BETTER LATE THAN NEVER .- The convention have at last agreed, by a vote 49 to 36, to employ a reporter, and have the debates in full published.

A NEW YORK LAWYER.—The New York Mirror thus speaks of Geo. W. Niles the New York lawyer, who, with an accomplice named Rogers, another lawyer. was lately convicted of obtaining $2000 a poor dupe of a married man, with a family, on the pretence that he had wronged another husband, when the woman in the blessedness. Niles, it appears, had been in the habit of this sort of thing:

"G. W. Niles, now awaiting his sent-nee in the City Prison, is said to have been an ultra pieus man, who used to boast that his seat in Church was never vacent. It is said that he obtained his wife a most estimable woman, under false pretensions to Religion; and she is mo deeply afflicted on discovering the" wolf in sheep's clothing," who won her affections through "pious fraud." We have not yet heard the first expression of sympathy for him, while every one pities the wome wronged and widowed by his crimes.

The general opinion is that his sentence will be the extent of the penalty allowed by law, three years in the State Prison; and we have heard many regret that the term is not ten years instead of three."

ANOTHER FORREST AND WILLIS AFFAIR AT THE ASTOR PLACE OPERA .- The New There is no valid reason why the United York Mirror states that a most disgraceful States Courts should not be the proper trifracas took place on Monday night in the bunals to test the validity of land titles in lobby of the Astor Place Opera House, be- Californin.
