and lowly I may be?"

the headdress; then she wept to think pursuit.

The flight of the pedler became a mat
"Clara, dear Clara," cried he, "the Spencer is spoken of for the station. she, "Rover, farewell-take the wings of young pedler from the slightest imputa- for myself alone."

a dragoon. I wonder what she wan- declared his resolution of relinquishing Every one smiled at thi saudden interted of the pedler. Pll go in and see his present course of life, and embrac- rogation. if all is safe."

from pursuing Rover. an dismay. Ah, ha! I know what made choice, let it see that you glory in ac- way." the old woman walk so fast. But I'll knowledging it."

catch him yet?" ower for."

struggling to free himself from Clara's wealth are not for me." ted with wondrous strength.

have said my mother has been kind to in mortification and dismay.

pedler any km of yours?"

but I knew he was innocent, and I pi- of God. May Rover forgive me this I could not be kind to any but my own worthy of her who is blest with a heart ment. He promised, too, to say noth- fast filling with guests. to depart unmolested.

and bare necked through the damp air," | "Be not angry, dear Clara, though the young folks to get such romantic since its construction. Great efforts will part he, "the folks will think you crazy. have pleaded the cause of Rover with notions into their heads, for all that, be made by the company to prevent their Stop till I get you a bonnet and shawl all the interest so romantic a love could Every old woman with a mob cap recurrence. of my wife's. I can get them without inspire, I cannot but feel for my cousin. don't turn into a rich young widow, Clara thanked him for his considera. which I once dared to promise him man. tion, and the fear of being taken up for would prove successful." a crazy woman, induced her to accept "Never, never mention his name to the offer. But when he brought her a me ag in," cried Clara, "nor seek to wonderful looking shawl, flowered all raise in me emotions, which sometimes over with beasts and birds, and a straw triumph over my better nature. I have bonnet which looked as if it had sur- been the child of vanity, and once sacvived a hundred fashions, she feared the rificed even my integrity to vain display danger still existed, and that she would and heartless ambition. And now, when lose her own identity in the various I have been struggling with my indweltransformations of the evening. The ling enemy, in the strength of disintergood natured jailer laughed heartily, ested love alone, and feel as if I had and said "there was a good deal in come off conquering, let not your hand, things belonging to a person, and fitting Gertrude, supply my vanquished foe them, after all, for they became his wife with new arms to rob me of my victory?

anightily." upon him, and returned home, while, of light poured its effulgence into Clara's like Collins' Passions:

Chira's now glowing countenance. She thought she, when she reached her own gether in strange confusion. She was seemed transformed. Her eyes, that door and she stood on the threshold only conscious of being led forward into had always bowe! a ashed beneath the pale and trembling. The existation of the centre of the room by a hand that beams of his, were riveted intently on having pe formed a generous action no rembled as much as her own, and of his face—and the hand which had nev- longer buoyed up her spirits with unna. hearing a buzzing sound around her like er willingly been abandoned to his hold, tural excitement. She felt that she was the murmur of many voices. now clasped his, in the energy of her a daughter, acting independently of a "Be not dismayed, dear Clara," said mother's sanction, and she shrunk from the bridegroom, in a low voice, in her

"Clare," said he, and his voice trem- the terrors of her renetrating gaze. A ear, "your generous confidence shall tled with deep emotion, 'this is no time glance through the window, from which never be betrayed." for deception -- on one condition only the light streamed in glimmering rays, Clara, who had been gradually raiswill I fly. Should my fame be cleared, relieved her worst fears. She saw her ing her eyes from the floor, as they reand my character proved upright and mother quie ly seated at a little work-ta- covered the sense of vision, perceived pure, will you allow me to declare my ble, her Bible opened before her, en- that every face was turned towards the love before the world, and consent to lirely absorbed by its sacred pages .- bridegroom, with a stare of amazement. unite your fate to mine however poor Clara was too much accustomed to pass It was more than curiosity. It was her evening in her chamber, for her ab- wonder mixed with incredulity. Involul will consent to any thing that ob- sence to excite observation, and Mrs. untarily following the direction of their accept our thanks for valuable public M. Vickers; both of Kent County tains a mother's sanction," replied Clara. Stanley usually set up till a late hour, glances, she raised her eyes to the face up the cloak, and throwing it over his with her chastened and religious tone and a wild exclamation escaped her shoulders, she entreated him to hasten, of character. Clara stole softly up lips. It was Washington Graham that BALTIMORE APPOINTMENTS.—The Miss MARY R. Dyorr; both of this as tootsteps were heard echoing through stairs, hastily divested herself of her supported her. Washington Graham, President, it is said, has decided upon the passage. There was no time to be strange attire, and, smoothing down her with all that high-bred elegance of dress lost, and he hastily gathered the folds disordered locks, endeavored to com- and manner, which distinguished him the following Baltimore appointments: of his clock around him; but when he pose herself to rest. But no slumber from all others. The waiving hair care- Collector, P. F. Thomas; Postmaster, bent his head for the mob cap and spec- that night visited the couch of Clara .- lessly shading the brow of marble white- J. G. Davis; Surveyor, J. O. Whartacles, unconquerable mirth struggled Her nerves were unstrung. The singwith the tumultuous sceling excited in ing of the wind against the window made with the dark, his bosom. Even, Cara, though wrought her start from her pillow. The clouds lustrous eyes, whose glance had so of val Officer, James Polk; Marshal, J. Chestertown, a short course of His Ashley Jaous upon by a thousand fears, could not for- drifting over the moon seemed the sha- ten thrilled her very soul, and which W. Watkins; Solicitor, J. C. LeGrand. torical Lectures. The following will. Ashley Mary the jailer, who remained on the outer than is generally the case in village gos- of a poor and lowly man." heard the latter mutter, as he fumbled Rover were in full preparation, through think of passing off for a pedler?" ex. in his severe bereavement. about the keyhole, "the old woman the influence of the all-conquering Ger- claimed an old lady, who had been rubmight have had the manners to speak trude. Edward and Mrs. Stanley were bing her spectacles half a dozen times, to a body. She strided by meas fierce as induced to yield their consent. Rover to ascertain if she could see distinctly.

him and escape through the open door; Gertrude insisted upon arranging every bear witness" her next was to remain and prevent him thing her own way.

"No, no! exclaimed Clara, springing upon her those tasteful gifts affection drawing rom the trembling hand the forward, and holding him by the arm. - loves to bestow on such occasions, Cla- clong to his arm for support, smiled an held, whose slender fingers seemed gif- | She thou he she had subdued every man appeared, dressed in a plain suit trace of her once besetting sin, but when the darkest green, his hair combed i "It is a cruet office," cried Clara, she sat in her own room, overcome by shading waves over his darkened brow "and I would not wish to keep it; and those feelings which press home on the his complexion tinged with the same if you do lose it you shall have a better heart of the most thoughtless on their gypsy dye-"Rover!" exclaimed Clara, one instead. My brother shall exert bridal day, she saw the unexpected ap- and sprang forward with a bound of ir his influence and you shall not be bla parition of Washington Graham sweep- repressible delight. Every remaining med. Dear, good jailer! do not be and ing by on his raven black horse, in all doubt vanished, and she wept in the

"Gertrude must have known of his she would never have known him from ing the passengers. Of some 40 per"So she has, and a blessed woman coming," said she, brushing away the Adam—only there was a sort of a look sons in the two cars the following were S For sale by she is." replied he; "and so have you, tears that trembled on her cheek, "and out of the eyes, that was like nobody killeds too, as to that matter; but what makes yet she gave me no warning. I cannot else in the world but him elf. you take on so about it? Is that young bear that he should be present, to look There was now a general rush of Mahby, Baltimore; Autelius Sallie, supdown in scorn on one equal, if not su-"No," answered Clara, blushing; perior to him in every gift of nature and was almost smothered with caresses but I knew he was innocent, and I pi- of God. May Rover forgive me this from those, who, a few hours before, home from Cabifornia; Richard Clayton, INESS MAKING &c. tied him -sorry, indeed, should I be, if last lingering moment of weakness, un-and suffer it to be supposed that the at her brother's, in an apattment ad- spectacles, after the bridegroom: had prisoner had broke loose from confine joining the drawing-rooms, which were resumed his character as Washingto

The sudden unfolding of the doors Clira showered down her blessings prevented Gertrude's reply. A flame eyes, and every thing swam in confu-in low but firm accents; then snatching the tranquility of the night harmonizing of him on whose arm she was leading. Documents.

ment. She was sure that Madame Lav- ter of three days wonder in the town, hue of the gypsy, the garb of the pedallette did not laugh when she liberated during which time active measures were ler, alone are wanting, but the faith of her husband from the gloomy Concierge, taken to discover the place of his retreat the lover, the rows of the bridegroom, ished every thought but her separation prehended, who, by a voluntary confes- has been constantly exerted in my be-

The gray folds of the clak were for lion of the day. But what was the as- grace, thus diverting their attention

ing some honorable profession, in which "I had written to him," rejoined Ger- THE intelligence reached this cit He reopened the door, looked found the energies of his mind could be called trude, "of Clara's history, and of her this morning of a sad and fatal ac- towns will also be included. the cell, and was about to close it, into exercise, and Clara, who was, per- invincible horror of the very name; and cident which befel the passenger train when returning and shading his eyes haps, a little disappointed at things go he, in the proud confidence of his own from Wheeling yesterday, about 3 p. with his hand, "I thought I saw some ing on so smoothly, where she expected unborrowed excellence, resolved to en- at a point on the Baltimore, and Ohio torical key to the general state of Soci- Johner Wor thing white in this corner. As sure as so much opposition, expressed her wi'- counter the most obdurate prejudices, Railroad, seventy-six miles west of Cum- ety, during the sixty years, S. Mar,'s Jones Jho I am alive it is a woman! Bless my linguess to go with him to the world's that he might have the glory of con- berland, caused by the running off of was the Capital of Maryland; with a Jones Jacob E. Welch Jas W stars, if it is not Miss Clara Stanley!" end, if it were necessary. She shrunk quering them. How he has succeeded a part of the train at a curve on a high view of the laws, customs, and p hity of Clara's first impulse was to rush by from the idea of a bridal festival, but your own congratulating hearts can now embankment, and the precipitation down

"If," said she, "you have shown your- tinued the persevering old lady, "why passengers, about fifty in number. Why, where is the pedler?" cried he, self superior to the prejudices of the she didn't find him out. I know nolooking from side to side in amazement world, in the independence of your body would have deceived me in that Gertrude spoke in a low voice But when she would have lavished Washington Graham, who, gently wit "You cannot be so cruel. He is inno- ta put them from her, refusing to wear left the apartment. Clara followed him tites the door reopened, and a young congratulation towards Clara, and she posed to be from South Carolina; Lewis Coach Trimming, thought it would be a disgrace to visit of Wellsville, Virginia; a young lady, THE Subscriber takes this method of depart unmolested.

"But you must not go bare headed from agitation"

Gertrude, kissing her cheek, now pallid Stanleys, for the luck that follows the first instance in which tice. disturbing her, and you can send them Washington Graham is here, returned not every pedler into a fine gentle-

MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 31, 1853. Wheat, white Corn, yellow Clover seed Timothy Butter in kegs 61 to 7 cts. lb. jured. Bacon-shoulders " sides

Hams

CHESTER TOWN, Md. SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1853.

bear laughing at the ludicrous effect of dows of horsemen in the fleetness of were now bent on her pale, bewildered The Attorneyship is not settled, Jervis

DEATH OF MRS. FILLMORE. - Mrs. OF MARYLAND and he must have looked equally gro-but in vain. Intelligence was received, remain. Forgive the deception I have Fillmore, wife of Ex-Presi't Fillmore, tesque in her French manile and veil. just as they had given up the pursuit as practised in concert with my romantic died in Washington, on Wednesday The cold sound of the turning key ban hoveless, that the real murderer was ap- consin here, whose guardian genius last. She had been suffering some MARYLAND. from Rover. "And now," whispered sion of his crime, had exonerated the half, to prove whether I could be loved days, from an attack of Pneumonia. The first Lecture will embr. ce a his- Copper El za which finally ended, it is said, in suf- tor cal picture of the group of Indian Cohee F A the morning, that all pursuit may be in tion of guilt, who again made his ap- "Yes," added Gertrude turning to focation. She was a lady endowed tribes and confederacies originally seat- Copper Geopearance in the village, the hero and wards the company with inimitable with many amiable qualities of heart, taries; with a special eye to the Indians Coleman Wm one moment wrapped closely around tonishment of the good people when it from Clara's unconquerable emotion, was esteemed and loved by a large circle of the Chester, and of the other Rivers Comegys & A her, and a soft deep voice mi roured in was reported that Clara Stanley was ac suffer me to finish the explanation. I of friends, and her decease has cast a upon the East side of the Bay. her ear, _ "farewell, generous, noble, and tually going to be married at her br th- know all our friends are interested in deep gloom over the society, in which, devoted Clara. Your holy confidence er's, where a splendid wedding was to hearing. My cousin came hither, dis-during the last few years, she gained of Maryland-of the Kent Island, the Comegys Mrs Edu Robinson Wm gusted with recent proofs of the treachme all your trusting heart believed." to some distant place, where the pedler ery of those who were auracted towards many warm friends and admirers, by Roman Catholic, and the Puritan Par- Cohee Rebecca Robinson B ron The door slowly creaked open. Cla- was to give up his profession, and try him by the mere distinctions of wealth the graceful dignity with which she lies-of Parties, which grew out of as Carroll Thos ra sprang into the darkest corner of the to pass off for a gentleman. There was and fortune, and laying aside their gaurell, while the present passed out to more reality and truth in the reports dy trappings, he assumed the disguise presided over the hospitalities of the present territorial limits of Maryland. Doman Dan't cell, while the prisoner passed out to more reality and truth in the reports dy trappings, he assumed the disguise Executive Mansion. The whole counside. She trembled, for she distinctly sip. The nuptials of Clara and young But what upon earth made him try will sympathise with Mr. Fillmore cal sketch of the early Towns upon the Farris Sophia 2 Todd Robert the slope of the two hindmost cars of the social and dones ic life of our an-"But I can't for my life think," con- the train, containing a majority of the castore.

Distressing Railroad Accident.

SECOND DESPATCH]

The following are the particulars of persons, and thoroughly by no one what- Divine permission, be dedicated to the the distressing accident which occured ever - the other is to improve the realty or worship of God, on Sunday the 10th of on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad yes- the other property of the Parish. Every April. The services will commence at terday afternoon. The train consisted dollar of the money arising from the 10 o'clock, A. M., and will be conducof a baggage car and three passet ger sale of icke's, will be consecrated to ted by the Rev. Bishop Waugh R vs J. cars, and was in charge of one of the the good of the Church. cent. and you might have his life to an any thing more adorning than a plain with her eyes, as if she feared he was most cautious and skillful conductors The History of the Principality of about to vanish like the phantasmagoria on the road, to whom no blame can Maryland is but little studied, because But it is as much as my place is "If I am to be the bride of a poor of a dream, and there was a dead pause possibly be attached. The cars were it is dry, because it is difficul. worth to let him go." said the jailer, man," said she, "the decorations of in the whole assembly. In a few min- drawn by one large and one small en- And the long lost chapters in our early gine, when passing the 80 foot filling, History, are not yet, and probably never on section 76, and descending a curve will be found. But comething has been grade of 116 feet to Cheat river, the done, by Historians of the present cenlarge engine started the nails binding tury. And something more may still be rails to the chesnut cross ties. All the done. It will be the chief aim of the cars got over safely except the two last Lecturer, both by the aid of facis, and b passenger cars, which, by the parting of the laws of a strict induction, to elucithe track, were thrown down the river date those points, upon which light inside, falling a distance of over 100 feet deed is now most needed. asked a favour of you before, and you tocracy, she turned away from the sight The old lady put on her spectacles and making four summersets in their Chestertown, March 30, 1853. and looking close in his face, declared the cars caused the loss of life by crush-

Daniel Holt, of the firm of Hole & April 2, 1853.

THIRD DESPATCH CUMBERLAND, Mar. 28-7 p m. The express train from the scene of the accident has arrived.

List of the wounded: F. S. Close, injured severely in the back; Adam Zoll, of Rockingham, Virginia, injured slightly; George Calvert, of Fauquier county, Virginia, injured slightly; Abner Flowers Will pay particular attention to the situated on the bank of the Dela-108 to 112 of Salein, Fauquier county, Virginia, H. VV sale of Grain and other Produce ware River, near the grounds of the late 102 to 106 A. Turner, of Baltimore, with his wife -also to purchasing Guano, Lime, Joseph Bonaparte. For beauty of si u-56 to 57 and sour children, bruised. burnt, &c. Plaster, Cloverseed, &c. 51 to 53 will get well, C. Sonders, of Shelby, Ken. Have on hand constantly a large as- fulness no Institution in our country 75 to 80 tucky, severely burnt and cut; Dr. Cad- sortment of choice GROCERIES at possesses superior and few if any equal-33 to 38 wallader, a merchant of Louisville, thigh low prices. $7.25 to 7.50 broken in three places and injured in Apr. 2, 1853.—eow3t. $3.00 to 3.25 the breast, dangerously hurt. Gardiner -101 cts. lb, and Morrison, brakemen, severely in-

71 to 74 The bodies of the dead will be brought also fine Table Salt in bags. 10 to 12. down to morrow. The accident occur-

PERSONAL .-- WIT, WHITIAM A. LEICON the well known editor of the Richmond Enquirer, will soon lead to the hymenilal alear the distinguished actiess, Mrs. Mowatt.

CONNECTIOUT ELECTION .- The elec- thereof be shown on or before the tion in Connecticut for State efficers, a ond day of June next: provided a con-Legislature and four members of Con- of this order be inserted in some news gress, takes place on Monday next .- paper printed on the Eastern Shore There are three tickets in the field, whig the State of Maryland, once in each democrat and free soil.

MARRED.

On Monday last, by Rev. Dr. Murray. THANKS.—Hon. J. A. Pearce, will Mr. ABSALOM W. DOBBS to Miss JANE and a half cents; and the amount Historical Lectures. Under an arrangement with the Ves- Remaining in the Post Office at Ches. 1. THE EARLY INDIANS UPON THE Anderson G. o.

CHESAPEAKE. 2. THE EARLY HISTOR CAL PARTIES

3. THE EARLY TOWNS UPON THE Bently John CHESAPEAKF. 4. THE EARLY STATE OF SOCIETY, IN Batten Mary

The second will consist of a histori | Chaney Al-x cal analysis of the three original Parties Carty Thos Chesapeake and its tributaries -some Fowler Gen of them now ex nict-while he very Gary Jas name and site of others have been for Gleaves Jas F Vochell Juo B gotten. In this Lecture, will be noticed Griffith Ell in N.w Yarmouth and York, upon the Grissom Thos. Wood C L S CUMBERTAND, MD, March 28. Eastern; St. Mery's and London, upon Harris Gidenn Woodland Jas F . the Vestern Shore. Oxford and other Hadaway Elw Woodland Emily

Hendrix Win H Wilson John P The fourth (upon the most interesting Hendrix Chas W Wilson T M of the four thomes) will present a his- Hall Sophia

The object of the proposed arrangement is two fold :- The one is to difuse some historical information upon MITHE Ne . Union Methodist Episcopal CUMBERLAND, March 28. | topics understood impersectly by most | Church, on Keut Circuit, will, by her again? The bride of Washington and middle aged gentleman, supposed I informing his friends and the pub-Clara continued her pleadings, and The shades of evening came on, and Graham was a very different person to be from Kentucky; a small sep son lie that he is prepared to do all kinds of in short, as the jai'er said, had "such a Clara, in her robe of unadorned white, from the bride of a pedler, but Clara's of Robert Murray, a supervisor of the Couch Trimming and Harness Making; taking coaxing way, there was no get- with the bridal rose wreathed in her hair, heart whispered that Rover and Wash- railroad, and a child of Mr. Grese, of St. also, Painting Varnishing, Cleaning, THE members of the Medical Sopersuaded him to let the matter rest, anticipating summons. She was already "Well," said the old lady of the severely injured; and, with three other and repaired. He may be found on ted to meet at the tavern of Mr. John The names of the wounded, and fur- Hon. J. B. Eccleston, where he will be Tuesday during the session of the ther particulars of this deplorable disas- pleased to see all persons wanting any county Court. The principal object Graham, and the wedding was concluter, cannot be ascertained until the train thing done in his line, which will be of the meeting will be to appoint two ing about her agency, and to permit her "I am proud of my sister," exclaimed ded, "I never saw any thing like these reaches here at five o'clock this evening. done cheap, and at the shurtest no delegates to represent the said Society

WILMER & WALKER.

JOHN E. LAWRENCE. Chester Town, April 2, 1853.

GEO, A. MERRITT. WM. K. MERRITT.

W. K. MERRITT & CO. Grocers & Commission Merchants, GGI S. CALVERT St.; 71 CHEAPSIDE, good aupply of Bridles, Collars, address Traces, lines, Buckets, Tubs, and WILMER & WALKER.

BALTIMORE, MD.

Ordered that the sales made and . ported by George Vickers, Trustee C. the sale of the real estate of James W Patton and Thomas Alford, deceased heirs and devisees, be ratified and con firmed, unless cause to the contract three successive weeks before the ond day of May next. The reports states the amount of sales of James Patton's real estate to be co hundred and fifty dollars and sixty Thomas Alford's real estate to be True copy. Test: J. F. GORDON, Clk. Apr. 2, 1853.-3w.

LIST OF LETTERS Weer Job Karanaugh Thos Kleue Win Kennard Henry broes Peter Kelly Jno H. Briscoe Wim Brown Catharine Linsey Juo Middleton Ben Bregey John Boyer Levi Norris Jno A Norris Hannah 4 Copper Kennard Price Miss Quay Jno

Pierce Wm H Rasin Elizabeth Reed Philip G Retter Abraham Robinson Louis L Rasir. Jno W Shan Matilda Smith Caroline Shan Jno Vanderford Living Walker Jas L

Milson Jas Wilkinson Wm Wittineter Geo 4 Woodall Jno R

Apr. 2, 1853. DEDICATION

Poisol, and A Manship. THOMAS SUMPTION.

March 26, 1853. A Card.

DR. WM. H. LASSELL,

DESPECTFULLY offers his profes-It sional services to the curzens of Kent county. He may be found at the office of Wm. S. Lassell. Esq, Chester to come and see you, and . now or March 26, 1-53. -- 16

quantity of PRIME MERCER

POTATOES, for seed or family use. A better bu of Potatoes was ne. ver offered in this market. WO THOY MSAM? LAA. SMITH, C. Town. March 26, 1853.

in the American Medical Association, which will convene in the city of New York, on Tuesday the 3d day of May THOS. WILLSON, M. D. Pres. of the Society.

March 26, '53-3t

Bordentown Female College BURDENTOWN, N. J.

PHIS INSTITUTION is beautifully ation, ease of access and general healthadvantages. Tre summer session commences May 2nd For catalogues containing terms,

JOHN H. BLAKELEY, President. March 26, 1853-