hero after their pression of Congress, in an authoritative head quarters of the President, and the intended procession was thus converted into of repeated battles, striped of his best troops territory that we might acquire from Mex that Abbot Lawrence, and Geo. W. Craw- ety, faithfulness, ability and acceptableness in the heart of the enemy's country, and ico and I doubted not that such was the ford, of Ga, have been telegraphed by the as a preacher and his urbanity in social were let off at different points on the Ave- California Gold at the Mint. - We left exposed to the overwhelming force feeling of others who had favored the President elect, to return to that city. - tercourse will long be remembered in a nue, Bengola lights were burned, bon-fires learn from the Union, that the amount of of an adversary coming down upon him movement. I suggested in the course of They will, it is confidently said, be offered community; Into whatever other portion ble zed on the wall and at other places, and California gold deposited at the mint of like a bird of prey upon its victim. Gen- the conversation, the introduction of a places in the Cabinet. It is circulated of the Lord's Vineyard, he may be called Philadelphia for coniage up to Wedneday eral Taylor seemed deemed to sacrifice; joint resolution declaring this principle, there that the Hon. M. P. Gentry, of the tolabor, he will be followed by many prayer In a few moments the President reached last, was $58,522. The only comage of and if he had fallen, if he and his brave and said that I should be satisfied with it House, was offered one of the Depart- and best wishes for the health and happy his head quarters and landing from his car- California gold is in quarter eagles; and a- companions had sunk under the avalanche in that form. The President said, sub ments, and declined it. Mr. Erving, of ness of himself and his interesting family ness and dreaded him as a competitor. | State, but supposed and made no doubt dit.

foredit for large territorial acquisitions .- posely presented an example in which the We have obtained N. Mexico and California slave interest was stronger than in Tenas the result of the war and of the Treaty nessee. He further said, that he had The Patriot learns from official source. The Richmond Times of Thursday con- which gives to Mexico and California as been brought up sucrounded with this in- we presume, the following facts in relation the result of the war and of the treaty which stitution, (slavery;) that all his habits and to the extension of the Baltimore and Ohio ed on the balcony, with his head uncov- the nominations of candidates for Congress gives to Mexico some fifteen or twenty associations were connected with it, but," to Gentlemen: I have not appeared to ensuing election in April: make a speech, even if I were able. I has assembled at Hampton nominated Mr. upon which every man may have his own done without endangering the peace and gart's Valley liver.

derful power of vitality, its indomnitable through Congress such a resolution would 4. There is legislation in Pennsylva. necessarily faugued by the sacrifice of per- without the necessity of a nomination, will mediocrity can affect the onward course of Woodward.] of this conversation a few provement, as far as Brownsville; has been things, and that the country must prosper days after it occurred. He spoke of it as made, are prepared to extend it to the The Whigs have not yet nominated can- even with minimum of wisdom at its head. a matter of interest and importance to his point as soon as the inducement shall be who are not fit for it, and who really have dent to me respecting the extension of couragement to the improvement, the Mr. HENRY P. IRVINS is sure of beating no business there.

MR. POLK AND MR. WILMOT.

speech, in which he referred to a conver- pie of public discussion, either here or river, as to ensure its ultimate acomplish. sation he had with Mr. Pilk and accor- through the press of the country. his own in the Monroe Di-trier, against Mr. ding to his version of it, this conversa- Some time during the last session of enther of those Sates, although they would tion and Mr. Polk's subsequent course in- Congress, in conversation with the gen- gently faciliate that object. day to receive his friendst as templated.— We understand he has no apprehensions to receive his friendst as templated.— We understand he has no apprehensions to receive his friendst as templated.— We understand he has no apprehensions to receive his friendst as templated.— We understand he has no apprehensions tency, to cull it by no other name, which with others in his presence, I narrated subwent directly to impeach his character as stantially what I have here said. The an officer and a man. So serious a charge genileman has thought proper to refer to nia, sent an important notification to the legainst the chief magistrate will not be it on this floor. I repeat my regret that U.S. Consul at Panama, in which he say passed over in silence, we suppose. To he has done so, because I can see no posprepare our readers for Mr. Polk's reply, sible good that can result from it; but in Mr. Polk's Administration, now draw- we publish the following authentic report so far as any responsibility may attach to February 17, 1849.

The bill appropriating for the execution of the conversation. The President's friends will claim that in part of the Mexican treaty being under

Mr. Wilmot proceeded to say:

That while listening to an interesting

The President elect, in signifying his ted with that unpardonable fault. He ex- viso which I had offered at the previous Cone." The speech of Mr. Pearce on the his way through snow about two feet deep ding their way towards the depot in this been chosen by the people avowed e- with it its accompaniment, want of frank- tion which he desired should be made to city, in crowds, to be present at the ap- motions of the profoundest gratitude, ness, a disposition to finesse, a proneness to enable him to conclude a peace with Mex- part represents. — Clipper. proach of the old hero. In a short time and declared his distrust of the ability to deceive in little things and in great, an after ico. It was previous to the introduction the car-house was filled. In front of the lulfil the expectations, upon which their tectation of boldness with a shrinking tideput there were about two thousand peo- confidence was based, but gave assurance midity at the crisis. Lamentable defects of such a measure, which he was extreme- A difficulty occurred about two werks ern route be determined on for the great deput there were about two thousand people looking every moment for the arrival of a fixed purpose to administer the gov- these-and most lamentable in his posieither sent for me, or I had called upon town, on the Eastern Shore of Viaginia, will gre ily aid Congress in determining The Oregon business disclosed the man him, and he expressed a desire that I between the citizens of that neighborhood the western terminus." In alluding to the fact to which his at- to the whole nation. He has never been should call again, naming the time, when and a party of marauders from Philadeltention had been drawn, that the chairman able to look the public in the face since he could have an opportunity of conver- phia. The Baltimore American learns THE END OF A DESPERATE FAMILY. At a few moments past eight o'clock, of the committee represented a public body that. And yet that very business which sing with me without interruption. I cal- that a fleet of twenty boats from the latter A young but notorious man named Mayth the whistle of the locomotive was heard, a majority of whom were opposed in politand in an instant, the shout of the thou. ical opinion to the President elect, he re- made, if he had been an abler, and braver the evening. The President said that the had been an abler, and braver the evening. The President said that the had been an abler, and braver the evening. The President said that the had been an abler, and braver the evening. sands who had assembled at the depot, cognized in it the deference to the popular man, the sure means of the most brilliant proviso was giving him great trouble and ters, in violation of the laws of the State, The Maythe's brothers; well known went up in token, that ZACHARY TAY, will, constitutionally express, on which success. It does not the American char-LOR the President elect of the American rest the strength and hope of the repub- acter to back out in any thing; and when amendment to an appropriation bill, would and armed with two pieces of cannon, to have inherited a common doonpeople, had reached the confines of our ci- lic, and he said that it was to have been the President of the United States had de- present a serious obstacle in the way of thus prepared a conflict ensued, in which have been influenced by a common fatality ty. The loud-mouthed cannon soon an- expected of the Senate of the United States clared to the world that our title to the consumating a peace. He said that he one oysterman was killed and the most First Smith Maythe, after performing var nounced to the whole city the fact of the He expressed an ardent wish that he might whole of Oregon was clear and unquestion- had no doubt of his ability to negotiate on of the masts of the schooners shot away. our exploits in his vocation as a robbender of the whole city the fact of the arrival of the old chief, and rockets were be able in any degree to assuage the able," nothing remained but to hold on to early peace and named a day not distant, Ninety persons were subsequently captur- ter having broken several penitentiants fierceness of party, or temper with mode- it, and make it good to the letter. There within which he could bring about such ed and lodged in juil, but released on ac- meets with death upon the scaffold by After the necessary delay at the outward ration the conflicts of those who are only would have been no war; for nothing a result, provided the appropriation, was count of some informality. In the skirm- summary hands of an incensed mobile station, the train reached the depot on the divided as to the means of securing the would have been easier than for our Gov- unrestricted and unclogged with any con- ish that took place one of the Virginians Kentucky. Scott Maythe connected we station, the train reached the depot on the ernment to have satisfied every scruple of ditions. I presumed to question the effi- was shot, the ball entering the mouth and a band of counterfeiters on an I landing the locomotive, great difficulty was experi- Having been reminded that he was a- British honor and every claim of British honor and enced in effecting a landing of the Presi- bout to occupy the chair once filled by right by an ample pecuniary compensation about so desirable a result; and expressed ing away one of his ears. dent, owing to the eagerness of the crowd Washington he said he could hope to em- to the Hudson's Bay company for all their my apprehension, that an appropriation of pressing forward to get a glimpse of him. | ulate him only in the singleness of the property and interests that had accumula- the character he desired, would excre the About a quarter to nine o'clock, the aims which guided the conduct of the ted or grown up during the joint occupa- jealousy of the Mexican people, and cause President succeeded in reaching a carriage man who had no parallel in history, and cy. accompained by his suit and the Committee of the Corporate authorities. So soon tee of the Corporate authorities. So soon to the countrymen."

Washington, was celebrated at St. Mary's of this family of desperadoes, Walter May the Reading Room the, who had served in the pentential by saying that he was much better information.

College, Baltimore, by the Reading Room the, who had served in the pentential by saying that he was much better information. as the latter procured conveyances, the latter procured conveyances and latter procured conveyances. Carriages drove off at a brisk pace up the ness to take the oath of office on the fifth which he enforced the utmost of a doubt- I possibly could be; and spoke of having says: Washington's Farewell Address brawl on Friday last. So ends the race!

Avenue to Nillard's hotel, the Provident of March proving at such bour and class. Avenue to Nillard's hotel, the President's of March proximo, at such hour and place tul claim against Mexico. Succumbing to confidential agents in Mexico, who keep was read in a clear and impressive manner head-quarters,—that in which the Presi- as might be designated; and expressed to a powerful adversary, he bullied a weak him fully informed as to the movements by E. H. Bartlett. The orator of the day and temper of the Government there. I John Leeds Barrell, of Kent county, (a) This gentleman, who has for about set in which the duty assigned to them had The war fellowed—a war full of bril- assured the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class,) then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class,) then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class,) then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class,) then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, then rose, en years past, been the Pastor of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, the past of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, the past of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, the past of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, the past of the Senior class, the past of the President that I had no wish member of the Senior class, the past of the Senior class of the Senior clas liant success. But none of these could to embarrass his Administration in any and pronounced a beautiful and highly byterian Congregations of Wicomico and member of a legislative body.) I became encouraging it by a conditional approba-slavery. I expressed a wish that it should pletion of which to the point where we not be made public-not that the conver. Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will conver. sation was confidential, further than the the Monongahela, will be demanded nature of it, would imploy confidence strongly by the importance of that come In the House of Representatives, on the but I did not wish that my conversation tion, as well as by the interest of the log 17th inst., Mr. Wilmot of Pa, made a with the President should be made the to- trade of the rich valley of that beautif me in this matter, I have no regrets. Be- passes on the public lands. As nothing fore God I have stated substantially the declarations of the President to me, without, however, entering into all the details

COAST .SURVEY.

was early impressed with the utility of arrival there, to put these laws in force, having correct surveys made of the coast and to prevent heir infraction in lune of this country, so as to have the islands by punishing, with the penalties provided and shoals, places of anchorage, &c., de- by law, all those who effend. signated—and with that view, Congress As these laws are probable not known passed an act in 1807, directing the Presi- to many who are about starting to Califordent to cause such survey to be made .- | nia, it would be well to make it publicly This work is still in progress, and is in known that there are such laws to existhe hands of gentlemen of acknowledged tence, and that they will be, in fature, en science. In the Senate Mr. Benton made forced against all persons not citizens of a motion to reduce the appropriation to the United States, who shall commut any replied to by Senator Pearce, of Maryland, with unsurpassed ability, who succeeded in defeating the proposition. The speech St. Louis Union from Pu-bla, New Mexiof Mr. Pearce has elicted great and de | co, dated on the 23th November, states served applause, and carried conviction to that Col. Eremont and party had comthe minds of the Senators. Maryland is menced the ascent of the first range faithfully and ably represented in the Sen- mountains near Puebla, and were pursuing representatives practice upon the excellent from the letter: ding Congress, I had a conversation with until they have something to say; and al- the ascent of the Snowy Mountains. The ways to conclude as soon as they have last we heard from him he was wending

OYSTER WAR.

TWENTY-SECOND FEBRUARY.

The anniversary of the birth-day of tentiary. To close the infamous career Washington, was celebrated at St. Mary's of this family of desperadoes, Walter Mary

THE EXTENSION.

2. The Monongahela river is vere 182.

ment even without the contributions of IMPORTANT TO EMIGRANTS. Gen. Smith, on his way out to Califor.

The laws of the United States inflict the penalty of fine and imprisonment on tres. can be more unreasononable or unius than the conduct pursued by persons not citizens of the United States. who flocking from all parts to search for and carry off gold from the lands belonging to the United States in California, and as such conduct is in direct violation of law, il The government of the United States will become my duty, immediately on my

COLONEL FREMONT. - A letter to the

"On the 26th Col. FREMONT commenced across the Continent. His present survey will be of much interest. Should a south one of the brothers was killed in St. Louis, and another is now in the Ohio Peni-

FROM WASHINGTON. -- We learn from and acquaintances, to whom he has be