CHESTER TOWN, MD.

Saturday, January 5, 1850.

Mealth of Chester Town.

We publish below the bill of mortality ture. for Chester Town, during last year, 1849. The nggregate of deaths is 53. By com-Although the number of deaths was great- recommended. of age and 6 between 70 and 80-18 of stitution of the State. feet and refrain from exposure to the wea- be precipitated on her. ther, we should find that disease depriv- topics of general importance adverted to in judgement. ed of its powers in a geeat measure.

ber 23 were colored.

ly, 3; Scarlet Fever, 6; Still born, 6; Chol- the State. fection 1; not known infants, 7.

The Legislature.

on Monday last; nothing of any import- in the State Senate. ance was done, except receiving the Governor's message and sclecting officers.

In the Senate, Wm. Lingan Gaither, of cer Hiich, of Caroline, Doorkeeper; and Church, Chaplain.

The Gov. Message.

the Governor, we clip from the Sun:

will be successfully made to disturb the Taylor's message. thirteen years from the present time.

the Governor emphatically says: the system of revenue now in operation; crats; it is too moderate too moderate too moderate too moderate and the assassins are not yet born, busines, arranging his affairs with his cred We have lost an agreeable comrade and - but, on the contrary, every consideration manly - too candid for, some will have it, who can harm it. It is a marriage of States, liois. ef duty, economy and sound policy, ex- not candid enough)-too dignified for gen- for better or for worse, which neither parvisions, until the last dollar of the public preach a crusade against the outside world Those whom God hath joined together, President of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail mong us. No longer is his voice heart expected to every interest of the State, and he does not inform them how he will setespecially to the city of Baltimore, by the the tree soil question-The Nicaragua improvement and maintenance of the cred- question-the New Mexican boundary in the strongest manner. pointed out, improving condition. In a few years strummings of party hurdyguardies, which operation to repeat a single work itherto rested on this State, will be con verted into a blessing."

would only be prudent in preserving dry the South, should a choice of alternatives the message. It looks at the end, as well the message, but there are many others of But while the disunonists make this better those having power who are for preserv-Our population is from 1400 to 1500 and minor importance, which the crowded state and well founded complaint against the mes | ing it at all hazards. How fit and approiest on the Peninsula, Of the whole num- mesaage will be read with interest by our disfavor. On the contrary, if one single rush into the whirlpool of the dissolving says: citizens, embracing as it does, a full and paragraph, more than another in the whole Union, in the mistaken notion that it would Parson M. was met on the road by Dr. struction to all who sought it, and his Summer Complaint, 8; Remittent Fever, 1; Wm. Price, Esq., of Cumberland, in order openly by the side of his country against put in a straight-jacket. Inflamation of Bowels, 2; Congestion of to insure harmony in the Whig ranks, has Lungs, J; Scrofula, J; Croup, 2; Spinal Af- withdrawn his name from the list of candi dates for the U.S. Senate.

> CAROLINE COUNTY .- The whigs of this county have nominated Joseph Pearson,

The President's Message.

really existed. II. Gambrill of Annapolis, Reading Clerk; partial readers, of all classes and factions, rations to come. Whatever damages ma W. Rider, of S merset, Robert P. Lecompte, tion; and we may safely say that the pop- tain it in its integrity, to the full extent of Dorchester Wm Gallower of the food were ular verdict has already stamped President the obligations imposed, and the power of Dorchester, Wm. Galloway, of Harford, Taylor's first message to Congress as a confered upon me by the Constitution." that is not, and omiting nothing that is, in bodies at the South are deliberately prepar-

State Finances. A considerable por- affection for home—the statesman's spirit, try that Great Britain is tempted to acts

State Credit .- The advantages to be in power. They are displeased because it of the state are urged on the Legislature question-and other questions of a simi lar kind, new the occasion of so much pop-Treasury System. - An entire revision ular excitement,-he who has nothing to when these works are finished, says the party mendicants play for for halfpennies.

Governor, "the course of debt, which has They mean nothing, and they are nothing. The only complaint worthy of consideration-and this is worthy of serious con- Good bye to it. Fall of stirring incident Penitentiary - The report of the Direc- sideration - is that made by "the South" has it been, all over the world. Reams for the Speakership, and, in the course of tors of the Penitentiacy is alluded to, and (by which we mean the disunion party of of paper might be written over in even a it, pays his compliments to the South in the attention of the Legislature is called to the South) against the tone of the message brief history of its great events. Its suc- the following manner :the necessary of relieving it from its em on the subject of the Union, and the unmis- cessor-eighteen hundred and fifty-can- I declared to the free soil men, that if etc. etc.; which will be sold at a vent barrasments, by the furnishing of sufficient takable attitude which President Taylor not fail to be also marked with renown - elected. I would appoint committees on advance, cash capital for the economical manage- has taken-tranquility but resolutely taken The present is the age of progress. Re- the Judiciary, the District of Columbia ment of its manufacturing operations. -as its constitutional guardian. We are volutions, momentarily checked, in the and on Territories, composed of able and House of Refuge. -The movement for told that this has given vast offence to the old world, must necessarily recuperate impartial members from both the North the establishment of a House of Refuge in innocent gentlemen who propose the dem- their energies and co mence anew their and the South. who would act fairly and this city is strongly recommended to the olition of the republic, for the redress of great work in the cause of Freedom. attention and fostering aid of the Legisla- wrongs which have never been suffered, must be so. It is manifest destiny that report upon the important questions of and who talk of breaking up the Union as impels and compels the great experiment. | lavery that might be presented. This de-The Militia .- The inefficiency of the a child would talk of breaking up a toy. Here in our own land, where we have claration made in good faith and all canmilitia laws of the State are urged on the There is an uproar against General Taylor, Freedom, some men scarcely know how dor, has been denounced by southern men Legislature, and the enactment of a law in consequence, among certain members of practically to enjoy it. They broach the as treachery of the blackest character. paring this with the Baltimore city table, requiring the sheriffs of the several coun- Congress and in certain districts of the Subject of a dissolution of the Union in From this charge I appeal to my conwe are about as healthy on the average as ties to make out a list, once in every ten South, and to the free man of the North- Departed this life; after a protract that city and more healthy than New York. years of all persons in their bailiwicks is be aimed at the country, is now directed with it deprived it of its manifold evils.— ern States Ought I to have acted other- ness, on the 21st ult., at the advance against him. He, a Southern Piesident, How fortunate we, as a people, are and wise? I had rather been deleated with of over three score years and ten, the Revision of the Constitution.—The Gov it appears, is false to the South. because he enght to consider ourselves then, in have the vote I received, than to have been elec- George D. S. HANDY. er than in 1848 by 17; yet not one was ernor strongly recommends the adoption is true to the Union. He insults those gen- ing in the year 1850. Zachary Taylor in tell under a pledge to pack the committees Mr. Handy was ordained to the occasioned by the Bilious fever, so greatly of an act legalizing the ballot box in order the benefit of the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair, and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair and the slave-holding interest try of the slave-holding interest try of the Protestant Episcopal Chair an but unnecesserily dreaded by strangers .- to effectually test the question of calling a would be the greatest of calumnities;" he the Senate of the South. But the time has come when an early age, and all hor after filteen Two deaths were between 50 and 60 years convention to reform and remodel the Con- outrages them -, is a very tyrant - when he are for the North with no longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements and forever. - the North with no longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship, in good standing, he elements are longer bow the neck Rectorship and longer bow the neck Rectorship are longer bow the neck Rec avers that he will "stand by it and maintain They will stand by it, come what may - to the South. I am strained to withdraw from its g ven Wilmot Proviso - The agitation of the it in its integrity" to "the full extent of the If a State, or a class of States, undertakes done . Stre cannot be satisfied with a mod- his ministerial functions continued the deaths were below one year of age and slavery question at the north and the move- obligations imposed, and the move- obligations imposed imposed imposed in the move- obligations imposed in the move- obligations imposed in the move- obligations imposed in th 38 below 16-leaving only 15 above the ment in the south in view of the probable fered, upon him by the constitution." Is and dissolution is pushed on unto the shed-become the detender of her instructions century. Like his great prototype age of 15. Only one death was occasion- passage of the Wilmot Proviso by Con- General Jackson alive again? and do we ding of blood, as sure as fate the leaders will ed by Consumption-one of the most fatal gress, is adverted to at considerable length hear the the sound of axes and hammers swing for it. An example will have, in that ee, as a traitor, and with a lordly arrogance his attachment to the church was and a declaration in advance, on the part building up those gibbets on which he in- case to be made, and however disagreeable vou aer told that they will dissolve the ted-its ordinances were the role. diseases was Pneumonia or Pleurisy .- of the legislature, is recommended, of the legislature, is recommended, of the legislature, is recommended, the traitors of 1833 as the traitors of 1833 as the traitors of the legislature, is recommended, the traitors of the legislature, is recommended to have the traitors of the legislature, is recommended, the traitors of the legislature, is recommended, the traitors of the legislature, is recommended, the legislature, is recommended, the traitors of the legislature, is recommended, These are occasioned generally by unne- unalterable determination of the State to high as Haman?" No wonder these South- the nation is the man to make it. cessary winter exposure, and if our people stand in the cusis, which he antiaipates, by ern patriots are enraged at this passage of printed in gold on banners and kerchiefs, President, to be fluttered by every American boy, and The confirmation of the nomination of jail to take his trial carried by every American woman, -nav, the Hon. E. Joy Morris, as Charge des Al The Legislature of Maryland, organized Esq., to fill the vacancy from that county which ought to be struck in medals of sil- fairs to Naples, the other day, without op- Passage to California. The U.S. hold fast to the Hope that is set before ver-or of steel-and worn on every man- position, was a compliment to that worthy mail steamship Ohio is advertised to start and derive consolation in that he died ly American bosom: "Attachment to the Union of the States" numerous triends. No other confirmation 3 o'clock, P. M., and is to connect at Pan- communion of the Catholic Church

We have deferred the observations we (says the man of Buena Vista) "should be intended to make -and we have many to habitually fostered in every American heart. Montgomery, was elected President; Jos. make-on the president's message, with a For more than half a century, during which II. Nichelson, of Annapolis, Chief Clerk; view of collecting the opinions of the pub- kingdoms and empires have fallen, this John N. Watkins, of Annapolis, Reading lie and the press in reference to it, and Union has stood unshaken. The patriots places: Clerk; Woolman S. Gibson, of Queen Ann's more particularly the unfavorable opinions who formed it have long since decended and George J. Vickers, of Kent, Commit- which might be expressed by party oppo- to the grave yet still it remains, the proudnents. We felt some little curiosity to est monument to their memory, and the tee Clerks; Andrew Slicer, of Annapolis, know whatcould be said against a document object of affection and admiration with ev- Buildings. Doorkeeper; and Rev. Mr. Nelson of the of its peculiar character and merits, and were ery one worthy to bear the American name. Protestant Episcopal Chuich Chaplain. | willing to wait, concious that the acuteness In my judgement, its disolution would be John R. Franklin, of Worcester, was of political enmity would soon detect all the greatest of calamnities, and to avert elected Speaker of the House; George G. its errors and short-comings, if any such that should be the study of every American. Upon its preservation must depend our Brewer, of Annapolis, Chief Clerk; Alex. We have waited however, in vain. Im- own happiness and that of countless gene Junies McCormick, of Charles county, J. have united in the sentiment of spproba- threaten it, I shall stand by it and main-and Andrew K. Syester, of Washington, document worthy of him and of the repub- In other words, while the preverce idi- for the Senate to say so, by its acts in the perior Court for selling as slaves three need correction. From his birth w Committee Clerks; Benj. L. Gantt, of lic, and concealed to it the merit of being ots of Congress, and elsewhate, are endeav- matter Prince George's, Seargent-at-Arms. Spen- one of the very best state papers that ever oring to form a Traitor Party for the bedemanated from a Chief Magistrate, or from lamitish purpose of rebellion; white incenany ministerial officer of the United States. diary appeals are made by the smaller The Whigs are not disappointed in the the Rev. B. F. Brooke, of the Meth. Epis. Simple, moderate, monly, candid jackbrains at home, to excite Southern and dignified; correct in style and unob- communities to take up arms against they jectionable in sentiment; containing nothing know not what; and while Legislative exact conformity with the republican char- ing the way for treason, by appointing The first and last message of Governor acter and purpose of our great confederacy; delegates to a Southern Convention, cal-Thomas was submitted to the Legislature it breaths the very spirit which, every led, it is pretty plainty intimated, in a cergood citizen feels, should distinguish the tain contingency—as the passage of the ries will be carried out! Oni, nous veron Monday last. It is very lengthy, so official declarations of an American Presis tree-soil proviso, or, terrible to be said, the rons! much so as to prevent its' appearance in dent to Congress, the country, and the admission of California as a free State-to our columns. The following synopsis of world. That spirit is the spirit of wisdom declare the Southern States free and indethe conclusions and recommendations of and integrity—of firmness and moderation pendent while, we say, these mad doings day next. -of courage and conservatism-of justice are toward, presenting to the foreign view and patriotism-of amity to mankind and so alarming a state of things for the coun tion of the message is devoted to an able the national spirit, which, as it was the aggression on the public honor and inan concise review of the financial affairs spirit that distinguished the addresses of terest, the voice of President Taylor, proc. er New Year calls to-morrow. My bow of the State, which are represented to be Washington, it is now so delightful to find laiming his intention to preserve the Union to your readers, and a Happy The Students of Washington College met in a most prosperous and improving con revived by one who, in an age of vicious against all enemies, comes like a trumpet New Year to you all! dition, showing conclusively that the sum excitement and false counsels, despising a. | note of safety and triumph over the Amerof $375,000, at least, after paying the an- like the seductions and the opposition of ican people, who starts to their feet and | Crime and Flight.- The New York of Samuel Eccleston. mul interest may be safety appropriated damagogues, is resolved to tread no path listen with approbation and pleasure. Nor papers mention, mysteriously, an affair, in motion, Mr. Stone was appointed Chairman, annually to the extinguishment of the prin- and follow no example but those of the do they only start and listen. They throng which a merchant, who suspected another and follow no example but those of the do they only start and listen. They throng which a merchant, who suspected another and follow no example but those of the do they only start and listen. They throng which a merchant, who suspected another and follow no example but those of the do they only start and listen. They throng which a merchant, who suspected another lady of uncommon promise. Educate cipal of the debt. The sum is based on father of his country. The spirit of the brave and de- merchant of impropriety towards his wife, appointed Messrs. Fisher, Hollyday, and the lowest possible estimates, and the Gov Farewell Address was never more truly or termined guardian of the republic, to aid went to his house to stab him, but got into Lassell to draw up resolutions appropriate ernor, spon the hypothesis that no attempt more nobly re-echoed than in President him in its defence and needs but a call the wrong room and assaulted the wrong to the occasion. The following were reportfrom his voice, at the first clash of actual person. He then disappeared, with $15, ed and unanimously adopted. existing system of taxation, predicts the li is true that party engenuity, or party rebellion to bring three millions of armed 000, which had been advanced to him on payment of the whole debt in less than anmity has not failed to make the message men, their whole military force, from the a lot of cotton. The merchant, the mo- a wise but inscrutable Providence, to remove ded her conversation, her manners the subject of numerous complaints, which, fifteen free States, to his assistance, willing, mey and the cotton, are all missing. The by death, Samuel Eccleston, late a fellow- her entire life, to a degree very uncome Taxation Laws .- With regard to the however, with a simple exception, are of able, and as determined as himself to sweep | I ribune also learns that notes to the val- fore propositions that have been made for a re- so idle and frivolous a character as to be peal of some of the present revenue laws, utterly unworthy of notice. It is of too traiter from the face of the conunent.

simple a character to please the fiery taste It is time this insanity of the Traitor Mr. A. M. F. Horn was mentioned by some relatives of the deceased, onr heart-felt sym- friends. She was so amiable, so affect "Neither wisdom, justice, good faith, or of democracy by which we mean those Party and the Traitor Party and the Post, of Ssiurday e- pathies and condolence. We mingle our ate, so dutiful and so exceedingly for exceeding for excee the true interests of the people will be rampant patriots who deem themselves the should come to an end. The American vening, says he has not been abrent or sorrows with theirs, for their inconsolable that the grief of all those who knew found to warrant a material departure from Democracy of a land where all are Demo- Union cannot be disolved. The man does missing, but is to be found at his place at loss; blighted hopes and wounded affections. Will overshadow the future; atound he mitted from Balumore by the same mani Esq., Attorney of the Messis. Barings, of sings of a better world. burg, Steubenville, Wheeling, Zanesville, nouncing the gratifying intelligencer, that Resolved, That a copy of the above reso-Columbus, Springfield, Dayton, Cincinnati, the contract for the 23.000 tons of iron, re lutions, signed, by the President, and Secreof the treasury system of the State is re- do with these questions, except to accept Canton, Massillon, Cleveland, Sandusky, quired for the extension of the Ba timore tary of the meeting be presented to the famcommended, and numerous defects therein and execute the constitutional laws by Detroit, Erie, and Buffale. But for the deceased and that those proceed- 23d year of his age, son of Mr. John which Congress, whose duty and whose breaking of the line at Louisville, it would Wneeling, has been closed at £5 10s .- ings be published in the Kent News. Internal Improvement Companies .- The sole prerogative it is, shall settle them. also have been communicated to St. Louis, The purchase is made with the bonds of Governor reviews the annual reports of Complaints of this character are, indeed, Galena, and Burlington, lowa. This is an the company. The wintelligence will be S. G. Fisher, Secretary. the various internal to provement compa- wholy absurd, and they tall upon the pub- unprecedented feat in telegraphing, and is hailed with sincere pleasure by every nies, accompanied by the remark that their lie car like the whistling of the wind, which the more remarkable from the fact that it friend of this great limprovement, and its affairs are presented in a prosperous and the public regard not. They are the was not found necessary, during the whole officers are deserving of high commenda-

Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot. WASHINGTON, Dec. 31, 1849. The old year is passing out as I write. a State Journal, regarding his candidacy He has just returned from the city then, on the advent of a new year-mid- me I have done right, and I know a gen- denomination in expounding the as the beginning, of sedition. It is the way in the nineteenth century-for us all erous and confiding constituency will sus- of his Redeemer. His profound to The above comprises all the principal voice of a just but stern judge, sitting in who love the Union, to resolve anew to tain my course. cherish and protect it, and to stand by

of note, as I learn has yet taken place.

ate, the names of the following persons and ifornia, are put down as follows :- First ity with the world."

Mr. Bradley, as Postmaster of this city. | bed and board found, $200. Mr. Mudd, as Commissioner of Public

Mr. Lathrop, as Navy Agent.

some others. let the work be commenced here, where death by hanging was imposed. damages can soonest be repaired. If on ing Committees of the House to-day complexion of the Committees. They are Bank at Westerly, Rhode Island, was en- Blessed be God we are not without decidedly Locofocoish.

The House a resolution to-day to go in to the election of its Clerk, &c. on Thurs ing here this evening.

the President's Mansion, and to make oth- accepted. POTOMAC.

pulations and the same operator of the London, which he immediately laid be- Resolved. That the character and virtuous Telegraph to Harrisburg, Carlisle, Pitts- fore the Committee on Construction, and txample of the deceased, are well worthy of Still Pond, Dec. 22, 1849. the successful negotiation.

vidual has published a letter in the Indian- find them at the store of W. N. Wil t not stiffe the public voice, by refusing to

If you doubt or falter, you are denound he might be styled a non-conforme termined me never again to be a candi- and such was his christian charity How fit and appropriate the occasion, date for Congress. My conscience tells willingly participated with any ch

A CLERGYMAN KILLED .-- Rev. Moses energy, made his services always ac our Town we consider one of the health of our columns prevents us from noticing sige, we do not find that other citizens are priate the occasion, also, to be mild and S. Morris was shot dead recently, near to-day. We doubt not that the whole at all disposed to regard the passage with conciliatory towards those who would Decatur, Ala, by Dr. Delony. A letter was highly estimable, His time w

Erysipelas, I; Consumption, I; Sudden- most satisfactory review of the affairs of message, has struck the deepest chord in be doing God's service to bring that dis D. Parson M. observing him approaching poral pursuits, made necessary by the American heart has sent a thrill of solution about. Madmen should not be with a gun, on horse back, stopped bis family who were tenderly and affection positive joy through the entire soul of the chafed or driven. They should be mildly horse, threw aside his blanket, and bared ly brought up, educated and advances ers, 1; Pneumonis, 5; Burnt, 1; Convul. Declined.—We perceive by a corres- American people—it is that very paragraph treated and persuaded. If then they get his breast. Dr. D., supposing he was life in a way, that few could have a sions, 3; Old Age, 2; Parylytic, 1; Dropsy 1, pondence in the Baltimore Patriot, that in which the President takes his stand so exasperated and danger us, they should be searching for a pistol, shot him dead on plished on such resources, with under the spot Parson Morris was universally attention. He was a kind and for all the parricides who dream of Both houses of Congress adjourned to- beloved. No defensive weapon was found counsellor, both in spiritual and bus disunion-that noble, glorious, Washing- day over to Thursday next, on his body when the inquest was held - concerns an attentive good neighbor ton-like final paragraph which we quote The Senate had a short Executive ses- The difficulty, so far as ascertained, ap- from estentation, with unlimited her again, and which we should wish to see sion, to refer messages received from the pears to have been in consequence of fam-ty. Beside six children, now grow ily discords. Delony was committed to has left the aged companion of his b > gentleman which gladdens the hearts of his from N. York on the 13th of January, at the test mony of a good conscience, ama, with the steamship Isthmus, is Feb- confidence of a certain faith, in the con-I understand that the President sent in ruary. The prices of passage through of a reasonable, religious and holy his first batch of nominations to the Sen- from New York to San Francisco, in Cal- in favor with his God, and in perfect cabin, stateroom berths $350; second cab-Mr. Wallace, as Marshal of this District in, standee berths $280; steerage berths, To the great grief of his parent > CONVICTION AND SENTENCE FOR MUR teen years. DER .- Wm. E Knowlton, who has been This was a youth of uncommon p Mr, Woodward, as Naval Store Keeper on trial for the murder of Prudenca S. Ar- ise. Possessing naturally a superior Mr. Fitnam, as Penitentiary Warden, and nold, a girl of 12 years, at Uxbridge, Mass. tellect, he blended with it so many on the 31st of January last, was found traits, a gentle and submissive spin This was right. If a system of rejec- guilty by the Jury. The defence was in- exemplary correctness of conven tions is to be insisted upon and carried out sanity, but it entirely failed. Sentence of and conduct. Like the son of Hanni

> the other hand, there is to be no such sys- | Escape FROM JAIL .- Wm. C. Park- Towards his parents and relations he tem, or rule, ca ried out, why here is the hurst; who was confined in jail at Rich always been dutiful and affectionate. proper place and now is the proper time mond, Va , awaiting his trial before the Su- ver in a single instance did he receive Mr-Speaker Cobb announced the Stand- night. free negroes, made his escape on Monday last sickness he was to his parents asset of almost mornated established

> CREAT BANK RUBBERY .- The Phœnix Professors, he was all that we could tered one night last week end robbed of dence given on his dying bed and Mr Bayly heads the Ways and Means $15,500 in notes of the Bank, of 1, 2, 5 ously, that the faithful religious instruct He and the senior editor of the Union are 10 and 20 dollars. A reward of $1000 imparted to him were not in vain or the most intimate of friends, social and po- has been offered for the recovery of the companied by the believing influence litical. We shall now see if the U ion's money and arrest of the robbers. The the Holv Spirit A tew weeks wind th reats about stopping supplies and sala- Bank will immediately recall its circula- expressed the desire and resolution sporting gentry of New York have two bove. It is a sudden and awful prize fights on hand. The first one is to sore disappointment of hopes fondly We have pretty good and brisk sleight come off in six weeks, for $500. Tom ished but it is inflicted by his best in Hyer has, it is said been again challenged in inscrutable love, and for wise and Great preparations are making to go to by a bar-keeper in Chatham st., and has clous purposes. The Lord gave, and > on Friday afternoon, January 4th, 1850, to express then grief occasioned by the death after a brief illness, Isabella, daught

The meeting was called to order; and on year of her age.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God by teristic, was christian simplicity, it p student of Washington Cullege: There for one of her age. And though she friend, whose assiduity in his studies, duti- somed. But the most cherished the feiness to his instructors, and emulation earth are frail and fading, and she w EXTENSION OF THE RAIL ROAD—Con | gave great assurance of his future usefulness and emmence. But alas! the invisible hand Road, yesterday received from Boston, a joining in the march of his fellow-school-THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE was trans- Telegraphic despatch from T. W. Ward, mates, but we trust that he enjoys the bles-

W. J. STONE, President.

large supply of delicious Teas, from A 50 to $1 50, for sale by WILMER & FRANCIS

OG Persons wanting cheap Gon now opening a large assortment of Cassimeres, Sattinets, Tweeds, V &c. Also handsome Dress Goods Ladies; Groceries; Hardware, Queen on- OBITUARY.

edge of scripture, derived from a voted to its study with untiring ze ble where no local rule prevented. In private life the subject of this vided between theological studies a and his life, whose affectionate and care softened his rngged path-mar friends, Died, 31st l'ec. 1849. San son of the Hon. J. B. Eccleston, aged was dedicated to the Lord at his birth the grace of God wes evidently with of almost animmeled satisfaction student of the college, remarks one a minister of the glorions gospel of Lord Jesus Christ, but the Muster TOM HYER IN THE FIELD AGAIN .- The him to a different service in the tem

> Lord hath taken away, blessed be His In Still Pond, on Tuesday the 4th

> James and Elizabeth Gale, in the the principles of the Gospel of our and Saviour Jesus Christ, its precept become ber delight. Her leading chi ien to the earth like a flower.

> The dear delights we here enjoy, And tondly call our own, Are but short tavors borrowed now, To be returned anew.

Died in Kent county on Sunday the 23d ult., JAMES W. VANNORT, I nort of Port Deposite.

Well may it be said that in the mids life we are in death. A few short mor ago this estimable young man left the idence of his parents in good health," a fair prospect of future usefulness, affliction came, and efter two den