We neglected to change the date of delegate. the News, this week, on the first page, until nearly all the papers were printed.

The Election.

We give below the official returns of our county, by which it will be seen the Whig! ticket has prevailed by handsome majorities. The contest was one of the most spirited we have had since 1838, and it is due to that well tried and faithful Whig, Mr. Spencer, 187 CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT .- This that some remarks should be made in refer- District is comprised of Montgomery, from government. ence to his vote.

St. cers, Kossuth, Dembinski, Perezel, Mesand gallant Whig ALEXANDER ENANS .-But for the inclemency of the weather, M Evans' majority in Kent would have been some 25 to 30 votes more.

We take a peculiar, and honest pride in the election of Mr. Evans, and in the political firmness of our Congressional district. No district in Maryland had less cause to be satisfied with the proceedings at Washington than this. Yet notwithstanding the indifference manifested in a certain hirsin ter, the Whigs of the Kent and Cecil district entered into and conducted the contest with that patriotism and devotion to Whig principles which have! ever distinguished it.em.

It is believed that the unehaken firmness of the Congressional district has secured a Whig majority in the House of Representatives. All proper honor and Senate consists of 14 whigs and 5 locos, commendation to the Whigs of the Fifth! Congressional district of Maryland!!!
