For the Star.
MY NATIVE SHORE, GOOD-BY.
BY PELAYO.

Dear native land, dear treasured home!
A few short days, and then
For distant parts, we leave, to roam
O'er mountain, hill and glen—
And e'er of thee, the last, last glimpse
Shall fade within the eye—
To heaven we'll breathe a tender prayer,
My native land, good-by!

Oh, beautious home, sweet paradise!
Oh, smiling river and bay,
And glassy lake, like glassy ice,
When ripples cease to play.
And scarce an Autumn's zephyr stirs
The leaf of brilliant dye;
Fond memory oft will picture bright,
My native shore, good-by!

Oh, charming eve, at sunset hour,
When yon great orb sinks low,
And paints the sky with matchless power
With tints of heaven's rain-bow—
Where fleecy clouds float soft above,
And dewsar hang on high,
Ye gates of Paradise roll back,
My native shore, good-by!

'Tis then, in splendor unsurpassed,
The living waters dance—
'Tis then, the snowy sails and mast
Of bark, the scene enhance—
And landscape, flooded with a glow,
From richly gilded sky,
Reflects a radiancy sublime—
My native shore, good-by!

Sweet maiden, fair, adieu! adieu!
And ye, whose bosoms swell
With generous thoughts, impulses true,
My earnest prayer, farewell!
On earth, perchance, we meet no more;
Then dear hearts, let us try
In brighter worlds to re-unite:
My native shore, good-by!

A QUESTION FOR LAWYERS.

In looking over the Constitutional provisions for the election of sundry, offices, we find in section vi, article vii, the following directions for the election of Commissioner of the Land Office:

"There shall be a Commissioner of the Land Office elected by the qualified voters of the State, at the first general election of Delegates to the Assembly after the ratification of this Constitution, who shall hold his office for the term of six years from the first day of January next after his election shall be made to the Governor, and in event of a tie between any two or more candidates, the Governor shall direct a new election to be held by writs to the several sheriffs, who shall hold said election after at least twenty days notice, exclusive of the day of election.—The said Commissioner shall act as judge of the Land Office, and receive therefore the sum of two hundred dollars per annum, to be paid out of the Treasury.—He shall also perform the duties of the Register of the Land Office, and be entitled to receive therefor the fees now chargeable in said office; and he shall also perform the duties of Examiner General, and be entitled to receive therefor the fees now chargeable by said office. The office of Register of the Land Office and Examiner General shall be abolished from and after the election and qualification of the Commissioner of the Land Office."

It will be seen that no provision whatever is made for the election of a successor to the present Commissioner. In regard to all other officers, the mode and manner of filling the vacancy in case of death, resignation or other cause producing one is clearly pointed out, and the election of a successor provided for, but in the case of the Commissioner of the Land Office the election first held under the Constitution, if certified and approved by the Governor, seems to be a finality.

The offices of Register of the Land office and Examiner General were abolished by the Constitution, and it would seem as if that of Commissioner also with the six years for which he was elected; no provision having been made for the election of a successor; unless it can be found in some other clause not connected with the subject, which we have overlooked.

OUR PRESIDENTS AND THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

In the year 1833 says a contemporary) Mr. E. C. Delavan, by personal application, obtained the signatures of Presidents Madison Adams and Jackson to a declaration against the use of ardent spirits.—Each successive President has added his signature to the instrument, excepting Gen. Harrison, to whom it was not presented. The document is now made complete up to this time by the signature of the present Chief Magistrate of the United State, and is as follows:—

"Being satisfied, from observation and experience, as well as from medical testimony, that ardent spirits, as a drink, is not only needless, but hurtful, and that the entire disuse of it would tend to promote the health, the virtue, and the happiness of the community, we hereby express our conviction that, should the citizens of the United States, and especially the young men, discontinue entirely the use of it, they would not only promote the health, but the good of our country and the world."
